CLAUDE WINS ANNUAL DERBY

Fine Going at Ingleside Race Track.

One Mile Event Proved Most Interesting, Kenilworth, 6 to 5 Favorite, Winning Easily.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Claude won the California Derby at Ingleside track yesterday. The track was fine. The mile race aroused more enthusiasm than the Derby. Kenilworth, Cunard and Yellowtail met, and they all had supporters, although Kenilworth went to the post a 6-to-5 favorite. Shaw took the big sprinter to the front, and rating him with fine judgment, maintained the lead all the way. Cunard challenged him, but he won by half a length in a drive. Yellowtail was six lengths away. The race was run in 1:41. If 1:39 was equaled or broken, the association would have added $500 to the purse.

Future course, selling—E. M. Brattain won Golden Light second, Gibraltar third; time, 1:11 1/2. Three and a half furlongs, selling—The Mighty won, Annie Marie second, Pachuca third; time, 0:42 1/2. Six furlongs, selling—Diamante won, Puss in Boots second, Tommie Knight third; time, 1:15. California Derby, mile and a quarter value $3,400—Claude, 117 (J. Daly), 5 to 2, won; Gold Van, 127 (Bullman), 2 to 1, second; Epicure, 117 (Shaw), 8 to 6, third; time, 2:09. Durazzo, Dupont and Gold Belle also ran.

WINANS TALKS ON BASEBALL

Well Known Athlete Discusses Situation in Different Towns.

The inland Empire towns and cities will have as great baseball teams in the field this season as last year. The most of them spent more money than they could well afford and the people are taking little interest in the national game now. They do not want to put up their coin as they did last season, see poor ball and find themselves in the hole at the end of the schedule. The above statement was made by Earl Winans, a well known football and baseball player of Walla Walla, who is in this city. Mr. Winans does not believe a "bunchgrass league" will materialize in the inland Empire as had been predicted and says the people of Walla Walla, always the mainstay of such a combination, do not feel inclined to furnish $3,000 or $4,000 which would be required to get a team in the field and maintain it through the season of 1903. One meeting of the fans has been held here. It was poorly attended and he is of the opinion that little is to be hoped for.

Pandleton, too, is rather sore on baseball," he said. "There was a great deal of money subscribed popularly and paid out to players there last year and the Pandleton people do not respond promptly to the suggestion that they follow suit this season. "Athens, the city of the famous Yellow Kids, will have no team at all. Dayton, a town of 2,500 people, seems in the best shape of any, as she was unable to get into the league last year and has $5,000 on hand which she was able to save from the sum subscribed to put up a team then. "There is no telling what the actual outcome will be, but it looks bad for baseball this year."

Jost Challenges Cotton.

Charles Jost ("Young Fitzsimmons") the local middleweight boxer who is training "Mysterious" Billy Smith for his contest with Ben Tremble of Los Angeles, at Tacoma, March 11, writes The Journal as follows: "I am willing to meet Joe Cotton, the colored Californian, in a limited contest before any Northwest club and will risk $200 on the result. I will meet Cotton at 158 pounds or catchweights." Hugo Kelly of Chicago is another of the many boxers who are anxious to journey to this city and meet any man in his division. He writes: "I have a lengthened list of victories to my credit, and recently defeated Mike Schrock, who at Hot Springs, Ark., met Tommy Ryan of Kansas City." "Kid" Carter of Brooklyn, N. Y., who defeated John White of Chicago in Oakland, Cal., a short time since, is after a contest with Tommy Reilly, Al Neill's victor. Reilly writes The Journal: "I am willing to meet Carter at 158 pounds ringside, but will not concede him his figures—165 pounds afternoon of contest."

Pape to Compete.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—Amateur rowing circles are much astir over the approaching departure East of Alexander Pape, the Pacific Coast amateur sculler. He is arranging his affairs with the intention of meeting Champion Titus on the Schuykill at Philadelphia.

AMONG WRESTLERS

Current Gossip of the Amateurs and Professionals on the Mat

Max Wiley of Rochester, who met all corners at Baltimore last week, threw two heavyweights the other night inside of 20 minutes. The first man to meet him was Ernest Caribino, who weighs about 190 pounds. It took Wiley just six minutes to convince Caribino that he was outclassed. Immediately following Frank Phillips went on. Phillips squirmed and twisted, but the best he could do was to last 13 minutes and 30 seconds. Had he stayed 30 seconds longer he would have received $25.

Peter Bannon, who came to this country from England with Joe Carroll of Ireland, has posted a forfeit in this city to arrange a match with P. Hansen of Perth Amboy. Bannon's manager is now negotiating to have the match take place at Perth Amboy. Those who have seen Bannon on the mat say that he is a better wrestler than Carroll. Should the match with Hansen fall through Hansen will consent to meet Eberhard Halm.

Professor La Croix of France, who has enjoyed an excellent reputation as a wrestler since he came to America a year ago, was defeated the other night in an interesting match at Graeco-Roman style at Niagara Falls by Farmer Davis of Buffalo. Davis won the first and third falls. He took the opening essay with a hammerlock and responding with a half Nelson. Davis is now matched to wrestle Ed Atherton, the middleweight champion, at Niagara Falls, and they may meet in two weeks. Atherton has offered to throw Davis three times in one hour.

Farmer Barnes is of the opinion that he can defeat Clarence Bouldin, the "Cuban Wonder," and is ready to meet the latter. Barnes says that if the match is made he will consent to have it decided at either Waterbury or Hartford. Barnes adds that he has been corresponding with the managers of two clubs in those cities and that they have informed him that a good purse will be forthcoming should the bout be arranged. Barnes proposes a match to a finish, at catch-as-catch-can style, best two in three falls to five.

Bernard J. Byrnes of Baltimore writes as follows anent a challenge to him from Max Wiley, the ex-amateur light-weight champion: "Recently Mr. Wiley made a statement to the effect that he would like to meet me in a 15-minute bout. As I am only a 140-pound wrestler, Wiley, in my opinion, ought to look forward to some one else. I am not afraid of him, but I do not think that it would be advisable to give away 35 or 40 pounds to any man. I am ready, however, to meet any man my weight in private for $25 to $100 a side at Graeco-Roman style."

Tom Jenkins clinched another match this week. He has signed articles to meet Fred Cotch, and the bout will be held before the club offering the best inducement. The men have agreed to meet for $50 a side and part of this sum has been already deposited. Cotch, according to experts, is a clever man, and capable of giving the ex-champion a stiff tussle.

Reilly and Fogarty.

Charles Long, who pilots the fortunes of Tommy Reilly, who recently defeated Al Neill in this city, is at Marysville, Cal., where Reilly meets Jack Fogarty on the 21st inst. in a 20-round go, writes The Journal as follows: "Well, I am at Marysville with Tom Reilly, the coast champion middleweight. We will fight Fogarty here on the 21st of February. Neill met Reilly in Portland the morning after his meeting with Fogarty. The men have agreed to meet for $50 a side and part of this sum has been already deposited. Cotch, according to experts, is a clever man, and capable of giving the ex-champion a stiff tussle."

Boxing Postponed.

EUGENE, Feb. 24.—The boxing bouts listed to take place last night at the Opera House between W. H. Parker of Denver and Kid Rogers of Los Angeles and Bert Gardner of San Francisco and Joe Hawkins of Portland, did not materialize in consequence of the non-insurance of the necessary license.

Herrera Bests Jacobs.

SALT LAKE, Feb. 24.—Before the Salt Lake Athletic Club last night Aurelio Herrera, the California light-weight, and Tommy Jacobs, Young Corbett's former sparring partner, met in a 20-round contest before a large assemblage. Herrera merely played with his less-experienced opponent, knocking Jacobs out in the third round.

Cyclist Goes Abroad.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Owen Kimble, the cyclist, sailed today on the Kroonprinz Wilhelm for Paris, where he is under contract to ride five races this spring. Kimble will ride in Paris, Rome, Berlin and Copenhagen and will not return to America until some time in June.

McGovern and Maynard.

Terry McGovern, the ex-champion, and Billy Maynard are to box six rounds before the Penn Art Club of Philadelphia March 29; McGovern, by the way, who is to journey to England and meet Ben Jordan, has made a vigorous protest against six-ounce gloves being used in the latter contest, insisting on the regulation five-ounce.

With the Fighters.

Perry Queenan of Seattle is due to fight Marvin Flarity, of Massachusetts, before the Tacoma Athletic Club February 28. Queenan agrees to give five 10 rounds allowing Flarity to strip at 145 pounds.

KID MCCOY SHOWS OLD TIME FORM

Hoosier Boxer Severely Jars McCormick.

Matty Matthews and Tom Couching Have a Ten Round Go at Pittsburg.

(Journal Special Service.) PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24.—Kid McCoy and Jack McCormick of this city boxed six rounds last night before the Washington Sporting Club. McCormick, despite the fact that he scored a one-sided knockout decision over McCoy in 1899, was entirely outclassed. He took the count 19 times, and only once succeeded in landing on the clever Hoosier boxer.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 24.—The 10-round contest last night between Tom Couching of Pittsburg, N. Y., and Matty Matthews of New York went the limit, the latter being awarded the verdict.

FREAK PLAYS IN BASEBALL

Charlie Daniels Relates Several Yarns About the Diamond.

"Charlie" Daniels, the ex-umpire, who is now with the Hartford Baseball Corporation, was talking of freak plays the other day. He said: "A game between Boston and Washington was played at Boston. 'Charlie' Bennett was catching and 'Mike' Kelly was sitting on the bench, when a foul goes up in the air, and Kelly, being captain, yells to the umpire to call a foul. Bennett out of the game, and at the same time he puts on a mitt with lightning speed and catches the ball. "He then tries to make the umpire allow the catch. But the umpire, after wrangling a long time with Kelly, decides the ball was in play, and Bennett could not be removed from the game until the ball had been caught by a player in the game, so he ordered the catcher to hit over. This was one of the trickiest plays ever made in baseball, as it brought in the winning run. "Archie's Acrobatic Feat. "Archie" Latham scored on a run by making an attempt to slide home, the catcher gets in front of the plate and waits for the runner, but as the throw is low the catcher has to get on his knees, and Latham jumps over him. This is the only acrobatic run ever made. "Jack Bodie, while catching for New York, made a double play unassisted. Two men were on bases—one on second and one on third. The batter hit a double bunt, and he responded by dropping the ball about three feet from the plate. At the same time both runners tried to score, and Boyle touches both of them, making the only double play like this there ever happened on the diamond up to that date. "In a game between Scranton and Wilkesbarre a very amusing incident occurred. 'Tim' Hurst was umpiring. 'Sandy' Griffin, who was at the bat, makes a feint to hit the ball, but draws back. 'Tim' yells out: 'Strike, one.' 'What for, 'Tim'?' asked 'Sandy.' 'You went a little too far, 'Sandy.' The next ball was the same, and the umpire says: 'Strike two,' saying that 'Sandy' felt too far again. The next ball came straight over the plate. Hurst yells, 'Strike three, the man is out.' At the same time he cries to 'Sandy' that he did not go far enough that time. "In a game between Detroit and St. Joseph, at the latter's grounds, a ball was hit to left field. The fielder saw a big snake in the grass and refused to go after the ball, and the batter was credited with a home run. "Denny, an umpire, called a ball a home run, but instead of going down to first he started and ran to third base, completing the circuit the wrong way. He was declared out for running out of the line of base."

Bowling Note.

The regular weekly bowling tournament at the Multnomah Athletic Club last night resulted in victories for Northrop, Keller, Smith and Sargent—score 704. The other scores were as follows: Biley, Handley, Dewey and Hauwagner, 668; Brigham, Pittock, Godfrey and Abendenberger, 657. Young Gibbs of Seattle is matched to fight Mose La Fonta, the champion middleweight of Montana at Butte soon. Dick Fredericks of Seattle and Dick Lewis of Spokane will fight at Spokane the 27th. Winner will fight a go with Jack Clifford of Butte.

MARDI GRAS IN PARIS

(Journal Special Service.) PARIS, Feb. 24.—Parisians today, reinforced by thousands of suburban visitors, celebrated Mardi Gras with more than their usual enthusiasm. Omnibuses and carriages were not allowed on the boulevards, which were densely thronged with merry-making pedestrians armed with confetti. The tables in front of the cafes were occupied by interested spectators of the antics of the masqueraders, who kept up their frolics until long after sunset, by which time the many-colored confetti were ankle deep from the Opera to the Madeleine.

OREGON HONORED BANQUET AT BAKER CITY—QUIET AT SALEM.

(Journal Special Service.) BAKER CITY, Feb. 24.—One of the most enjoyable social events that ever took place in Eastern Oregon was the banquet and reception given last night by the Southern Historical Association of Eastern Oregon, to commemorate Washington's birthday. There were 150 guests, the members of the association and their friends, most of whom are natives of the South.

The big Geisler Grand Hotel was in a blaze of light and the entire hotel from pit to dome had been chartered by the Southerners. The guests were received by Mrs. Roland Thurston Parker, Mrs. William Jackson and Mrs. David Lewis Moonaw. Early in the evening in the hotel parlors Mrs. James A. Panting, a splendid soprano vocalist, sang "My Fatherland." Miss Susie Hayes, a talented singer, rendered "My Old Kentucky Home." Mesdames Phyllis Swan, Goodwin and Miss Hyde sang "Doan Ye Cry Ma Honey." Miss Edith Elizabeth Prescott sang the Rosary; Miss Norma Hyde, a young lady with a charming soprano voice, sang "Alabama" and "Misses. Hale and Thompson sang "Life's Dream," and there were Southern melodies by everybody. The banquet contained typical Southern dishes, including Kentucky possum and Missouri pumpkin pie.

Paul B. Poindexter was toastmaster. The Day at Salem. SALEM, Feb. 24.—George Washington's birthday was only observed in official circles yesterday. The Supreme Court and Circuit Courts were not in session and in the state offices nothing but routine business was transacted, the curtains being drawn before the glass doors. Governor George E. Chamberlain was in the city, but his office was closed and no official business was disposed of, as a result of the condition of affairs the Capitol was extremely quiet and after the exciting scenes of last week the day there appeared as a veritable holiday. At the court house the officers were on hand to wait on all comers, but the business transacted was little and as the courts, as stated above, were not in session, there was little doing. Outside of the public offices, however, business went on as usual, banks and business generally were open and the commerce of the city suffered nothing by reason of the holiday.

At the Salem Indian Training School at Chemawa last night the school presented an excellent musical program and Hon. P. H. D'Arcy of Salem, one of the leading members of the Marion County bar, delivered the address of the evening. Will Women Baths. Some apprehension is being felt by the women in regard to the number of days that the baths will be turned over to them for their individual use. During the last season so few women took advantage of their bathing days that it was cut in half. Then the women became alarmed that the directorate might cut them out altogether, and so began to patronize the baths with a vim that made the directors feel sorry. "But," said one of the directors, "if we didn't notify the women that they would be cut off altogether if they did not patronize the place more frequently, I don't think that women's day would have been such a success as it was during the closing days of the season. If the women do not want to bathe we can find a lot of boys who will."

NEWS NOTES OF WASCOCO COUNTY

Commercial Club Prepares to Make an Exhibit.

(Journal Special Service.) THE DALLES, Feb. 24.—H. J. Maler, president of the Commercial Club, is in receipt of a letter from Frank Drake, superintendent of the Board of Trustees of the Bureau of Information and Exhibits in the United Depot at Portland, requesting that this city co-operate with the rest of the state and advertise the resources of Wasco County. With this in view, a special meeting of the directors of the Commercial Club was called and the following committee appointed to call on the citizens, asking financial aid for the project: N. Wheelton, T. A. Hudson, J. S. Fish, W. H. H. Dufur, F. W. L. Skibbe and A. W. Zimmerman. Delegation at Home. Representative N. Wheelton arrived Saturday night and J. M. Williamson last night. J. N. Burgess and G. W. Phelps also returned last night. C. P. Johnson of Grant County, father of the portage bill, passed through the city on his way home. He was met at the train by a number of the citizens, who wished to express their appreciation for his efforts in behalf of this bill. The schools again open. The public schools again opened today with a full attendance after being closed for two weeks to stop the spread of scarlet fever. A VANDERBILT WEDDING. (Journal Special Service.) NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Miss Effie Vanderbilt Caesar, daughter of Mrs. Hermann Dietrich Caesar and a granddaughter of the late Captain Jacob Vanderbilt, was married today to Reginald E. Bonner, a prominent society and club man. The ceremony was performed at St. James' Protestant Episcopal Church and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's mother in East Fifty-second street.

RECORD OF THE PAST

What Stronger Evidence Can the Reader Ask For.

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from any ailment, will find in the following evidence proof that relief and cure is near at hand: Eugene E. Lario, of 721 Twentieth avenue, ticket seller in the Union Station, Denver, Colo., says: "You are at liberty to repeat what I first stated in the Denver papers about Doan's Kidney Pills in the summer of 1899, for I have had no reason in the interim to change my opinion of the remedy. I was when first interviewed that if I had a friend and acquaintance suffering from backache or kidney trouble I would unhesitatingly advise them to go to a drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills and take a course of treatment. I was subjected to severe attacks of backache for a considerable length of time, always aggravated if I read a newspaper. I struck me while reading a newspaper that if Doan's Kidney Pills performed half what they promised they might at least be worth a try. I absolutely stopped the backache. I have never had a pain or a twinge since. Just such evidence here at home—ask for Lario Davis Drug Co. what their customers say. Sold for 50 cents per box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no substitutes."

IMMIGRATION WESTWARD

Coming Year Promises to Be a Memorable One for Settlers.

The coming year promises to be unrivaled in the way of immigration into Oregon. Everything tends to point to a large influx of settlers into Oregon this summer. Immigrants are even now coming to Oregon. William A. Lord, of Orange, Mass., states in a letter to Secretary Shillcock, of the Board of Trade, that he expects to pilot over a trainload of settlers into Oregon by April 1. Osmond Royal, formerly of Portland, now of Boston, in a letter, states: "If I had printed and illustrated information for Oregon and especially of Portland, I would gladly use it here in the East, as there is a big demand for it." Other letters received by both the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade make the same statement: "There is a great demand for literature descriptive of Oregon in the East."

MONEY NEEDED FOR FREE BATHS

Directors Want to Enlarge the Tank.

More Funds Are Badly Wanted to Carry Out the Proposed Work—Saves Boys.

An effort is being made to enlarge the Portland Public Swimming Baths during the coming season. The enlargement will cost quite a sum of money and everybody who has a few nickels to spare can send them to the treasurer of the institution and share in the good work. The Free Swimming Baths is a public institution, and no person makes a profit out of the concern. Everybody is allowed to take a free swim during certain intervals, but for the use of a locker in which to keep the clothes and a dry towel a small fee is charged. This fee is just large enough to meet the bare expenses of furnishing the goods.

During the last year—the baths' first season—the institution was so provided that at times many had to be turned away for the lack of proper facilities. It is this condition that the directors of the baths are trying to remedy and that's the reason more money is needed—and needed badly. Benefits of the Baths. The benefits of the public baths to a city can hardly be estimated at off-hand and nothing has ever been written that told the entire story. By reason of the locating of the baths in this city, many boys who were formerly wont to use the open river and swell the lists of deaths by drowning, took their daily baths in the public institution, and the number of drownings in the river were reduced to one lone case during the last season and the directors of the baths hope that the institution will be large enough for all to come and thereby enable everybody to take a swim and yet be in no danger whatever. The management of the institution has not as yet made any formal appeal for funds to carry out the proposed enlargement, but it will be done in a short time. Everybody is invited to give, and give as often as their purses will allow. Of course it is not the intention of the directors to discourage anybody from sending as large as a check as possible and no one need have any fear that the gift would not be welcome. Will Women Baths. Some apprehension is being felt by the women in regard to the number of days that the baths will be turned over to them for their individual use. During the last season so few women took advantage of their bathing days that it was cut in half. Then the women became alarmed that the directorate might cut them out altogether, and so began to patronize the baths with a vim that made the directors feel sorry. "But," said one of the directors, "if we didn't notify the women that they would be cut off altogether if they did not patronize the place more frequently, I don't think that women's day would have been such a success as it was during the closing days of the season. If the women do not want to bathe we can find a lot of boys who will."

It is not known just where the baths will be located during the present season, but some of the directors think that the foot of East Taylor street, which was used after the burning of the Madison street bridge may again be secured for the present season. The various floats are located there and will only need to be assembled in order to open the season's work.

NOTABLE AFFAIR IN LONDON TOWN

Wedding of Mrs. Padelford and Ernest Cunard.

LONDON, Feb. 24.—The wedding of Mrs. Florence Padelford and Ernest Cunard took place in St. George's, Hanover Square, today in the presence of a brilliant company that included nearly all the prominent members of the American colony. After a wedding breakfast and reception the bridal couple departed for Nice, where the honeymoon is to be passed. The bridegroom belongs to the wealthy and well-known Cunard family, is himself rich. "In the city," and has a magnificent house in Portman Square. Some years ago he was engaged and shortly to be married to the lady who is now Lady Romilly, but she unexpectedly became the wife of another. Mrs. Padelford, the bride, was formerly Miss McPeckers of Baltimore. She is very fair, and a great favorite in smart society in London. Although still very young looking, she is the mother of a grown-up daughter, who came out a year or two ago. She is independently wealthy and possesses a magnificent collection which has been removed from her home in West Halkin street to Mr. Cunard's new house in Portman Square.
