

PORTLAND, OREGON, SATURDAY EVENING, JUNE 20, 1903.

FAR-SIGHTED, TOO

"I don't think she's a particularly economical wife."
"You don't? If a woman who saves her wedding dress for a possible second marriage isn't economical, I'd like to know who is!"

THE OLD, OLD WAY

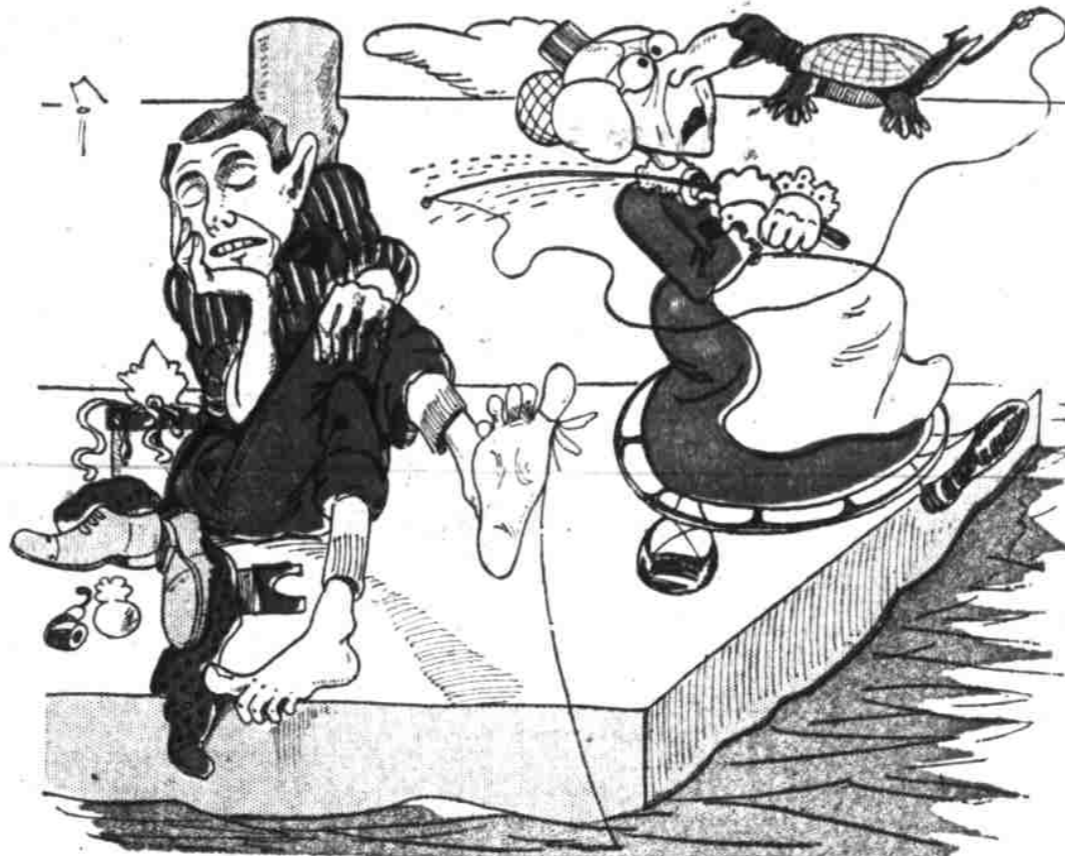

Mabel—"Let me tie your necktie for you, daddy."
Daddy (wise from experience)—"All right, my dear; but what is it this time—a new hat or an automobile?"

OBADIAH MAKES A CATCH, BUT NEVER BRAGS ABOUT IT

Obadiah takes Aunt Amelia fishing, having quarreled with Sallie.

Auntie makes the first catch, and gets a fearful shock.

Lazy Obadiah combining two pleasures is a great temptation.

And Auntie, succumbing, meets with great success.

She eventually comes to the rescue and lands both Obadiah and the fish.

Notwithstanding the catch, Obadiah seems dismal. Wonder why?
