

TOMMY REILLY GETS DECISION

TOMMY REILLY DEFEATS NEILL

Secures Decision in the Final Round.

Seattle Boxer Was Aggressor and Forced Fighting Through the Entire Contest.

(By John A. Horan.)

Tommy Reilly, Seattle's strong young boxer, succeeded in gaining the decision over Al Neill, the clever California middleweight last night in a 20-round contest at the Exposition Building in this city, the bout going the full limit.

The better fighter won; the more clever man lost. At no time during the entire battle did Neill come within hailing distance of winning, while at several stages he appeared slightly distressed, but never lost his cunning. Reilly earned the victory because he was the aggressor during the entire fight, save a half minute in the eighth round when Neill mixed up things rather lively, but inflicted no apparent punishment. Many were of the opinion that Reilly was knocked down in that round, but the Puget Sound warrior only slipped, one knee reaching the floor. He walked to his corner at the end of the round as strong as when he entered the ring.

In the twelfth round, Reilly broke a bone in his right hand, rendering that member almost useless, but notwithstanding this, Reilly fought one of the hardest, most stubborn, and persistent fights ever witnessed in this city.

Hard Hitting Boxer Whose Aggressiveness and Fighting Power Earned Him a Deserved Victory Last Night.

Reilly Did the Leading.

He began the fight by doing all of the leading and continued his tactics throughout. At fighting and mix-ups he excelled his opponent. At was during the frequent mix-ups and rushes that Neill displayed his superiority in generalship, by escaping from many tight places without receiving a blow. While being rushed around the ring and closed on at short range several times, Neill skillfully slipped away from Reilly in lightning fashion, leaving Reilly's swings to cut the air.

Whenever Neill got down to business he landed some good, hard punches on Reilly's left ear and several of his uppercuts were sent to Reilly's jaw, but lacked the necessary force to do any damage.

Reilly, after setting his own pace, kept it up, in leading style, forcing the fighting at every stage, with a characteristic doggedness. He would double up his shoulders like a kangaroo, hold his right glove guarding his jaw and follow Neill around and around until he cornered him, when he would shoot out his left with great power, very seldom landing effectively. Neill met scores of blows and several times on quick exchanges Neill had the better of the scuffle.

Not Spectacular.

The bout was free from all spectacular scenes, and entirely clean and well conducted. There was no slugging or fouling excepting when Neill received a hard straight punch that made him wince; he thought that he was hit too low, but the crowd saw the blow, and yelled for the fight to go on.

There were many present who thought that Neill was over-confident, but when it is remembered that Neill has had a longer ring experience, and has fought many good battles, having a few decided wins, hanging on to Reilly to avoid punishment. In the twentieth round Neill clinched after a lead and was groggy, and well winded at the tap of the gong.

Not Reilly's Hand.

One noticeable feature that I could not overlook, was in the twelfth, after Neill became aware that Reilly's hand was being hung on him too low, but the crowd saw the blow, and yelled for the fight to go on.

BILLY SMITH WANTS REILLY

Willing to Meet Neill's Conqueror.

Reilly's Next Bout Will Be With Heavyweight Jack Fogarty, at Marysville.

"Mysterious" Billy Smith, accompanied by the White brothers, paid The Journal a visit today and expressed his willingness to meet Tom Reilly before the Pastime Athletic Club under the same conditions as the latter met NEILL SMITH, who is listed to meet Ben Tremble before a Tacoma club the latter part of the present month is working faithfully and fast getting into condition.

Reilly, who is listed to box Jack Fogarty 20 rounds before the Marysville, Cal., Athletic Club, if successful, will probably meet Smith before the local club.

NEILL ANXIOUS FOR ANOTHER TRY

Says That He Is Willing to Meet Reilly Again.

Al Neill visited The Journal's sporting editor this morning, having his left hand swathed in bandages, which he says he hurt in the third round. Neill otherwise bore no evidence of being a principal in last night's 20-round contest. He says he is willing and eager to meet Reilly again, and as he conceded the latter a return match, he thinks it but fair that Reilly should grant him another meeting. He says he found Reilly a much improved man, and as strong as a bull, but despite these handicaps, he is willing to meet him again, as next April or sooner, if his left hand regains its usual wonted strength.

"My best weight is 148 pounds, and when I meet an opponent at higher figures I am handicapped. But despite this, I am willing to meet him again. During my lengthened career I have met with but three reversals, and have scores of wins to my credit."

Wants Tennis Standard.

(Journal Special Service.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—Much more than the usual routine of allotting tournament dates is likely to occupy the attention of the delegates to the 22nd annual meeting of the United States National Lawn Tennis Association that will be held at the Waldorf-Astoria tomorrow. Several changes in the playing rules will be given careful consideration, looking toward a standard that is the same both in this country and in England. The sending of an American team abroad and the arrangements toward considering the challenge that is sure to come from the English Lawn Tennis Association must also be settled. New rules governing the plan in the national championship at Newport are also to be brought to the front, so that the winner of the tournament will be obliged to meet the champion. These things are all of great import, and are likely to result in the most wordy meeting that the American tennis body has held in many years.

Zelie De Lussan

Recital of Zelie de Lussan at the Marquam to be a Brilliant Affair.

Mlle. Zelie de Lussan's first American concert tour began November 7, 1902. Her itinerary includes Canada, Texas and Pacific Coast, and bids fair to rival the success of Nordica's last year's tour triumphs. Zelie de Lussan is our own American song bird, being born and bred in New York. She is, however, of French parentage, and possesses all the sparkling vivacity peculiar to that nationality. She is also a remarkably gifted actress, whose "Carmen" rivaled that of the great Calve. Of her singing, nothing needs to be said, as her triumphs both in Europe and America are familiar to every one.

The Weber is the piano chosen by Mlle. de Lussan to accompany her on her present tour, and is appearing wherever the celebrated little artist does. This notable triumph of the Weber, however, is only one of its long list of triumphs. It is, in fact, a familiar figure at the great majority of strictly representative musical events. The entire Metropolitan Opera Company, composed of the world's most celebrated musicians, with one accord, prefer and are using the Weber. The great French pianiste, Madame Roger-Miclos, who makes her debut in America this season, is using it; also the English contralto, Madame Louise Kirkby Latta, starting now in this country, and it also accompanies the great violinist, Kocain whenever he plays on his present triumphant American tour. The reason for the phenomenal popularity of this one piano among people eminently qualified to judge is the peculiarly sweet, soft, sustaining and sympathetic tone which it possesses. This it has to such marked degree as to impart to it an individuality that distinguishes it among all other fine pianos. It is sold in both upright and grand styles by Ellers Piano House, Washington street, Park Beach, and other large stores in San Francisco, Spokane and Sacramento.

Our leading pianos—the Weber, of New York; the Chickering, of Boston, and the Kimball, of Chicago.

Jockey McIntyre Marries Girl of Boyhood Days.

Years ago, when "Archie" McIntyre, well known as a jockey, was a little boy, residing with his parents, at East New Durham, N. J., he attended the village school with a neighbor's daughter, Martha V. Beach, whose parents live at 106 West Twenty-fifth street, New York City.

They became great chums and agreed to marry when they became old enough. Last month McIntyre, now wealthy, wrote from Paris, where he has been riding, that he would be home soon and hold his sweetheart to her promise.

He arrived at her house last Sunday and claimed her hand, her parents consenting. They were married by the Rev. G. W. Gowan, pastor of the Grove Reformed Church, in Hoboken. A reception followed at the McIntyre home.

McIntyre rode 51 winners last year in France. On account of a dispute with the starter his license was revoked, but he expects to go back and ride there this year.

After a brief honeymoon he will take his bride with him to Europe. McIntyre was born in East New Durham on June 5, 1880. At 12 years of age he found employment at Guttenberg with S. C. Hildreth, afterward trainer for W. C. Whitney. He remained with him six years, and then entered the stable of "Lucky" Baldwin. He next rode at Toronto, Aqueduct and Washington. At the latter track he rode 19 winners in eleven days. He has amassed a comfortable fortune.

Cy Seymour.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 13.—After a hard battle, which lasted 10 minutes in the Grotto saloon on Walnut street at a late hour one night last week, Cy Seymour of Cincinnati baseball team soundly thrashed Jesse and Lee Tamm of the New York team and came out of the mix-up unmarked. The trouble started in a Sixth-street bowling alley about a score.

Seymour had some words with some one of the party, but the matter was patched up and the party went to the Grotto for a farewell drink.

It developed, however, that Jesse Tamm had not satisfied with the amicable settlement of the controversy and after a few words remarked: "Cy, you seem to be looking for a fight; why don't you fight me?"

"You look just like any one else to me," and in the twinkling of an eye the battle began. Jabs and counters were exchanged in rapid succession and Seymour looked an easy winner. At this juncture Jesse's brother, Lee, took a part in the fight. As a result, he received a broken nose from one of Cy's drives. After the fracas, Seymour went home on a car and the pair of New York players went out to look for a doctor.

Yale's Football Finances.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Feb. 13.—The Yale Football Association held its annual meeting last week and elected the following officers for the coming season: President and manager, Herbert C. Miller of Bloomington, Conn.; assistant manager, Edward E. Elbridge Spalding of Lynn, Mass., and secretary, James J. Waring, Savannah, Ga.

Football at Yale, including putting up new stands, and repairing old ones, cost $30,222.45 last year, but as the annual receipts were $56,400.50 there was left a surplus of $15,977.55. Manager Fox explained the disposition of the surplus by stating that about $7,000 would be handed over to the crew, which cannot raise a cent of gate money at its races, and about $2,500 to the track team, which is also non-supporting. The rest of the surplus is used to pay the running expenses of the Yale Field.

Yale Downas Columbia.

Yale won the fourth annual dual gymnastic competition with Columbia University by a score of 41 points to 23 points. The event was held in the big and handsome gymnasium of Columbia University.

It was the second year in succession that the New Haven students won a majority of the points. Each college now has two victories to its credit.

Yale's victory was due to the excellent work of De Solo, who won the most number of points on the parallel bars, horizontal bar and flying rings.

Jamaicans Fear Autos.

H. T. Eisenberg of Chicago has just returned from the Island of Jamaica, and relates some interesting automobilizing experiences which he had while there. He made one run from Kingston to Newcastle over the military road. The run is a hard one of 12 miles, 4,000 feet being ascended in this distance. Mr. Eisenberg made the run with a friend in one of the Locomobile Company's runabouts in just four hours. Another trip was made to Port Antonio from Jamaica in four hours, being a little less than the railroad running time between these points.

Mr. Eisenberg states that the Locomobile created a great deal of excitement on the island, but that so far as business concerns there are very few people who have money to invest in automobiles. Most of the army officials live well up to their income. The roads on the island are very good, although there are some curves which make very high speed impossible.

Munroe Treats Sharkey.

Tom Sharkey was a guest of Jack Munroe at the Bowery Theatre one night last week. The sailor is very much interested in the mine, as he is to meet him in a 20-round bout some time after March 3. Sharkey watched the performance from a box and when Munroe came on with his bout the sailor kept his eye on every movement of the man who put Jeffries down with a punch.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION.

The Result of the Pain and Irritation From Hemorrhoids.

Nervous prostration is often the result of neglecting a case of hemorrhoids or piles; the pain and irritation attendant upon this disagreeable trouble inconveniences and annoys one, but it is possible to go to business and to do the ordinary day's work, so the trouble is neglected until the nerves become exhausted and the patient is a victim of nervous prostration.

Hemorrhoids cause a sensation of heat, tension and itching in a region where is located the most sensitive nerves of the human system, and the continued irritation will eventually cause a collapse of the nerves. This would easily have been avoided if the patient had carefully treated the case, of piles from their first appearance. No other trouble can be so quickly and safely overcome if treated in an early stage and even if the case is an old one, there is a remedy which will act with remarkable results if faithfully applied.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is in suppository form and can be conveniently applied to the afflicted parts, the soothing oils and medication reaching and healing the enlarged hemorrhoidal veins of the rectum and acting at once upon the inflamed tissues.

Every sufferer from this trouble should send at once to the Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., for their book on Piles or Hemorrhoids, which will be sent free. The Pyramid Pile Cure is so well known by the hundreds cured by it, have so advertised it that the little book is merely sent to give each patient a clearer view of his or her particular case and the proper treatment for it.

The best medical authorities are unanimous in recommending horseback riding for nervous, lung and kindred complaints. Particularly in this mode of exercise beneficial on this West Coast, where the patient can enjoy the pure open air, inhale Nature's ozone and the respiratory fragrance of pine, fir, cedar and hemlock.
