

TWO MEN HELD UP LATE CAR

Sum of $40 Was Secured from the Passengers on a Vancouver Trolley as Result of Robbery Last Night.

Bullet Quickly Sent Toward Conductor Who Made a Show of Resistance—One Passenger Was Not Searched.

No Arrests Have as Yet Been Made—The Third Motor Line Holdup Within Five Weeks Is Successful.

Two masked men held up an in-bound Vancouver streetcar shortly after midnight, robbed Conductor Tanney and Motorman Marshall and four passengers of a total of $40 and some valuable jewelry and then vanished in the inky darkness, leaving no clue behind.

The hold-up occurred at Cloverdale switch on the Portland Railway Company's line. It was the second of the company's cars to be so robbed, and was the third occurring in the city within the brief space of five weeks. Conductor Tanney was in charge when the other car of this company was held up.

Although complete descriptions—as complete as white masks will permit—were given Chief Hunt and Captain of Detectives Simmons at 8:30 o'clock this morning, no arrests have as yet been made.

There were five passengers in the car when the masked men, cloaking long-barreled six-shooters in their hands, boarded the car at a crossing just beyond Cloverdale. Only the names of two have been learned, those being Charles W. York, cashier of the Marquam Grand, and L. C. Connel, night operator of the Postal Telegraph Company.

York's Remarkable Story.

Charles York is the first man having sufficient presence of mind to successfully battle the highwaymen who have been operating without interference from the police for seven weeks. His story is most remarkable, and is related by him as follows:

"It was after midnight, and the car was speeding rapidly toward the city. There were five passengers, all rather drowsy, and quite anxious to reach home. I knew most of them, but only the name of Mr. Connel, the telegraph operator.

"As we slowed down at a crossing on the other side of Cloverdale I looked out the window, and saw two masked men. I knew their errand, and having nearly $50 in cash and jewelry upon my person, I determined to save myself from robbery. I was perfectly calm and collected, and quick as a flash I ran to the front of the car, dashed out the door and made a jump with all my might and main into the brush beside the track. Fortunately for me, the robbers did not notice me when I left, as they had an altercation with Conductor Tanney.

"I lay flat on the ground, sheltered by a clump of friendly trees and foliage, where I could hear every word uttered by the men and could distinguish their forms as they went about the task of looting their helpless victims.

"Furnishes Their Descriptions.

"The highwaymen were both short fellows," continued York, "and both wore white masks over their faces, and slouch hats that hung down almost to the shoulders. The white masks puzzled the conductor when they got on his car, and he attempted to shove them off. With a vile oath, the largest man whipped out his weapon and fired a shot, but missed Tanney. The latter told the robber that he thought when he saw the white masks that it was only a joke.

"The bullet was later found in the side of the car. It was a .22 calibre.

"I'll teach you it ain't no joke," retorted the desperado.

"The men were about five feet six inches in height, quite broad shouldered, and I am positive that I could identify them if I ever again saw them together.

"The smaller man seemed nervous, and I could perceive that he trembled violently all the time. All of the passengers and the trainmen were robbed, and just how much each contributed I do not know, but the total amounted to $40. Connel lost a valuable gold watch, and I was exceedingly fortunate, as I had $10 in cash, a very costly Elk charm, gold watch and chain and a diamond ring. "As I lay in the grass and watched the other passengers being robbed, I wished that I had a weapon with which to shoot the villains behind the white masks. If I had had one, I would have used it.

"It requires about 15 minutes for the highwaymen to finish their work, and after that they alighted and walked leisurely away, going in a southeasterly direction. I ran to Piedmont station, and caught the car there for this city."

As soon as the motorman and conductor reached the car-horn, they reported the hold-up to the police. Chief Hunt and Detective Simmons were soon on the scene with a large force of men, but though they remained out until daylight, their search was fruitless.

Today the entire detective staff and numerous special officers are working on the case.

MASKED MEN HOLDUP ROB FRANK BRIGGS

Two masked and armed men held up Frank Briggs, a well-known employee of the Portland Postoffice, last night at 11:40 o'clock at the corner of East Tenth and Couch streets. They robbed him of $1.80—all the cash he had.

Briggs reported his loss to the police, who took the usual action. He described the assailants as small men, wearing rough clothing and having the appearance of typical tramps. One had on a boys-size hat and both wore overalls.

FROM FOREIGN SHORES

Frank A. Spencer of the Allen & Lewis Company, a member of the State Lewis and Clark Fair Commission, returned yesterday from a four-months' visit in lands across the seas. He also spent a week in New York and a few days in San Francisco. He states that owing to the late spring in Europe, American farmers should receive good prices for their products. He also said that, as yet, the Lewis and Clark Fair does not seem to be very well advertised across the waters. Mr. Spencer was accompanied on the trip by his family. Among the many cities they visited were Naples, Rome, Florence, Geneva, Monte Carlo, Venice, Vienna, Dresden, Berlin, Paris, Brussels, The Hague, London, Glasgow, Liverpool and Edinburgh.

SERVIA HAS CLOUDBURST

Two Persons Are Killed and $2,000,000 Worth of Property Is Destroyed.

BEIGRADE, June 22.—A cloudburst at Konyajevatz this afternoon resulted in two persons killed and $4 buildings demolished at a loss of $2,000,000.

A FAITHFUL WIFE

Charged with having sold intoxicating liquor to one of her own race, P. Howard, an Indian in the county jail. There he must remain until the grand jury convenes unless he sees fit to plead guilty before that time. His wife, who followed her husband from Hood River, where the arrest was made, is in Portland, dependent upon charity. She firmly believes in the innocence of her husband.

ASKS $50,000 DAMAGES

Lyla Vaughn of Warmer, Idaho, this afternoon filed suit in the United States District Court against the Banker Hill & Sullivan Mining and Contracting Company to collect damages in the sum of $50,000. Mrs. Vaughn alleges that her husband, Orlando P. Vaughn, was killed by a cave-in while at work in one of the company's mines. The accident occurred June 23, 1901.

"LOTTA," THE DANCER

Lotta, the dancer, will attract much attention at the W. O. W. carnival. She executes a number of dances—picture dance, rainbow dance, water dance and fire dance—in the last of which she appears to be dancing in a lake of fire. Lotta is a most graceful lady, with pretty face and form. Her dances and electrical effects are of the highest grade and it is a wonder that they are so well presented in a tent. Lotta's picture dance, in which an electrical machine is used for throwing the reflection of pictures on her as she dances, is a beautiful sight. Her rainbow dance is most gorgeous and unique.

The Queen voting contest promises to bring to Portland one of the largest crowds ever seen in the city. Oregon City Woodmen have entered into the Queen contest with enthusiasm and have promised the W. O. W. of Portland to send an escort with their Queen of not less than 250 Vancouver is also one of the many neighboring towns that promise a lovely Queen and immense crowds. Mr. George I. Hutchins left last Friday for Seattle and Tacoma to arrange with the Woodmen of the respective cities to elect a Queen and also to arrange for an excursion on Queen's day. The Woodmen are arranging for special excursions on each road entering Portland on Queen's day.

The day that will be set aside as Woodmen day will also draw an immense crowd as drill teams of the Woodmen from all parts of the state and adjoining states will contest for the handsome prize to be awarded by the W. O. W.

IMMORALITY THE CAUSE OF A FALL

President Roosevelt Removes from Office Daniel McMillan a Justice of Supreme Court of New Mexico.

Prominent Men Plead for His Retention, but Later Developments Hurry His Dismissal and Disgrace.

(Journal Special Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—Daniel McMillan, the Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of New Mexico, has been removed by President Roosevelt, on account of charges of general immorality that have been pending several months. Clement Smith of Hastings, Mich., has been decided on to fill the vacancy. Some time ago Milburn, the president of the Buffalo Exposition, and Secretary Root pleaded for McMillan, and succeeded in having him retained for further investigation. Recently further evidence was accumulated sustaining the charges and the President decided to remove McMillan forthwith.

TO DISPLAY ORES

The Mining Committee of Lewis and Clark Fair Solicits Showing by California.

The Mines and Mining Committee of the State Lewis and Clark Commission and the Board of Exposition Directors are planning for a very fine mineral exhibit at the coming 1905 Fair. It is thought that the exhibits from the ores of the Pacific Coast States will be the finest ever shown at any national exposition.

With this end in view, the secretaries of the two boards have opened up a correspondence with "the powers that be" in the various states in regard to the displays of minerals at the Lewis and Clark Fair. This morning Secretary Henry E. Reed of the Board of Directors, received the following letter from Governor G. C. Pardee of California in answer to one written him regarding the displays to be made by that commonwealth here:

"I have yours of the 10th, which I found awaiting me on my return to the Capital.

"California has appropriated $20,000 to be used toward an exhibit at the Lewis and Clark Fair in 1905. No further steps have yet been taken, for the fact that the state is very busy at present preparing for the St. Louis Exposition. The matter will of course be taken up later and, I hope, carried to a conclusion."

FOUGHT OVER THE WATER

E. W. Liberty on Trial for Slashing B. Redden—Greenwald Escapes the Penitentiary.

Charged with assaulting B. L. Redden with a dangerous weapon, E. W. Liberty is on trial today in Circuit Judge Sears' court. Liberty is alleged to have slashed Redden with a knife.

The Liberty and the Reddens occupied rooms in the same house. Water for both was obtained in Redden's kitchen. A dispute arose and it is claimed that Liberty seized a knife from Redden's hand and cut the latter in the face. The defense is attempting to prove that Redden was the aggressor and that he was injured by falling across a table laden with dishes.

Saved from Penitentiary.

Only the desire of the prosecuting witness not to have a charge of grand larceny brought against Robert Greenwald saved him from a possible term in the state penitentiary and got for him instead a jail sentence of six months. Greenwald was arrested for stealing a case of cartridges from the store of Meier & Frank. He is a young man, and after investigation Deputy District Attorney A. C. Spencer stated that he reluctantly consented to allow Greenwald to plead to simple larceny.

William Hamilton pleaded guilty this morning to a charge of larceny from a dwelling and was sentenced to one year in the state penitentiary. Hamilton took clothing belonging to O. Smith and C. H. Oren.

CLUBWOMEN'S MEETING

The Oregon State Federation to Be Held at Astoria Promised to Be Well Attended.

The Oregon State Federation of Women's Clubs will meet in Astoria, June 23, 24 and 25, and as tomorrow is the first day, many delegates from all over the state are passing through Portland today, en route to the city by the sea. Mrs. C. B. Wade of Pendleton, president of the State Federation, spent Sunday in Portland.

Among the business transacted will be the election of officers, the election of delegates to the general biennial gathering, the reading of reports of officers and state committees. The constitution will also be revised.

"Women in Legislation," "Defective Children" and "Delinquent and Independent Children" were the subjects chosen last year by the Federation for this year's discussion, and it is expected many thoughtful and intelligent remarks will be made on these questions.

The club women of Astoria have been busy getting everything in good shape for the convention and it is expected the meeting will be most successful.

LAND WITHDRAWN FROM LOCATION

The Government Takes the First Positive Step in the Matter of Establishing Public Irrigating Systems.

Waters of Silvies and Malheur Rivers Are to Be Used—Prior Locators Will Be Recommended for Loss.

(Journal Special Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 22.—The first positive step on the part of the Government establishing reservoirs for irrigating purposes in the State of Oregon was taken Saturday, when 1,800,000 acres of land in Harney and Malheur Counties were withdrawn from entry. Additional townships are likely to be set aside for the same purpose.

The Land Withdrawals.

Townships 22 to 26, ranges 21, 22 and 23; townships 22, range 22½; townships 23, 24 and 25, ranges 22½, 23 and 24; township 26, ranges 23 and 24, all south and east and lying southeast of Burns and northeast of Lake Malheur, embracing 622,000 acres, is included in the order.

The Malheur withdrawal takes in township 16, range 46; township 17, ranges 44, 45 and 46; townships 19 and 20, ranges 44, 45 and 46; township 19, range 48; fractional townships 16, 17, 18, 19 and 20, range 47, lying west of the Snake River; township 16, range 48, all south and east.

All of this land is set aside for irrigation and the establishing of reservoir sites, upon the recommendation of the engineers of the Government Geographical Survey Corps, who have been in the field since last spring, and have carefully gone over the ground.

The general scheme covers that portion of the Harney Valley through which Silver River passes, and is immediately tributary, and also that along the Malheur River. A both streams, according to the report, carry ample water to supply every acre of land that could be reached, and the topography of the country is peculiarly susceptible to such improvement, the recommendation was made.

In the general survey that was made it was found that in some instances settlement had already been made, and should the final locations of the reservoirs affect such settlers, they will be given other locations and compensation accordingly.

Other Withdrawals.

In addition to the two new withdrawals, the Secretary has withdrawn from all entry nearly 19,000 acres lying in township 3, ranges 25 and 26, and township 2, range 25 north. These lands were recently withdrawn from all entry save homestead, along with other lands in the proposed Umatilla project, in Morrow County, but later investigation has shown that the specified tracts are needed for reservoir sites, and all further entry has been accordingly cut off.

This fact does not necessarily imply that the Government will begin work at once. There will be further reports from the field during the summer, as the engineers are still in the field gathering data, which may result in many changes as to the exact location of the reservoirs.

In the meantime an effort will be made to discourage squatters from settling on the lands. It is evident that they would be unable to secure title, and not having located prior to the withdrawal of the land from entry, they would receive no compensation for any improvements made.

Deputy Food Commissioner Tartar Condemns Two Brands Offered.

Deputy State Food and Dairy Commissioner Tartar returned this morning from Corvallis, where he inspected the various kinds of vinegar retail merchants of that city. Mr. Tartar states that he found two brands of the liquid that were being sold as good cider vinegar to contain matter foreign to the genuine article.

One of the two brands that are reported to be sold in violation of the state's pure food laws is said by Mr. Tartar to have been made of nothing but the cores and peelings of apples, which are said to produce a kind of vinegar not up to the standard. The other sample that was condemned by the Deputy Commissioner is said to have been manufactured from apples and molasses; the last named article is said to make the vinegar fall far short of the standard that has been fixed by state law.

All the vinegar from which the two samples were selected has been condemned and ordered to be taken off the market at once.

Mr. Tartar stated this morning that both of the condemned brands of vinegar were manufactured in this city, and that the owners of the factories would be called upon to explain why they had sold it to the retail dealers of the state. It is said that there are three carloads of molasses kind scattered among the wholesale and retail dealers of the city, but every drop of it will be ordered off the market—at least, that is the opinion expressed by Deputy Commissioner Tartar today noon.

ST. PAUL 4, ALL STARS 2

BAD ACCIDENT AVERTED

An electric light pole on the Burnside-street bridge was all that saved Woodlawn car No. 82, westbound, from jumping into the Willamette River yesterday afternoon, and to this fact the 32 passengers on board may credit their escape from watery graves.

The car jumped the track just as it reached the bridge, and the motorman could not control it. It skidded along rapidly, and the large crowd witnessing it stood with bated breath, expecting to see the car plunge over the edge and into the turbulent waters below. But it struck the light pole with a crash, bringing it to a stop.

Miss Laura Watson, daughter of ex-Police Captain Watson, and Miss Maud Taylor of No. 146 Mechanic street, were slightly injured. They are better today, however.

ASTORIA HAS VERY MYSTERIOUS CASE

(Journal Special Service.)

ASTORIA, Ore., June 22.—The 2-year-old son of John Erickson, a milkman living in West Astoria, has been missing since Saturday night. All efforts to find the lost child have proved futile. Whether the little one has fallen into the river or has been stolen is a matter of conjecture. A large number of persons engaged in the search. It is the impression that the boy was kidnapped, as his is a beautiful specimen of babyhood, and the people of the district are greatly excited.
