

HOT LETTER ON CHINESE LOTTERIES

E. S. Walling Reveals Their Magnitude.

Charges That They Are Still Running Despite the Police Crusade.

Sensational charges are made in a letter directed to The Journal by E. S. Walling. The writer says:

"For the hundredth time the press of this city has said that the Chinese lotteries must close. And at the same time they never close or ever have been closed for a single moment. Very few people have the faintest idea regarding the magnitude of the Chinese game. There are at the present time 22 companies with a daily expense of $15 each; this does not include tickets of stationery. These are furnished by a regular pool.

"There are 134 agencies at a daily expense of $3 for rent, light, fuel, tickets and so forth.

"There are 37 cappers or boosters, who win large sums of money daily.

"Both Chinese and Whites are employed; they receive a salary of $2.25 per day. The Chinese claim that each company puts up $10 per week and each agency $300 to the graft.

"If you will stop and figure this up, you will come to the conclusion that Chinese lotteries are no tin-horn affair. In conclusion, I will say that it is safe to wager that Chief Hunt and all the police in the city can't stop Chinese lotteries for a single minute."

Some of the statements in the above letter are manifestly impossible to verify. But careful inquiry by a Journal reporter has verified the statement that the lotteries are not out of business. It is very difficult to procure tickets unless well known, but tickets can be secured at some of the most prominent places and more than that, the dealers assert that in two more days everything will be wide open again.

Chief Hunt smiled when asked about the lotteries and said with a chuckle that he would like to find an open one, in order to haul somebody into court.

Frequenters of the lottery shops scout all notions about the closing of the lotteries and wink the other eye.
