PACIFIC KENNEL CLUB VICTORIOUS

Portland Club to Show Under Its Patronage.

Proposition to Go to the American League Voted Down at Last Night's Meeting.

The meeting of the Portland Kennel Club, held last night in the rooms of Justice of the Peace Reed in the Almsworth Building, was well attended.

The meeting was called to order by President Tucker, who briefly stated that the business before the meeting was to decide whether or not the next bench show, to be held in this city about April 15, should be under the auspices of the American Kennel Club or the Pacific Kennel League.

After lengthened discussions pro and con by Messrs. Holman, Fechtelner, Davis, McKay and others, President Tucker put the question to the members present, with the result that the meeting decided to stay with the present organization—the Pacific Kennel Club.

Twelve were in favor of going over to the American Kennel Club, but about 30 voted them down.

The next show will be held about the middle of April. The coming exhibition will exceed the past ones by at least 400 more entries.

Great American Derby.

One look at the list of entries for the American Derby, to be run next summer at the Washington Park racetrack in Chicago is enough to show that the Derby of 1903 will be the greatest race of the year for 3-year-olds in this country.

Announcement has just been made that the fourth annual squash championship for the amateur title and trophy of America will begin the week of February 21.

Ideal Winter Sport.

Although squash is generally regarded as an indoor winter sport, the fact remains that it is zealously played throughout the year by its ardent followers.

There is nothing of the parlor novelty of ping-pong about squash. It is nearly as difficult as court racquet and fully as rapid as handball. After a game of this exciting sport the player really feels as if he had done something.

To Box at Seattle.

Perry Queenan of Milwaukee and Marvin Flaherty of Massachusetts, brother of Martin of that ilk, are listed to box 29 rounds before the Tacoma Athletic Club February 27.

THE UNKINDEST CUT OF ALL

Malachy Hogan Stabbed While Defending a Woman.

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—As a result of going to the side of a woman who, it is said, was being addressed in an abusive manner, Malachy Hogan, known throughout the sporting circles of the United States, received a knife wound early this morning from the hands of J. Percy Robinson, inspector of an insurance company.

Robinson became furious, it is said. He is said to have attacked Hogan with his fists, and when he found that he was unable to land a blow upon the sportsman he drew a knife from his pocket.

John Randall also saw the affair, and corroborated Staehman.

It is not known just how much money was taken from Handsbury. It was thought at first that the check for $30 had been stolen, but Salvage showed up at the station this morning, saying that he had it.

Brown is out on $25 bail.

UNDER BRITISH FLAG.

The steamers belonging to the Dollar Line are to be put under the British flag. A company has been incorporated at Victoria, B. C., known as the Stanley Dollar Steamship Company for the purpose of taking over the steamer Stanley Dollar, now carrying lumber to the Orient.

After a fierce scrimmage Howlett was at the bottom of the writhing mass of humanity and when the referee held himself he lay unconscious on the tan bark.

He was carried off the gridiron and an ambulance was called. His condition has become worse since reaching the hospital.

Gambling is Unlawful.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Justice Gaynor in the Brooklyn Supreme Court last week handed down a decision interpreting section 251 of the New York State Penal Code to mean that the recording or registering of any bet, not the making of it, upon an issue of chance is in violation of the laws against gambling and consequently a crime.

This was the result of action to recover money lost on a horse race.

Coming to Compete.

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Charles Jarrett, one of England's foremost automobilists, is coming to this country immediately after the James Gordon Bennett Cup race to compete against the best men of America.

Champion Cow Is Dead.

AUGUSTA, Feb. 17.—Little Pauline de Gol, the world's champion Holstein-Friesian cow, is dead. She was the property of Frank Rose of this place, and he had recently refused $2,500 for her.

Record Wrestling Bout.

The recent wrestling bout between Fred Doerr and Mike Christ at St. Louis, Mo., is said to have been the longest wrestling bout on record. It lasted five hours and 15 minutes.

GREAT ARTISTS AND BUILD ROAD BY CONTRACT

Mile. de Lussan and Angelo Fronani to Give One of the Best Concerts Ever Heard Here.

The following is from the Daily Evening News, Williamsport, Pa., November 9, 1902:

The program was one which would of necessity please the most exacting critic and the layman as well, the numbers being well contrasted and calculated to show her voice to the greatest advantage; and Mile. de Lussan's voice is capable of anything that is dramatic.

Angelo Fronani was at the piano and it would be hard to imagine a place where he could be more at home, both as a soloist and an accompanist.

The beauty of this concert was further enhanced by the use of the Weber piano, whose tone quality is pronounced by all artists a perfect voice accompaniment.

It is sold in both grand and upright styles, and is one of the best of the leading pianos carried by Eilers Piano House, Washington street, corner Park.

Man Knocked Down, Robbed

Scandalous Affair in North End Saloon—Bartender Arrested.

Joe Brown, alleged highwayman, burglar and all round bad man, is under arrest, charged with larceny from the person of Harry Handsbury in Patterson's notorious North End saloon last night.

From evidence in the hands of the police, it would seem that this is one of the boldest deeds ever committed in Portland.

Handsbury, a saloon keeper, has the reputation of being a dive of the worst stripe, and this case adds to its lustre.

Brown is the night bartender, he having been employed by Patterson upon his discharge from the County Jail a short time ago.

Handsbury, who is a logger from Cascade Locks, arrived in the city yesterday, in company with James Salvage, an old friend. They separated early last night.

Handsbury kept a check for $37, for safe keeping. He kept plenty of loose cash, however, with which he liked to enjoy himself.

It was the worst thing I ever saw," said Dan Staehman, an eye witness, this morning, to The Journal.

John Randall also saw the affair, and corroborated Staehman.

It is not known just how much money was taken from Handsbury. It was thought at first that the check for $30 had been stolen, but Salvage showed up at the station this morning, saying that he had it.

IN TOLSTOI'S "RESURRECTION"

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—The dramatic event of the week in the metropolis is the initial presentation tonight at the Victoria Theatre of Tolstoy's play, "The Resurrection." Preparations for the production have been making since last summer and it is heralded as one of the most superb productions of the American stage has seen in a long time.

Strongest in the World.

The annual statement of the Equitable Life, published in today's Journal, is one that should, and no doubt will, be extremely gratifying to the many Oregon policyholders of that grand old company.

The figures are stupendous. Assets of three hundred and fifty-nine million, with a surplus to policyholders of more than seventy-five million, is the security offered to the insurers of the Equitable Life.

Y. L. TALCOTT, M. D. WE CURE MEN CONTRACTED DISORDERS. Every contracted disease is attended by grave dangers that nothing less than a thorough and absolute cure can remove. To take even the slightest chance in such cases is to invite lifelong misery. Men do not realize this as they should. A partial cure is followed by a chronic stage, with all its horrors, the same as though the case had not been treated at all. We positively will not discharge a patient until every possibility of relapse is removed. By our system of treatment every patient is surely cured, and made as free from disease as he was before the ailment was contracted. DR. TALCOTT & CO., 500 1/2 Adams St.
