FOR OREGON

Action of Wasco Watched by Other Counties.

Secretary Magers of the Oregon Good Roads Association is busy at present sending letters to the County Judges of Oregon requesting each of them to ap-point five delegates to the International Good Roads Convention, which will be held at St. Louis from April 27 to May 2 Not much business is expected to transacted on the first three days of this session, as these will be the dedicatory days of the Louisiana Purchase Exposition. The State Good Roads Association will appoint ten delegates at large to this convention.

The idea that the roads of Oregon are not the best is gaining prevalence among the various County Courts. The latest county to be convinced of this fact is Wasco, Last week a committee appointed by the Wasco County Court and The Dalles City Council met and sent a committee to Portland to select proper road-making machinery. This commit-tee returned from Portland last Sunday and recommended that two machines be purchased. As there is not enough money to buy two machines, it was deermined to purchase one. This will be ten-ton Buffalo-Pitts road roller, Dalles City Council will pay one half of the purchase price, which is $3,850, in installments of $1,000 a year for three years, and $850 the fourth year. The entire machine weighs 131/2 tons, and gives a pressure of about 800 pounds to the square inch, which is sufficient to give a good, firm surface to a road or street. It is operated by one man and consumes about half a ton of coal in ten hours, making the cost of operation some $8 per day.

The roller will first be used in packing he streets of The Dalles, then it will be taken to the country and put on the roads. The other County Courts in Oregon are awaiting the results to be at tained by The Dalles machine, and will then probably follow suit.

On Chicago 'Chinge. CHICAGO, Murch 13.-The Record-Herald says: It is easy enough now to see there was too much company in the May corn. Some people suggested that when Armour, Cudahy and the Wells crowd were all in the market to-gether and all in the May future, the canny Tom Wells appreciated some time ago that it had become a situation where a good deal of alertness would be necessary to escape being left holding the bag. He quit the May and sought seclusion in the July, preferring less "action" and more security. There were still left Armour and Cudahy, and was not in the nature of things they would both happen to start selling at the same time. It turned out that the Armour line went over first. The liquidation began last week, but did not become apparent until Monday. Cudahy has let go his May line, but now both interests appear to be going back into cents under the May; yesterday it was only % of a cent under, and there appears to be no excuse now for the May keeping much longer at any premium whatever. Patten alone had the cour-age to follow his conviction. He had corn to cover yesterday, there will now be in the July just as much bull com-pany as there was in the May. The three big interests, all holders of May for a time together, are now long on Inly corn After the change of heart on the part of leading holders in corn, there are those suggesting that perhaps the same experience may rise in the provision pit.

The Big Ones Go Over

From special wires and cables to Bolton, de Ruyter & Co.

NEW YORK, March 18.-Comment last night shows that there is a pretty steady shifting of bears to the bull accounts. It is reported that the strong factors in speculation have changed their positions and are now favorable to improving values. Among these are mentioned Morgan, Rockefeller, Moore and Keene. It is pointed out that fears of roads have been allayed, if not entirely emoved by Mr. Morgan, who is said to ment adversely much longer, The talk on certain specialties is very strong, among the more conspicuous being Reading and Eric first and second preferred. It is intimated that these stocks have been heavily bought by people who realized on a targe line in the sensational advance which carried Reading above 75 and Erie second to 65. Argument is made that with the report of the Anthracite Coal Commission soon to be made public, labor conditions in the coal regions will be put on a stable basis. Other indications are for a range of prices that will mean big profits for the coalers. It is predicted by well informed observers that Reading stock will sell high as it did in 1902.

There are even those who dared to suggest there already had been more distribution of May lines of ribs, lard and pork than has been popular to assume. It looked yesterday somewhat as if this idea had occurred to Cudahy. He was not the first to get out of corn out he remembered evidently he had some provisions long and that there was about as much bull company in the one market as there had been in the other. He poured enough selling orders into the provision market to take about 50 cents off the pork, also 1/4 cent off the lard, almost a half cent off the ribs. It may turn out now that those who ve been so bullish on the product will have an eye more to the price of their hogs than the provision market.

FOR EAST SIDE PUBLIC MARKET

Farmers' Rest Project Being Revived by Push Club.

East Siders have not yet given up the plan for the establishment of a public market in their midst.

The plan for a market is the pet project of the East Side Improvement Association, and during the last summer much work was done by the association in furthering that project. Several committees were appointed and some missionary work was done toward sounding the opinions of the farmers the matter. A site for the proposed institution was promised by the Hawthorne Estate free of charge, and the only expense to be incurred in beginning active work would be the formation of a stock company for the purpose of providing suitable build-and others who might be interested in

No meeting of the Improvement Association has been held for some time, but an effort is now being made in that direction, and the first topic to be brought up will be the public market project

CRUSHED TO DEATH.

August Johnson, a logger, was crushed to death yesterday in the log-ging camp of the Eastern Lumber Company. He came West but the day before, and had worked but a few hours. In felling a large fir tree he in some manner got beneath it and was cut al-most in half. All of the other men working with Johnson were experienced loggers, and when the tree was ready to fall, sprang back out of danger's way. But Johnson failed to do so and met-instant death. Coroner Finley was notified and took the remains in charge. Johnson was 26 years of age and a native of Pennsyl-
