Choynski Backs Out.

Kid McCoy, who now claims that he weighs 185 pounds, was listed to box Joe Choynski before a Philadelphia club on the 23d, but the latter now declines to go on with the meeting, and Big Jack McCormick later on may be substituted. It will be the third meeting between Mc-Coy and McCormick. On the first oc-casion McCoy, thinking he had a "dub" to deal with, grew careless and before the end of the first round was unconscious on the floor of the ring. Later McCoy met McCormick, and after giving him a severe beating knocked him out.

New World's Record.

(Journal Special Service.) CHICAGO, Feb. 19 .--- A new world's record bowling score has been made by the Gunthers, of the Illinois Bowling League. The score was as follows: Klingenberg, 257; Moore, 223; Lamont, 214; Kischel, 241; and Stolke, 206. The American Bowling Congress rules were strictly adhered to, and only one player, Klingenberg, used a loaded ball. The total score was 1,141.

Britt in Training.

Jimmy Britt of San Francisco, who meets Jack O'Keefe of Chicago in a 20round contest before the Pastime Athfetic Club of this city, March 9, has commenced training at Larkspur, Cal., having Charley Reno for his mentor. Billy Britt is expected to arrive in this city after the Corbett-Hanlon contest, to arrange preliminary details.

Promising Greyhound.

Harry Corbett, of San Francisco, is the owner of a promising young grey-hound, a recent arrival from Australia. The puppy is five months old, but even at this early age is an exceptionally fine looker and will undoubtedly be heard from when old enough to course.

Bowling Postponed.

The ladies' bowling tournament at the Multnomah Club did not take place this morning, having been postponed until next Wednesday. Many of the ladie were unable to be present, owing to different engagements, hence the postponement.

Directors' Meeting.

The directors of the Multnomah Ameri teur Athletic Club will meet this evening to elect a president. The meeting will be held at the club house.

Arnold's Horses Gone.

(Journal Special Service.) SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 19.-E. J. Arnold & Co.'s string of horses, and rom Kiley, their trainer, have mysterously disappeared. It is thought they are en route for Memphis, Tenn. Some days ago Kiley attached the horses for $400, and recently they were taken from the track at the request of the Sheriff. Kiley paid the money to release the string, and, putting the horses on the cars, left on the evening He took Fitzbrillar, Stuyve, Irene Lindsay, Felix Bard. Bessle McCarthy to Galen Brown. R. M. Hennessy, one of the Arnold agents, has also disappeared. There was a rumor in circulation that Kiley might go to Mexico with the horses.

Jeff Refuses Again.

Champion Jim Jeffries, at Evansville, Ind., the other night, after advertising that he would pay $250 to any local fighter who would stand four rounds before him, refused to meet George Welkel. Fitzsimmons then took Weikel on for three rounds, and the latter could not be put out. In the go between Jeffries and Fitzsimmons the champion got a severe cut over the eye, and, losing his temper. made a vicious fight against Fitz, who showed equal determination

Two Matches Made.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Feb. 19.--"Spider" Welch of San Francisco and "Micko" Welch of Australia are listed to box 20 rounds here at the featherweight limit within the next two weeks. Carter and Wyatt have also been matched to box 20 rounds before the Brockton Point Athletic Association in the Vancouver Opera House.

The Mayor Objects.

Mayor Fleischmann of Cincinnati refused to issue a permit for Fitz and Jeff to spar there. There has been no boxing in Cincinnati since the Jeffries-Ruhlin contest was prohibited there two years ago. Mayor Fleischmann is a sportsman and likes a boxing bout as well as anybody. It is quite evident, though, that he believes the best way to get a bad law repealed is to enforce it rigidly.

Willie Fernie, the noted professional at Toon, Scotland, who is generally re-garded as one of the greatest golf in-structors in the world, considers Stewart Gardner, professional of the Garden City (L. I.) Golf Club, former workman of his, as one of the coming golfers of the world. Gardner has certainly shown marked improvement each year since he has been in this country. His first appearance in open championship was in 1900 at

The objectionable amendments fastened upon the bill in the House by the committee were materially judiciary modified in the Senate, and in these modlfications the House concurred yesterday evening.

day evening. As finally passed, the bill provides for a board of three commissioners—Her-bert Holman, S. M. Mears and E. W. Wright—who shall supervise sailor boarding houses. Regulations are es-tablished and the proprietors are required to pay an annual license of $250 and to give a bond for $5,000, condi-tioned upon faithful compliance with the provisions of the law. The bill is framed with the object of putting an end to the abuses which have so often disgraced the Port of Portland.

Strenuous opposition was offered to the bill in its earlier stages. The fact that Galloway, the author of the measure, is one of the minority party in the Legislature, was at first used to arouse antagonism to it, but its merits were so obvious that open opposition was soon abandoned. Galloway made a determined fight for the bill, both in the House and before the Senate committee, and his victory was a signal one. An amendment made by the Senate and concurred in by the House provides that the Governor, Secretary of State and State Treasurer may remove any of the commissioners for cause, and shall have power to fill vacancies on the board

The passage of the bill affords one more instance of the strong influence ex-erted by Gov. Chamberlain upon legislation, for it sprang directly from the sug-gestion in his inaugural message.

Robert C. Carr, husband of the prisoner, does not live at home; at least he has not lived there since his marriage. His father did not know of his Costly Blazes at Springfield and indigent circumstances, and the son's youth was too proud to ask for assistance.

With his wife Robert Carr sought livelihood as best he could. His ef-forts were unsuccessful. They were without meals often. Shelter they obtained where they could. Too proud to beg. Mrs. Carr, it is stat-

Quarries, says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a rem-edy in which I have great confidence and I heartily re-indorse what I have before stated about them in our Cripple Creek papers. Some three years ago I gave them to our little girl who was troubled with a weakness of the kidneys. A few doses checked the annoyance and a short continuation of the treatment cured her. She has had vary little trouble since, with the exception of when she caught a severe cold; then there were symptoms of a recurrence, but a few doses of the pills never fails to ward off an attack. I recommended them to a lady friend of mine some time ago, who used them and was also benefited. I keep them con-stantly in the house so as to have them on hand in case of recurrence.
