WORK OF LICENSE COMMITTEE

W. F. Geisler, manager of the Owl saloon on North Third street, was given back his license by the Council liquor license committee yesterday afternoon. The license was revoked a few days ago because a Mr Duffy complained that the salcon keeper had robbed him of $180. Both parties appeared before the committee and after Mr. Duffy had explained that, while he had lost $180, he was not sure that he had not gambled with the committee returned Mr. Geisler

Mr. Reibstock of Sellwood asked for a license to open the park that had been closed recently for disorderly conduct. The committee failed to heed his promises to run a good place and the license was not issued. The application of A. Shapiro to run a beer garden on Third street near Yamhill was
