Warm Weather Causes Oregon Strawberries to Ripen and Lower Prices Are Expected Next Week.

SUMMER MARKETS OPEN

The season for summer goods has formally opened in the Port-land wholesale district and alugh business is dull in some lines it is much livelier in others.

FRONT STREET, June 8.—The local wholesalers have formally announced the opening of the summer season. There a fair and steady demand for all kinds of canned meats, vegetables and other summer delicacies. The large shipments of lemons lately per steamer have shown that the local commission nen were not to be caught napping with the early approach of the warm weather. Supplies of all kinds of fruits, with the exception of strawberries are sufficient to meet all the requirements of the Berry Receipts to Increase.

The extreme warm weather of the past few days is causing the berries throughout the state to ripen rapidly and although the markets at present are rather bare of stock, still within the next few days the receipts will show such a large increase that prices are very likely to show a slump. Quotations are unchanged today.

HOG PRICES GOING CONSTANTLY LOWER

Too Heavy Receipts Causes Another Heavy Slump in Local Ouotations.

> Receipts of livestock in the local yards have been so heavy lately that quotations on all lines are constantly declining on account of the poor demand low prevailing.

Hog receipts are extra heavy and prices are again declined today on account of the poor demand. Cattle are coming in large lots, a majority of the stock arriving being from sections of the state where the rivers have en creached upon the land and has left the stock without any food supply. For the most part the receipts have been in very Logan & Bryan's daily letter to Bolton, poor condition, and as the hot weather has somewhat slackened the demand quotations are again lowered.

Too Many Sheep. There is too large a supply of sheep in receipt for this period of the year and prices are slumping. Lambs are weaker on account of the large supply and poorer demand.

PULP MILL BEGINS GRINDING.

(Journal Special Service,) BRAINERD, Minn., June 8.—The new ulp mill of the Northwest Paper Com pany here has been completed and grinding was commenced yesterday. This mill has a capacity of 15 tons a day and cost $100,000. This is considered an especially good point for a pulp mill, in view of the fact that so much of the wood is easy of access, and after the pulp is ground the shipping facilities
