Jack Grim's Portland Nationals won a game from the Spokane Bunchgrasses yesterday, by the one-sided score of 7 to 2.The Spokane players had an off day.
Gus Klopff, the veteran who is captain of the Pirates, was very erratic, although the scorer kindly excuses several of his errors and credits the Portland batmen with several hits that were fumbled by Augustus K.Mr. Miller, who occupied the slab for the visitors, was very wild, and when he did locate the plate, the Portland swatman would lace the ball out for two or three bases. Both teams scored in the first. Ferris, the first man up for Spokane, hit to Painter and was out at first. Hendricks was passed, and stole second. Klopff hit past second, and Hendricks scored. Norvay struck out, and Elsey retired the side by a hit and out at first.For Portland Delsel walked, was sacrificed to second by Donohue, took a wild pitch, and scored on Kane's bad throw of Davis' hit. "Slats" went to second on the play, but was out a moment later by being hit by a ball from Parrott's bat.Spokane scored their second and last run in the second. Reed walked, but was forced at second by Zalusky, who went to second on Donohue's bad throw to catch him at first, and went to third on a wild pitch, and scored on Kane's hit to center. Miller flew out to Donohue and Ferris retired the side by striking out.Portland scored three runs in the fourth. Wilson led off with a hit to center, but was forced by Hanley.
Painter flew to Ferris who muffed. Wallace hit to center, and Hanley scored.
Painter scored a moment later on a dead ball, which went through Zalusky's hands and hit the umpire.Delsel walked. Donohue hit to left, scoring Wallace. Davis popped up to a little fly which was gathered in by Kane, and Anderson went out at first.
Wilson hit for two bases in the fifth, and scored run the fifth on Hanley's hit to right.In the seventh Parrott hit, was forced at second by Wilson who scored on Painter's three-bagger to the club house.In the eighth inning Delsel went out, Donohue walked, stole second, went to third on Zalusky's error and scored on Anderson's hit past third. The Spokane batters could not locate Wallace's curves with any certainty, while Miller was an easy mark for Grim's men. The score:

mons Died Today.Famous Contortionist Succumbs to Dread Pneumonia at Her Pugilistic Husband's Home.(Journal Special Service.)
NEW YORK, April 17.—Mrs. Robert Fitzsimmons, wife of the ex-champion heavyweight of the world, died at her home at Bensonhurst, L. I., today of pneumonia.The deceased was a native of Australia, a Miss Rose Samuels, at one time one of the well-known Julian duo of contortionists. Martin, her brother, being her partner in their clever performances.
The father of the clever duo for years ran a one-act show in Oakland, Cal., with varying success. Another female member of the family is also a performer, a clever violinist, and became the wife of Clark Ball, a whilom manager of Bob Fitzsimmons, who now pilots the fortunes of Jack Munros, Champion Jeffries' whilom conqueror.On Fitzsimmons having secured a divorces from his first wife, whom he married in Australia, Martin Julian united his fortunes with Fitzsimmons' divorced partner, and led her to the hymeneal altar.To Play on Sunday.
The East Portland Baseball Club, which played the Portland Nationals last Sunday under the name of the Fidellites, will journey to Oregon City Sunday to open the season in that town against the champions of the amateur league last season.New grounds have been built in that city and as this will be the opening game of the season there a large attendance is looked for.
Oregon City has a very strong line up and the East Portland team showed last Sunday when they held the professionals down to four runs that they knew something about the game.The East Portland will go to Oregon City with the following line-up: Brown, catcher; Reed and Hoyt, pitchers; Parrott, first base; Smith, second base; Newell, short stop; Giel, third base; Parrott, left field; Jacobs, center field; Oliver, right field.Won Big Handicap.

The best medical authorities are unanimous in recommending horseriding for nervous, lame and rheumatic complaints. Particularly is this mode of exercise beneficial to the West Baker where the patient can enjoy the pure
