FOURTEEN MEN LOSE THEIR STARS

Tried and True Patrolmen Are Now Out.

Civil Service Causes Dismissal of Many Fine Officers---Chief's Sad Duty.

When the first and second relief and the day watch reported at police headquarters today fourteen efficient, tried and true patrolmen were stripped of their stars of authority, notified that they were no longer policemen, and instructed to cut off their brass buttons and return them to the station as soon as possible.

It was an unpleasant duty that awaited Chief Hunt as the two reliefs reported, for in each squad there were brave officers whose positions had been declared vacant by the Civil Service Commission, and the Chief must so notify them.

"Boys, this is a duty I very much dislike," Chief Hunt would say, and then would proceed to tell those left out of the eligible list what they knew was coming. They would listen attentively, and to the observer it was indeed evident that it was a hard blow to the men who had been ruled out. Their terms of service ranged from three weeks to twelve years, and their loyalty and splendid attention to duty had won for them a warm place in their chief's heart.

The Unfortunate Fourteen.

The following patrolmen were dismissed, and will no longer do police duty: Rasmussen, Isaacs, Caswell, Roberts, Downey, Hilyer, Tichnor, Phillips, Kallish, Barnes, Venable, Crate, Moore and Stitt.

Of those named above, Patrolman Griff Roberts has served the city the longest. Twelve years is his record, and Chief Hunt does not hesitate to say that in all his experience he has never had a more competent or more honest officer under him. Roberts was disqualified by height and weight. He served in the White Chapel district many years, and although there were many police scandals there, Roberts never figured in any of them. He has accomplished many clever pieces of detective work and has arrested several desperate characters in his career as a patrolman.

Of the fourteen dismissed, Downey, Phillips, Stitt and Venable did not take the recent civil service examinations. Venable will take the examination for captain. The other three named did not desire to take the examinations, for reasons known only to themselves.

ROOSEVELT IN PICTURE LAND

(Journal Special Service.)

VENTURA, Cal., May 9.—President roosevelt spent an hour here in this quaint old town. It was here he got his first view of the Pacific. He visited San Buena and the Ventura Mission, climbing its weather-beaten, time-worn belfry to inspect the ancient wooden hull, and was then driven in a flower-covered carriage to a stand where he made a speech. One of the features of the flower decorations was an arch of calla lilies 25 feet high near the stand where he spoke.

The President appeared on the rear platform of the "Elysian" when the train reached Oxnard and told a little crowd of early risers and workmen how much pleased he was over his reception in California. He wished them all good luck.

The President's last hours at Los Angeles were musical ones. While waiting for the electric parade he led the crowd in singing the "Star Spangled Banner," "A Hot Time," and other popular songs.

Roosevelt in Land of Flowers.

MONTEREY, Cal., May 9.—After a day divided among Ventura, Santa Barbara and San Luis Obispo, President Roosevelt will spend a quiet Sunday in Monterey. Apartments for the accommodation of the party have been arranged at the Hotel Del Monte, and plans have been made to show the distinguished visitors all the sights of the locality. Monday morning the journey will be resumed. Pajaro, Santa Cruz and San Jose will be visited and the following afternoon the President will reach San Francisco.

SALEM BASEBALL

(Journal Special Service.)

SALEM, May 9.—The Salem Raglans, as the new Salem baseball team will be called, is now ready for business, and left for Albany at 11 o'clock this forenoon, where the first game of the Willamette Valley League will be played this afternoon between the Salem Raglans and the Albany team. The players secured their new uniforms last night. These consist of gray shirts and knickerbockers, brown and white striped stockings and gray caps, with brown raglans for the parade. Manager G. H. Irwin goes with the team. The line-up for today's game is as follows:

Substitutes—Rollie Southwick, G. C. L. Snyder; official umpire, Jay McCormick.

Morris, Teabo, Sanders and Davis are Indians, formerly members of the Chemawa baseball team. The organization is an unusually strong one, and success is confidently expected by the local fans.

BURIED 200 IN RUINS OF MOSQUE

VIENNA, May 9.—Die Zeits Sofia correspondent wires that the Mosque at Kinpruit was dynamited. Two hundred Moslems at prayer, were buried beneath the ruins, says a Macedonian named Popoff, who committed outrage and afterward committed suicide. In his possession was found a note saying: "I, one Macedonian of the Knights of Death, who pledged suicide after executing commands of the general committee."

LUMBER TRUST IS DENOUNCED

Executive Board Deems It Dangerous.

G. H. Howell Wished Attorney-General to Regulate the Mill Combine.

Although no definite action was taken regarding the lumber trust at the meeting of the Portland Executive Board held yesterday afternoon, there was emphatic and unqualified censure of the action by Portland trade masters in refusing to arbitrate the present strike difficulties. G. M. Howell attempted by motion to cause instructions to be issued to the Attorney General to begin action against the milling combine, but it was finally decided to postpone definite action until the next meeting.

In presenting his motion Mr. Howell said: "The lumber trust is at the bottom of the whole strike matter. Their refusal to furnish lumber to contractors who paid the union scale has caused the employers to stand firm in refusing to recognize their men's demands. The Attorney General should be instructed to proceed against the trust, and we have the same power to act in this matter as did President Roosevelt in settling the coal strike. The men have gone more than half way and have been met by the refusal of the Master Builders to arbitrate. Lumber prices are forced away up by the combine, which is illegal and should be regulated."

Mr. Sichel remarked that the board, through the Mayor, had offered its services as arbitrator of the trouble and the unions had refused the offer. In his opinion the board had no legal standing in such a case and would only make itself ridiculous by trying to settle the trouble.

Harsh and Unjust.

Mr. Boise regarded the stand of the mill trust as harsh and unjust and believed that if the board could do anything it should make the effort.

Mayor Williams gave as his opinion that the board had no legal power and all that could be done would be to recommend action and give the recommendation the prestige that comes from the united statement of representative citizens. The Mayor said:

"I consider the proposition for arbitration made by the unions to be perfectly fair and believe it should have been accepted by the contractors. These employers are standing in their own light and are opposing the best interests of the city."

Mr. Boise seconded the motion of Mr. Howell, with the understanding that the matter should be deferred until the next meeting of the Executive Board.

WERE OVERCOME BY SEWER GAS

Four Italians were nearly asphyxiated by gas this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the corner of Twelfth and Glisan streets, and but for the presence of Patrolman Kay and a crowd of people who quickly gathered, they would have perished.

They were digging around a large gas pipe, and when down some 10 feet struck a leak that emitted sufficient gas to overcome them. They were stupefied that it took the combined efforts of Patrolman Kay and several men to drag them out of the deadly fumes. The names of the men could not be ascertained. They were taken into a nearby grocery store, where they soon recovered.

"If they had been working in a remote portion of the city, where there are no people, they surely would have lost their lives," said Patrolman Kay.

TO COURTMARTIAL MAJ. CHAS. BOOTH

(Journal Special Service.)

WASHINGTON, May 9.—Secretary Root has instructed General Funston, commanding Department of the Columbia, to court-martial Major Charles Booth now at Vancouver, Wash., and Captain Knudson, now at St. Michael, Alaska. The charges made allege that the officers are involved in irregularities in the sale of subsistence stores while on duty in Alaska. Supplies, such as potatoes, which have unusual value in Alaska, were disposed of at a large profit. Other provisions were purchased to replace the potatoes. The transactions cover a considerable period.

STOLE BELMONT'S GOLD AND SILVER

(Journal Special Service.)

NEW YORK, May 9.—George Reynolds, aged 22 years, who came from England one week ago, is held for trial at the Jefferson Market court this morning for stealing $15,000 worth of silverware and jewelry from the August Belmont homestead villa, where he was employed. He was arrested while trying to pawn the wares.

Reynolds admitted his guilt. He said he wanted to return to London. On Belmont's request the examination was set for next Tuesday, as he desires to be present and prosecute.

REGARDING REFEREE

The mooted question as to who will referee the 20-round contest between Gans and Tracey at the Exposition Building next Wednesday evening, has been taken out of the hands of the principals' managers, they failing to agree on a nominee. The Pastime Club's management, however, this afternoon assumed its prerogative by issuing the announcement for publication that it will name the referee on the afternoon of the evening of the contest.

The gentlemen the club have in view for this responsible position are well-known to all local sport-followers, any one of whom are well-fitted to assume the onerous and unthankful office.
