Mrs. and Mrs. William Hancock Clark, and Mrs. Edythe Tozier Wheeler are today the guests of the Hillsboro Women's Lewis and Clark Club. The guests will be tendered a banquet there this afternoon.

The Sellwood Veterans Male Quartet has volunteered its services to take part in an entertainment to be given at Firemen's Hall, Sellwood, tomorrow night for the purpose of raising funds for a destitute family.

Many improvements have been made at the City Park and everything has been brought thoroughly up-to-date. Thousands who visited the park yesterday expressed themselves as having never seen its superior.

Strawberry picking at Hood River commences this week. Two thousand pickers will be needed to gather the crop. Nice light work and good pay. Steamers leave foot of Alder street daily at 7 a. m.

The Central Alhambra Board of Trade is preparing a program for the proper celebration of the opening of its new hall, on the corner of Mississippi avenue, Wednesday night. A large committee, composed of the most prominent residents of the East Side, has been appointed with power to formulate plans for the celebration.

The Socialists held their regular meeting yesterday afternoon at Eagle Hall. Among the speakers were T. F.

Latimer, editor of the Portland Liberator, and Franklin L. Hamilton of San Francisco, both of whom took occasion to criticize the American Federation of Labor. G. K. Rogers made a short talk on the economic problems of the day.

Mrs. O. M. Smith and daughters of 695 Davis street had an exciting time yesterday while out driving. The horse took fright and ran away on Sixth street, near Washington. At Burdette street the carriage was stopped by contact with a telephone pole, but the horse kept running. Mrs. Smith suffered slight injuries, but her daughters were unhurt.

Carrying a hand extinguisher up a 56-foot ladder and jumping into the life net was a portion of the Civil Service examination which 70 firemen creditably passed at Multnomah county yesterday. Fire Chief Campbell officiated. Nine police applicants also ran 50 yards, each making the distance within the 14-second limit. A 70-foot ladder test was also in evidence for the firemen.

A stranger succeeded in passing a bogus check in the store of F. R. Hooten Co., at the corner of Washington and Front streets, recently. The man entered the place and gave the name of S. A. Harris. He purchased some groceries and tendered a check for $44. The cashier, Field, was cautious and the change given. Upon presentation of the check to the bank, it was ascertained that it was a case of swindle. The police were notified.

Fourth of July posters promptly printed by the Metropolitan Printing Co., 147 Front street. This is the largest poster printing house of Portland. It is the big concern of the town.

Many private excursions and picnic parties went out from Portland yesterday and spent Sunday in the country districts. Groves along the road to Oregon City and Vancouver were well sprinkled with people.

The elections today have decisively proven that the Wolf-American bicycle is the favorite with the people. It is the best wheel on earth—don't care what anybody says—and we retail it at wholesale prices—because we buy direct from the factory for cash and save middlemen's profits. Sirel & Smith, 335-Morrison, Marquam Building.

About 1,500 people availed themselves of the opportunity of seeing the ocean yesterday by attending the barbers' excursion to Seaside. A more orderly and successful excursion was never given, and those at the head of the affair were freely congratulated. Not an untoward event happened to mar the success of the occasion.

Bridge or no bridge is the question at the polls today, but there is no controversy concerning the "excursion" to a quarter to Oregon City and Willamette Falls and return, every day on the Leona, leaving Taylor-street dock at 8:30, 11:30, 3 and 6:15 o'clock. The verdict is always unanimous in favor of this exhilarating river jaunt. And it is as good as a doctor for an invalid.

Of interest to gentlemen—Nothing is so conducive to a man's safety and comfort as a well-fitting suspensory bandage. Albert Berni, the druggist, Second and Washington, makes a specialty of a large and well-selected stock of the most popular brands, and gentlemen will find it to their advantage to see him when they want a satisfactory and easy-wearing bandage at moderate price.

People in the tops of Topeka trees ought to have abundance of water for washing purposes, as the river flows 14 feet deep below them, but after all, for the real thing in fine laundering, the public will ever lean toward the splendid Union Laundry, Second and Columbia. This is a new concern, equipped with the very latest machinery, and is the only one in Portland operating a steam-heated collar and cuff polisher—the instrument that does not scorch or rot the fiber of the linen.

The following marriage certificates have been returned to the office of the County Clerk: Patrick W. Foley and Mary C. Kingsley, Rev. W. T. Kerr, pastor of the Central Methodist Episcopal Church, officiating; Morris Kuehner and Bertha Cook, William Reed, justice of the peace, officiating; Arthur M. Johnson and Jennie Thompson, Rev. J.
