CHILD MEETS AWFUL DEATH

Little Girl Burned to Death at St. Helens.

(Journal Special Service.) HELENS, Jan. 23.-Saturday morning Mrs. Gabbert, of St. Helens, formerly Miss Stella Rowland, of Eugene, left her little daughter of two years crawling about on the floor as she left the room. She was out of the room not to exceed two minutes, but a horrible sight met the mother's gaze on returning. By some means-it will never be known for a certainty—the baby's dress had caught fire and was in full blaze. The frantic mother extinguished th flames with a bedspread at hand, but it was too late. The child lived but four hours afterward, apparently not suffering to any great extent.

Will Be Used to Tow Logs Up the River.

Contraction of the second The steamer Cascades, which was recently purchased from the government by the North Pacific Mill Company, has been taken to the Willamette Iron Works' dock for repairs. The company will use the steamer for towing logs up the river. The Cascades was built by Joseph Pacquet in 1882 at a cost, including work done by the government and outfit complete, of $38,985. Her tonnage is 227.52; length, 160 feet; beam, 28 fee and 6 inches; depth of hold, 6 feet. Her boiler is the usual steamboat fire-box type, 24 feet and 3 inches long by 5 feet liameter, with 83 tubes. The steam dome is 12 feet and 4 inches by 4 feet

SHOULD BE BUILT

Industrial Institutions Make Demand Acute.

Many New Factories Under Construction---Employes Have No Residences.

Building operations are being steadily carried forward on the East Side despite the rainy season. New residences are going up in every direction and many others are being projected.

Most of the houses under construction are of a modern type, and cost in the neighborhood of $2000 each. Very few of those being erected will cost less than $1,500. The building operations are not con fined to any section of the East Side in particular, as work is being rushed over the entire territory. Throughout Sunnyside, there is much evidence of building. This section of the city alone added about 100 homes to its list within the year just closed. Sellwood is undergoing a change and many stately residences are under course of erection. The many new factories in that section of the city have made the demand for homes for the workmen more acute than ever. The demand will be more lively than ever with the completion of the industries now being finished. The Portland Clothing Company is erecting a large plant on the grounds of the Portland Woolen Mills Company. A large number of men will be employed at this institution and it is said that the management of the factory will erect a number of cosy dwellings for the use of the employes. These will be rented at the lowest possible price. The East Side Lumber Company is rushing the work of erection on its new mill at the foot of Spokane avenue. About 75 men will be employed at this institution when under full operation. Many new homes will soon be needed The Sokna Comment to the substitutions employing a large number of men will be in operation late this spring and some thing will have to be done at once to get them accommodations.

PASTOR WELCOMED

Ladies of University Park Methodist Church Hold Reception.

A public reception was given Rev. Gilbert Deniston, the new pastor of the University Park Methodist Church by the Ladies' Aid Society of that organization last evening. A large number of visitors were presente Rev. L. E. Rockwell, presiding elder of the Portland district, and Rev.

made short addresses of welcome to the new pastor. A number of other visitors spoke of the church and its aims. To these Rev. Deniston responded in a pleasing manner and expressed his thanks for the kind reception. The new pastor arrived in this city a few days ago from Kilbourn City, Wis., where he officiated as pastor of the Mt.

Collection of Cases Come Before East Side Justice.

The Tualatin Mill Company has filed a suit in the East Side Justice Court against J. B. Tillotson for $77.55, for lumper purchased. Costs are asked for. M. J. Stearns has sued Mary C. Stafford and N. D. Stafford for $12.55, for merchandise purchased. The plaintiff asks for costs. Justice Seton has issued a judgment for $2.01 in the suit of the Ames Mercantile Agency against O. C. Sundt for $8). The plaintiffs were also allowed interest from October 1, 1894. Graham & Cleaton, the attorneys for the defense, announce that they will move for a new trial.

JUDGMENT FOR $1

Damage Suit for $180 Takes All Day in Justice Court.

The suit of L. T. Lewis against Robert Schulze, formerly proprietor of the Cuba Cafe, for $180 damages, took up nearly the entire day in the East Side Justice Court yesterday. Schulze, the defendant, conducts a saloon at the corer of Fourth and Stark streets. Some time ago he rented the premises in the rear of his place of business to Lewis, who conducted an oyster house. In his suit, Lewis claimed that the defendant deprived him of the use of a rear room and for this the damages were claimed. Judgment was allowed Lewis in the sum of $1. Claude Strahan, attorney for the plaintiff, announces that an appeal will be taken.

The Oregon Water Power & Railway Company is rushing the construction work on its Springwater branch through Sellwood. The company has its monster Leaves steam shovel at work near the old race track and fair progress is being made in the removal of the large grades through that vicinity. The dirt from these grades will be used in the filling of the many low places along the route of the new road and as soon as the dirt is removed, it is dumped into flat cars and hauled away by horses. The company has already let the contract for the trestie work between Sellwood and the city. Grading is still going on in the vicinity of the Golf
