Items of Local Interest for Busy Journal Readers.

WEATHER FORECAST.

The disturbance over Wyoming yesterday has extended to the Dakotas and showers and thunderstorms have occurred generally in Kansas, Missouri, Illinois, Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, the Dakotas, Montana and Wyoming. Good rains have also fallen in Utah, Northern Nevada and Southeastern Idaho, and light local rains in the Willamette Valley, along the Washington coast and in extreme Southern California.

It is slightly warmer this morning in the North Pacific States, notwithstanding which light frosts occurred last night in Southern and Eastern Oregon and Idaho.

The indications are for fair and warmer weather in this district Saturday, with light frost tonight in Eastern Oregon, Eastern Washington and Idaho.

The civil action of T. J. Brown vs. the Oregon-King Mining Company, which has been pending in the Federal court for the past two months, has been settled out of court. Brown, a former owner of the mine, endeavored to regain possession of the property.

Chief of Police Burns, of Oregon City, yesterday afternoon arrested A. Ames, a man who is alleged to have forged the name of J. L. Cline, a wholesale grocery dealer who he formerly worked, to several checks. When arrested, Ames was in the employ of J. Sugarman, of Oregon City.

John King, George Bay and J. C. Burton, alleged pickpockets, were arrested yesterday afternoon. They were charged with carrying on their persons blocks as the Presidential parade passed, from the Union Depot, and their actions seemed suspicious. They objected most strenuously to being placed under arrest.

A Persian rag would be an appropriate purchase tomorrow. Atyeh & Khoury, 411 Washington street, have in stock a great assortment of Persian and Turkish goods, of rare origin and make, which are not obtainable anywhere else in the United States. Persons familiar with this class of merchandise will be welcome to the establishment, and they may make an inspection of these great rarities. They are not often seen in America.

You can go to Forch's bakery and delicatessen, West Park and Morrison, tomorrow and order your Sunday dinner sent to your house all ready to eat. Is there more convenient than having the cooking done in your own home? And it is just as economical. Although the cooking is done by a celebrated French chef, employed at large expense, economy of fuel reduces the cost of prepared food to almost that of the uncooked material.

It is likely that not half of the Journal readers know how cheaply they can live. The best Eastern sugar-cured ham can now be had at 15 cents per pound; picnic ham, 12c; cottage ham, 13c; 5-lb. pork lard, 45c; 5 lbs. lard, condensed, 50c; best creamery butter, 40c; 50c; ranch eggs, 2 dozen, 35c; 2 lbs. cheese, 35c; Swiss cheese, 20c; 2 lbs. hamburger, 30c; best Java and Mocha coffee, 35c; Arbuckle and Lion coffees, 10c per lb. At these prices, noted by the La Grande Creamery, 254 Yamhill street, near Third, there is small ground for the claim that it costs more to live in Portland this year than it ever did before. Everybody posted knows that the La Grande sells as good goods as the market affords—so that these prices are not for trash.

The County Court has rendered a decision declaring the liquor license of Herman Schneider, of Montavilla, void. The license was granted Schneider November 5, 1902. Schneider's petition contained the required number of names, but the anti-saloon people of

M'KINLEY'S NIECE TO GO ON THE STAGE

Mabel McKinley

A President's niece is going on the vaudeville stage in search of glory as a singer. She is Mabel McKinley, daughter of Abner McKinley, the brother of the late President. She is the wife of Dr. Baer, nephew of President Baer of coal trust fame. One of the conditions of her marriage was that she should be allowed to follow her theatrical aspirations. She will receive a salary of $1,000 per week and will begin her work in June next.

Montavilla filed a counter petition and brought evidence before the court to show that Schneider's petition did not contain the names of enough qualified voters. The saloonman will carry the matter before the higher courts and will continue to keep open his place of business pending the decision.

A free concert and social will be given at the First Universalist Church, at East Couch and Eighth streets, this evening. All members and friends of the congregation are invited.

G. Y. Harry did not occupy a seat yesterday on the platform from which President Roosevelt spoke. He gave his ticket to another member of the Fair Commission, who had been overlooked.

A special meeting of the Laundry Workers' Union is called for tonight. The nature of the business to be transacted is not made public. Officers of the organization state that no plans are on foot for a settlement of the lockout.

The South Portland Improvement Association will hold an important meeting tomorrow evening at Hobkirk Hall, to discuss questions of vital interest to that section of the city. Every member is urged to be in attendance.

Next Sunday evening memorial services will be held in the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Eleventh and Clay streets. The Third Regiment, O. N. G., and Battery A, O. N. G., Spanish-American War Veterans and auxiliary corps will attend.

A Saturday Bargain—One slightly soiled sewing machine, good as new, at less than the original cost of the frame; one Wolfe-American bicycle, same condition, at same figure. On sale at 8 a. m., and first caller gets one or either of them. Sigel & Smith, 335 Morrison street, Marquam Building.

PERSONALS.

P. A. Mann, of Baker City, is at the Imperial.

W. M. Coffell, a fruit raiser of California, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Martin, at the Portland yesterday.

Dr. A. Chalmers Stoddard, a specialist of San Francisco, is sojourning a few days at the Perkins.

Morton Harrison, representing a Spokane newspaper, is at the St. Charles. He will leave tonight for Salem.

General Frederick Funston, who was registered at the Portland yesterday, left this morning for Vancouver.

Ex-County Commissioner Philo Holbrook, who has been quite low with pleurisy, is reported as out of danger and improving rapidly.

Lac Stafford, proprietor of the Metropolitan Theatre in Minneapolis, was at the Portland this morning. He is going to San Francisco to make some Western bookings.

BOISE MAYOR RIDES WITH ROOSEVELT

Telegram to Aggrieved Official Settles the Matter.

BOISE, Idaho, May 22.—Mayor Alexander will ride in the carriage with President Roosevelt when the latter visits the city.

Adjutant Vickers, who has charge of the arrangements, received a telegram from Secretary Loeb last night saying it was the President's wish that the Mayor occupy a seat in the carriage with him.

It is stated in a recent correspondence to The Journal, the Mayor was included in the carriage when the list was first sent to the President. The list was returned with the Mayor's name erased and that of Senator Heyburn substituted.

The greater indignation was expressed when it was learned that the Mayor's name had been erased by the President, which gossip, it is believed, reached his ears and caused him to notify the committee that he should ride in the carriage with him. This action has partially allayed the feeling, but the belief still exists that race hatred may have been the cause of it.

Several candidates for the office of the city's chief executive have appeared and a lively time is expected during the short campaign which is to follow.

The main reason for the incorporation of the city was for the purpose of riding the community of several large powder-storing houses which are said to be a menace to the neighborhood.

ON BOARD THE SPECIAT TRAIN

ture that lies before this state, for it is one which in its future development is going to show as great and as varied industrial growth as New York or Pennsylvania or the Atlantic Slope. That is a prophecy which I shall be delighted to have upon your agriculture and commerce, your mining and lumbering, and manufacturing interests, but I am especially glad to congratulate you and all the country on the type of citizenship which you have produced. That is what counts, I do not care what the material advances of any country are, nothing can be done with them until you have the right type of men and women to take advantage of them. The Pacific Coast had been known for many decades by people of more than one nationality, before our people came to it, however, and the call of the "Chief of the East." There has been a great demand for seats for the matinee performance and those desiring to attend should purchase tickets immediately. "Monte Cristo" has been one of the biggest successes of the Baker Theatre so far.

A Masterful Type.
Here on the Pacific Coast we shall see a peculiarly masterful and dominant type of man, one who can see in whose veins now flows and will flow in the future the blood of many different European race strains, blood drawn from the veins of most of the nations of Central and Western Europe, and now a new stock, run into a new mold, in the new surroundings of our own continent.

I have come across the continent from the East through the West to this farthest West, which is not the West at all in a sense, it is the Pacific Slope, and the things of all others that has struck me most is the fact that wherever I have addressed a body of my fellow citizens I have addressed men and women who were of essentially the same stamp. For a good American is a good American from one end of this continent to the other. Here I see people who must take a leading part in the great future of our race, for here I speak to those Americans who are establishing on the Pacific Coast a position for our people which shall in the century now opened make it dominant in the world.

I have met everywhere; men who wear the button which shows that they fought in the great Civil War, and those men who have led us to the great heritage of a re-united country, but something more—they have left us the example of the virtues by which they made and kept it great. It is because of what you men and those like you did that there is now one country from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the Rio Grande to Canada, and everywhere be at home.

TOOK SPECIAL PRESIDENT'S TRAIN

Countryman Rode With Roosevelt Some Distance but Was Then Put Off.

(Journal Special Service.)
WINLOCK, Wash., May 22.—Just as the President's train started from Kalama an elderly man, with a beard and a big satchel, leaped aboard the buffet car Atlantic.

"This is our train," he cried to a couple of men who followed him along the platform.

"No, it ain't," replied one of them, "ours don't look like this."

"Well, you'll get left, if you don't hurry," exclaimed the traveler.

"You are wrong, my friend," said one of the President's train crew, "better get off quick. This is the President's special."

"Oh, you go on," returned the man with the beard, "don't you suppose I know where I'm going?"

"You're not going on this train," said the railroad man.

By this time the train had traveled a mile out of Kalama and was rushing along at a lively clip. The stranger's friends had run along the side of the train as long as they could keep up, but had now become mere specks in the distance.

The knowing gentleman brushed past the objecting train man and finally the waiter of the buffet car, took a seat in the coach, perfectly well satisfied with himself. A hurried consultation with the train crew and Conductor Johnson was called. He promptly pulled the bell-cord and the train came to a standstill.

In such polite but firm language the stranger was then informed on his ground that the truth of the situation finally dawned upon him.

"Well, I guess it's one on me," he reluctantly admitted, "but I could have bet my head that I was all right; excuse me." And he started back up the ties toward Kalama.

Arrangements at Tacoma.
TACOMA, Wash., May 22.—President Roosevelt is scheduled to reach Tacoma at a late hour this afternoon and will be received by a police and military escort. After a drive through the North End the President is expected to deliver an address at Wright Park. Tomorrow morning the Presidential party will embark on a Sound steamer and be conveyed to the naval station at Bremerton and later to Seattle. The special train will be run empty from this city to Seattle.

TACOMA PREPARES CORDIAL WELCOME

(Special Journal Service.)
TACOMA, Wash., May 22.—Tacoma is decked in gala attire to receive the President when he arrives at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The streets, buildings and parks are richly decorated, and fair weather, with a fresh breeze, prevails. Trains and boats have been pouring thousands of visitors into the city all day, and the streets are thronged. The revenue cutter McCullough is in the harbor to fire a salute when the Presidential train arrives. General Funston, Governor McBride, Congressmen Jones and Cushman and Senators Ankeny and Foster are all in the city to welcome the President.

MILWAUKIE IS NOW A CHARTERED CITY

Telegram to Aggrieved Official Settles the Matter.

With the expiration of the time limit set by the Legislature, the City of Milwaukee became a reality yesterday and the call for the election of the first officers of the new city will be issued in a few days, and it is quite likely that it will be held the first Monday in June.

Yesterday concluded the second attempt made within the year to make a city out of Milwaukee, the first one being made by the County Court and was afterwards declared illegal.

Several candidates for the office of the city's chief executive have appeared and a lively time is expected during the short campaign which is to follow.

The main reason for the incorporation of the city was for the purpose of riding the community of several large powder-storing houses which are said to be a menace to the neighborhood.

Cordray's Theatre—Continuous vaudeville, Edward Shields.

Central Park—Outdoor vaudeville.

Last Two Performances of "Monte Cristo."
The last two performances of "Monte Cristo" will be given at the Baker Theatre tomorrow. There will be a matinee at 2:15 and a performance tomorrow night at 8:20. This will be the last opportunity of seeing "Mr. Ralph Stuart in his clever interpretation of Edmund Dantes, afterward the Count de Monte Cristo; also of witnessing the great storm scene and the call of the "Chief of the East." There has been a great demand for seats for the matinee performance and those desiring to attend should purchase tickets immediately. "Monte Cristo" has been one of the biggest successes of the Baker Theatre so far.

New Vaudeville Next Week.
The program prepared by Mr. Shields for his continuous vaudeville entertainments at Cordray's Theatre next week is an excellent one from top to bottom. There will be an ensemble of artists who are reputed to be the best in the business. Continuous vaudeville as given at Cordray's is not of the store-room variety. There are no half-hour entertainments, but a disarray of the same show, and then a repetition of the same show. Shields has essayed a different line of continuous vaudeville, for he means by continuous only so much as pertains to an entertainment every afternoon and evening.

Edwards and Chenoweth, together with moving pictures of events connected with President Roosevelt's visit to Portland yesterday. There will be matinees every day next week.

Big Crowd's at Shields'

Refined continuous vaudeville given by Edward Shields at Cordray's Theatre is a popular attraction. Last night one of the biggest audiences in the history of the house was the result of this popularity. The program this week is a winner and no better than the previous ones. The Bronsons and the Bernards, a constant outpouring of mirth greets these people every afternoon, and evening. Illustrated songs and the latest polypose pictures are features of the entertainment.

"Ferneliff."
Ralph Stuart and his excellent company will be seen at the Baker Theatre next week in an elaborate revival of this beautiful domestic drama by William Hawthill, written on a subject that will never lose interest for Americans—the romantic young soldier who enlists to reclaim the honor of his name, falsely reported to have been betrayed by his brother through desertion. Ralph Stuart presents the ideal picture and brings tears with acts of his devotion to wife and his old father and applause with his heroism as a soldier fighting for his flag.

Frank Camp as Jim Hewin, Tom's brother, the disloyal fellow, who, in a community thought all sense of pride dead, receives enthusiastic admiration by his brotherly devotion and self-sacrifice at the critical moment, and his rehabilitation through his own courage and patriotism elicit hearty approval from the audience.

Hen MacGregor as Annie Hewin, Tom's girl wife, has a pathetic and winsome part and it is superfluous to say that she more than realizes the beauty and fitness exacted for a faithful rendition of it. Mr. Stewart is to be commended upon his judgment in selecting plays and players, as each production strengthens the firm hold he already has upon the affections of Portland's play-goers.

CLEAN UP SUBURB.

The regular meeting of the Montavilla Board of Trade was held this evening in the Aylsworth Hall on the Base Line road. Reports will be made by the various appointed committees and a large attendance of members is expected. The principal business of the evening will be the report of the committee on cleaning up.

A movement was started some time ago for the purpose of enlisting the aid of the school children in cleaning up the surplus rubbish which abounded in the vacant lots in the suburb. The children have gone to work with a will and the committee will report satisfactory progress at tonight's session.
