BROWNS DUPLY HARRIS' TEAM

Jimmy Whalen Batted All Over Lot.

Raidy, Nadeau and Others Play in Finest Fashion for the Home Bunch.

The Portland Browns had their batting clothes on yesterday and pounded Jimmy Whalen's curves for a dozen runs in four innings. The best that San Francisco could do with Ike Butler was three runs, all of which were made in the first inning.

The Browns showed up in fine style and batting splendid in championship form. Raidy made the two sensational plays of the game, one a running catch and the other being a superb one-handed stop of a hot one and a quick receiver, catching the runner and Nadeau, Van Buren, Huribart, Anderson and Zinsnar all played fine ball.

Shay hit safely in the first. Lynch hunted one down to first, which Butler shaffer and Anderson went after, and as a result Mr. Lynch was safe on the initial sack. Meany also bunted and the ball became tangled in the toes of Butler's heels and the bags were populated.

San Francisco went out in one, two, three order in the second. Raidy died at "Milwaukee." Van Buren beat another bunt, while Irwin helped him to score by making a bad throw of it. Nadeau hit a liner which was gathered in by Shay. Andrews smashed one past second, which went through Lynch's legs. Van scoring, while Jay tried for third but was caught by a relay, Lynch to King to Irwin.

Frisco repeated her performance of the previous inning, but three new men facing Ike Butler. Lynch threw badly, but was doubled at second, when Irwin flew to Van Buren. Anderson started the third by a fly to Delmas, Zinsnar hit safely, Shaffer followed with another two-bagger, Huribart hit safely and Zin and Shay scored. Butler hit to Whalen and Jimmy got Huribart at second. Raidy was safe on Irwin's error. Van Buren hit for two bases, scoring Butler. Both Raidy and Van died, as Nadeau was mortgaged at first.

Pabat died at Shaffer's. Butler walked, Delmas hit to Raidy, who threw badly. Anderson and King went to third, but Kelly fanned and Whalen flew to Raidy. But there were more pyrotechnics in the Brown's half of the fourth. Andrews was safe on Krug's error, stole second and scored on Anderson's hit. Anderson taking second on Krug's throw, scoring a moment later on Zinsnar's long fly and Irwin's third error. Shaffer walked, stole second, took third on Shay's error of the throw to catch him, scoring run number 12 on the throw of Huribart's long fly to Meany. Butler retired the side by a fly to Lynch. Van Buren was the only Brown to reach first base after the fourth inning, as Jimmy Whalen pitched slit-edged ball after that.

The Browns put up a brilliant fielding game after the first inning, their only error after the initial session being charged to Raidy. It was a bad throw of a hard chance, but Raidy played a star game, starting two fast double plays and playing a fast fielding game generally.

Anderson's work around second was of the apple pie order and Andy was there with the willow when a hit was needed. Jay Andrews is about the surest hitter on the team. Whenever there are men on bases the Doc is a bad man with the willow.

The Journal Artist's Conception of the Week's Resume in Sporting

The boxing fraternity and baseball fans have had an interesting week in their various professions. Gans and Tracy are anxious for their coming go. The baseball situation has been enlivened by the presence of four ball nine.

WITH THE BOXERS AT QUAKER CITY

Well Known Promoter Writes The Journal.

Polish Pugilist Known as Jack O'Neil Is Fast Coming to the Front Rank.

W. L. McCorney, the Philadelphia sport promoter, writes The Journal as follows:

"The week just closed was an uneventful one in boxing circles. Five Philadelphia met representatives from New York, and the former came out the small end of the horn. Four New Yorkers came out ahead—the only Philadelphia scoring being George Decker, who defeated Tony Moran, the latter losing decision by frequent fouling.

George Cole, the colored local 145-pound champion, met Al Weing of Buffalo, who scaled 158 pounds, and for the second time the colored man proved his superiority. The conditions of the last meeting were that if Cole failed to stay the six-round limit he was not to receive a penny. Weing agreeing to concede him $400 if Cole lasted the limit. Now Weing wants to meet Cole again, and has posted $500 on the result. Cole received $380 in his last six-round go with Weing, and a third meeting between the twain is sure to tax the capacity of the largest hall here.

Jack O'Neil. "Billy Maynard, who stayed the prescribed limit with 'Young' Corbett some time since before a local club, ran up against a hard customer when he met Jack O'Neil in a six-round go. The latter, who is the son of a Polish stevedore, has assumed the Celtic patronage to increase his popularity. This Pole with the Celtic adixture sports bright green trunks, hits with the power of a trip-hammer, and insists on the band playing "The Wearing of the Green" when he makes his bow. When he defeated Maynard he surprised the town.

Maynard sprang into prominence by the great battles he gave to "Young" Corbett and Terry McGovern, and was looked on as an easy winner over O'Neil, but the latter, up to date, has been underrated as to weight and ability. He is a lightweight, boxing in the feather-weight class, and his ability is away above the average.

Joe Tipman. "Recently before the Ariel Athletic Club, Joe Tipman of Baltimore met Sammy Meyers of New York, the former receiving the award, being permitted to foul frequently by the referee. Tipman did just as he pleased and got away with one caution—and a mild one at that. Meyers gave the greatest exhibition of gameness ever given in this city. He took an awful wallop and much abuse, but was there at the end of the sixth, badly beaten but still willing to continue.

Jack O'Brien. "The Jack O'Brien-Marvin Hart contest is sure to draw at least a $4,000 house. The lying notices sent out by Joe Walcott's Boston press agent as to his having bested O'Brien was not borne out by the facts in the meeting. There is no truth in the story that at the end of the sixth, badly beaten but still willing to continue.

Whitman won. "Slick" Jack O'Brien, Jack McDonald, Bob Delaney, Theodore Murphy of the Scotch House, Eddie Holland, Lew Bailey and many others wish to be remembered and send their best regards to Nick Long and Friend Horan of The Journal."

Boxing Notes.

Jack McCormick of Philadelphia, who alternates as wrestler and pugilist, has accepted the terms of the Broadway Athletic Club of Butte, Mont., and announces his readiness to meet George Gardner for the purse which the Western club has offered. After the fight, if successful, McCormick says he will go to Dawson City and meet some good man there this summer.

Rube Ferns, who defeated Matty Matthews at Fort Erie, is now in line for the welterweight championship. Ferns was at the head of this class until Joe Walcott took his measure. He says he would like to fight Walcott again.

Billy Armstrong of San Francisco is at New York in search of a match with any lightweight.

Many Western boxers are reported en route East, a few of whom intend visiting England.

Errors in Sporting.

The Journal from day to day endeavors to furnish the public with the current sporting news of the world and in order to maintain that record it is necessary today to call attention to the great error in the percentage column of the Pacific Coast League as printed in a morning contemporary. Every line in that statement was grievously incorrect and the Journal takes pleasure in setting it right for the benefit of the baseball patrons of Portland. Another mistake was printed in an evening paper to the effect that George Gardner and Billy Woods were matched to box in Los Angeles in the near future. Billy Woods, colored, has been matched to fight Dave Barry in the Angel City on the 15th day of May. George Gardner will box Marvin Hart at Louisville in the championship contest being the all-absorbing theme in local sporting circles.

The Club to Select a Referee.

Gans-Tracy Contest Will Be the Greatest Ever-Pulled Off in the Northwest.

Tom Tracy will meet Joe Gans in a 20-round contest before the Pastime Athletic Club of this city on next Wednesday evening, as stated in a previous issue of The Journal. Tracy has received communications from many Eastern and Western clubs as to boxing men at the welterweight limit, but in his modest, unassuming way, is quoted as saying: "Wait until I get through with the task I have before me next Wednesday evening at the Exposition Building, then I intend to have a word or two for publication in The Journal. I guess my sparring partner, Fred Muller will accept the offer made me to meet LaFontaine before a Butte club. I feel content of landing the laurel wreath next Wednesday night and after that may consider the offer to visit my native city, Melbourne, and annex the Australian welterweight championship title. I am feeling fine, and have no fears as to the outcome."

In the Gans camp the dusky holder of the world's lightweight championship honors, assisted by "Young Peter Jackson" and Al Herford, is rapidly getting into line form. Gans, who is a well-behaved, gentlemanly youngster, with a phenomenal array of victories to his credit, feels confident of annexing the disputed title of welterweight champion on the 13th inst.

The Pastime Club has perfected all arrangements for handling the immense crowd sure to be on hand next Wednesday evening at the Exposition Building, the championship contest being the all-absorbing theme in local sporting circles.

HERRERA BESTS KID FREDERICKS

Finish Came in the Third Round.

A Right Hand Hook on the Jaw Gave New Yorker His Quietus.

(Journal Special Service.) BUTTE, Mont., May 9.—Aurelio Herrera of Bakerfield, Cal., and "Kid" Fredericks of New York, met before a crowded house last night in a 20-round contest. The New Yorker started the pace in the opening round, and in the second had a shade the best of the milling. In the third round Herrera caught Fredericks with a short left arm and right to the jaw, the latter going down for the count. Arising, he was again upset with a right. Coming up again very groggy, Fredericks received right hook on jaw and a large, and a large attendance is expected to be on hand.

Academy and High School. The Portland Academy and the High School baseball nines will play their initial match game of the season on the Multnomah Club grounds this afternoon at 3:30. The game will be the first of a series of three games which will be played during the spring and a large attendance is expected to be on hand.

WHITMAN WON.

Good Records at Annual Inter-scholastic Track Meet.

(Journal Special Service.) WALLA WALLA, Wash., May 9.—Owing to their failure in attempting to enter Fred Brunton, a former student of the Walla Walla High School, the members of the track team representing that institution refused to enter any of the events of the third annual track meet of the Inter-scholastic Athletic Association held yesterday afternoon. The faculty of the high school refused to certify to Brunton as a student in good standing or let him enter any of the events. The members of the team thereupon refused to have anything to do with the meet and classed themselves as spectators. The captain of the Baker City High School team also objected to Brunton.

Whitman Academy won the meet by a score of 68 1-3 per cent. The Baker City High School ranked next with 34 2-3 per cent. Pendleton High School secured 13 per cent and Huntsville Seminary 12 per cent. Watsburg Academy scored a goose egg.

Last year the Walla Walla High School won everything in sight at the second annual meet of the association and scored a brilliant victory in the relay race, receiving a silver cup as a prize.

Kelly, the red-headed sprinter from Baker City, was by far the best man in the contest and won more points than any athlete present. He won the hundred-yard dash in 16 3-5 seconds. The mile race was won by Howard Merritt, Whitman Academy, in 4:52 minutes. The time in the relay race was 3:45 minutes. The meet took place on Ankeny Field, the new athletic field of Whitman College.
