

"Society Keeps the World Moving"

Since Christmas time slipped away with its spirit of fun and frolic Society has not been defrauded of its special days, offering excuses for celebrating.

Society has been out in a body this week attending openings and still more openings. The Easter "bonnet" is casting its shadow before, and woman-kind must be up and doing.

SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE WEEK

Many Pretty Affairs Given on St. Patrick's Day.

Miss Annie Wood had as guests last Monday Mr. and Mrs. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Robbins, Mr. Crellin and Mr. Williams of New York, who spent the day in Portland on their way home from a trip through California.

With Mr. and Mrs. Hathaway. The friends invited to spend last Tuesday evening with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hathaway found the house gay with the color of St. Patrick's Day.

The refreshments were so cleverly true to the St. Patrick idea. Dainty menu cards tinted in green and gold with green lettering were used in the parlors with an American flag and an old-fashioned green umbrella to complete the group so typical of America, Ireland and Oregon.

Reception for Mrs. Coman. Mrs. E. B. Coman has not been forgotten during her long months of absence in New York City, as the reception given in her honor last Wednesday afternoon by the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Presbyterian Church proved.

On St. Patrick's Day. Miss Munroe and Miss Verdell Munroe gave a St. Patrick's party Tuesday night for the members of their whist club and a few additional friends.

A Pleasant Afternoon. Mrs. George Nottage gave a kitchen shower last Saturday afternoon for Miss Gertrude Watson, who is to be one of the Easter brides.

Guests were: Miss Watson, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Ashley, Miss Kney, Miss Holbrook, Miss De Franco, Miss Martin, Miss Jeffery, Miss Edna Jeffery and Miss Le Grand.

Tuesday Afternoon Club. The members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club entertained in a delightful manner a number of their friends, March 17, at the home of Mrs. E. E. Miller, 55 East Taylor street.

The costumes worn by the ladies taking part in the scenes very novel and interesting. After the tableaux Miss Vesta Townsend gave some sketches and impersonations from Riley, Dunbar, Nora Perry, Alexander Anderson. Light refreshments were served by Mrs. A. A. Bailey, assisted by Mrs. George F. Fuller, Mrs. Frank B. Thorne and Mrs. A. M. Shannon.

Miss Kolbrook's Luncheon. Miss Emily Holbrook gave a luncheon and china shower today in honor of Miss Gertrude Watson. The table decorations were in yellow, a rich bunch of daffodils resting on a golden centerpiece, which was subdued by a handsome Battenberg cover.

A Club Party. A jolly St. Patrick's party was given at the Western Academy of Music last Tuesday afternoon. The hall was appropriately decorated in green, the ladies also wearing a bunch of shamrock, a bit of foliage or a bow of vivid ribbon.

For the Whist Club. Miss Morris entertained delightfully Tuesday afternoon for the members of the Monday Afternoon Whist Club, and a few of their men friends. Her home on King street was decorated in Oregon grape and daffodils, and Irish flags were draped with national flags in memory of St. Patrick.

Company B. Company B's hop, given at the Armory last night, was well attended. There is a flavor about a military dance that insures a pleasant evening. The red, white and blue decorations, the sprinkling of uniforms and the very bareness of the Armory add an attraction.

Their First Party a Success. The Royal Rogues gave their initial dance at Parsons' Hall last night, and it was most successful, viewed from every point, for the music was excellent, the attendance large, the frocks worn both pretty and suitable, and the hosts, Messrs. S. A. Bennett, Ransford P. Gilliland, Herbert A. Krumbeln and Hubert E. Parsons, most thoughtful and attentive. The prizes were some handsome gowns in honor of the event.

Crepe de chine. Mrs. James W. Matthews was gowned in black and Mrs. J. P. Krumbeln wore a creation of brown and white. It is pleasant to learn that at least two more parties are planned for this season.

Closing Party. The closing dance of the New Century Club was held at Parsons' Hall Wednesday evening with most of the members present. The year has been a pleasant one in the club's history.

Thursday Evening. On Thursday evening the friends of Mr. and Mrs. I. G. Greenfield, Mrs. Peterson and her son, Mr. Fred Peterson gave them a real surprise at their home on Market street.

Surprised Their Friend. Thirty of Dr. Bert Cable's most intimate friends on occasion of his home at 325 Twelfth street last Friday evening, much to his surprise and delight. Games and bright songs and some clever original charades made the time pass merrily.

At Whist. Dr. Darr and Dr. Quigley entertained a number of friends at cards last Thursday evening.

MANY WEDDINGS PRECEDE EASTER

St. Stephens Chapel is the Most Popular Church This Week.

To say that St. Stephens' Church was filled to the doors last Thursday evening is but to give a faint idea of the number of friends who lined the halls and aisles to witness the marriage of Samuel B. Archer and Miss Ivy Barker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Barker.

A Club Party. The guests were: Miss Gertrude Watson, Mrs. George Nottage, Miss Frank Martin, Miss Anna Stuart, Miss Mary Wells, Mabel Goss, and Messrs. Henry Labbe, Lionel Paget, W. S. T. Thatcher, W. G. New Myer, Walter Goss, Samuel C. Kerr, Dr. Neilson and Dr. D. B. Stuart.

Muffley-Hodson. St. Stephens' Chapel was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening, March 13, at 5 o'clock, when William Muffley and Miss Gertrude Hodson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Hodson, were married before a large number of relatives and friends.

Barling-Burton. At 8 o'clock on Wednesday evening, March 18, Christian R. Barling and Miss Edie Burton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Burton, were quietly married at the home of the bride, 230 Park street.

Merill-Conner. An American has invented an envelope which records of itself any attempt to tamper with its contents. The flap is imbued with some chemical composition which, when operated upon by a dampening process or any other means of penetrating to its inclosure, records the transaction by causing the words "Attempt to open to appear." It is thought that the inquisitive will think twice before pursuing their researches in face of such an invention.
