TALENTS' POOR DAY AT THE MEADOWS

The Wise Ones Were Unable to Pick a Solitary Winner and Consequently, the Bookies Were Ever So Happy.

Harry Green and Jack Brannan, Two Horsemen Who Had a Rough and Tumble Fight, Were Each Fined $100.

(Journal Special Service.) SEATTLE, June 24.—At The Meadows yesterday afternoon it was a case of the money put in the books on the race would not have provided funds for one jackpot in a single-handed game of poker. In the next race Louis Mc. walked away with all the money at the good price of 8 to 1 and no takers. This put the talent up in the air, and in the next race they plumped on Joe K. against whom the bookies chalked up as good as 15 to 1 as the opening odds. After forcing the price down to 2 to 1 the bettors transferred their affections and what remained of the cash to the favorite, Pirate Maid. But the winner turned up in Gold Funder at the very good price of 7 to 1. Joe K. also ran. He did Pirate Maid.

Then Kitty Kelly, at 5 to 1, ran rings around Horatio, the Derby winner. And will, one of the best and most consistent performers at the track, and the good horse Mocorito.

By this time the public was broke and the remaining two races didn't count. Harry Green and Jack Brannan, the horsemen who engaged in a rough and tumble fight in the betting ring Monday afternoon, were assessed $100 each by the stewards yesterday. Both declared that it was worth the money.

PORTLAND BROWNS LOSE ONCE MORE

Peter the Great's Crew from Oakland Land Upon Our Own Charlie and Pound Him for Half Dozen Runs.

At No Stage of the Walloping Was Oakland in Danger of Losing the Game, Graham Being Cool and Accurate.

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE. Yesterday's Scores. Oakland, 4; Portland, 1. Sacramento, 7; Seattle, 4. San Francisco, 11; Los Angeles, 5.

(Journal Special Service.) SAN FRANCISCO, June 24.—The Portland Browns made their second appearance on the local diamond yesterday and, as usual, finished second. Granny Pete's misfits pulled off every old-time play that was in Pete's cranium, and they worked them to a Queen's taste on the Webfooters.

Shields started off by being wild and when he settled down the "champs" hammered his curves in all directions. Several sensational plays were pulled off during the season. In the second inning Kruger, who cavorts in the left field, hit the longest hit of the day, pulling off one of the most sensational catches ever witnessed here.

Josh Reilly, who took another week's vacation from the mint, in order to help Sammy Vigneux out, soaked one of Oscar Graham's curves on the nose and the sweat looked good for a homer or something similar, but Oom Paul sped for the fence, and as he was about to collide with the barrier he struck one hand in the air and Dutch luck had robbed the Irish of the longest hit of the day. Anderson deprived Oakland of a couple of extra runs when he made a sensational stop of a wild throw from Hess, and Reilly made a circus stop of a hit, that would have been good for two or three if it had got by the diminutive short-fielder.

Portland started the run getting in the fourth when Nadeau and Hess singled. Andy Anderson advanced both men by a neat sacrifice. Josh Reilly flew to the longest hit of the day, and Anderson deprived Oakland of a couple of extra runs when he made a sensational stop of a wild throw from Hess, and Reilly made a circus stop of a hit, that would have been good for two or three if it had got by the diminutive short-fielder.

Anderson's error, an out at first and a single by Graham, netted the champs one more in the sixth. O'Hara walked in the seventh, took second on Reilly's error, but was caught at the plate when Brashear hit. Baxter scored Brashear with a safe hit. Reilly's bad throw allowed Pete's bunch to annex two more in the eighth. The score follows:

"ROUGH HOUSE" BURNS TAKES LAST COUNT IN ANNUAL RACE

Old New England Town of New London Is in Possession of College Man Who Will Do the Annual Honors.

Blue and Crimson Will Strive for Superiority as Has Been the Custom for Many Years Gone By.

(Journal Special Service.) NEW LONDON, Conn., June 24.—This old New England town is again rejoicing in its annual college outing, for the crew of Harvard and Yale contest for supremacy on the Thames tomorrow. College men and college enthusiasm have taken complete possession of the place. The town, as usual, is decorated impartially in blue and crimson, and every street and alley is shouting masses of students. Old Harvard men, who have not been here in years, poured into the quarters at Red Top today, until it seemed as though a regiment of ex-crimson oars was on. A similar scene was to be witnessed at Gale's Ferry, where there were countless visitors anxious to get a view of the Yale men in training.

It is generally conceded that the three races, "varsity eight," "varsity four," and "freshmen eight," will be the most closely contested events held in years, although popular opinion today favors Yale in the "varsity" race. There appears to be practically no preference for the other races. The Yale supporters are confident as to the result of the "varsity" race, and Harvard men appear to be only hopeful. In the small amount of betting done today Yale is a slight favorite because of her superior form and the better quality of her rowers. Many critics declare that Harvard's form was ragged and sloppy, though it has picked up a good deal in the last week. There is very little betting as yet, but the present enthusiasm seems to warrant that the usual amount of money will change hands tomorrow.

According to the program as finally arranged the four-oared race will start at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning from the upper end of the Thames, and finish at the navy yard. Immediately afterward the freshmen race will be started from the navy yard and finish at the bridge. At 12:30 o'clock the "varsity four" will be started from the upper end of the Thames and finish at the draw-bridge. William McKieham will be the referee and the boat Scout has been chosen for his use.

From a society point of view the races will undoubtedly be as successful as in previous years. No aquatic event in the Western Hemisphere attracts the fashionable as does the exclusive Yale-Harvard annual race. Special trains will be run from New York to New Haven, Providence and other points and the town of New London and its sleepy little suburb across the river will literally swarm with men and women of wide social prominence.

The betting shows Yale to be the favorite in all three races. Bets on the "varsity eight" today stands 14 to 4. On the freshmen eight, bookmakers lay 3 to 1, and on the "varsity four," 1 to 1. Reliance, Constitution and Columbia will arrive tomorrow. The Sylph with Mrs. Roosevelt and Alice Roosevelt and party is expected to arrive this afternoon.

FOOTBALL MEN BUSY AT RIVAL COLLEGES

The California Gridiron Heroes Making Ready for the Season of Glory.

As the football season is only three months hence it may be interesting to lovers of the great game and college men in particular to get some idea as to the make-up of the rival "varsities."

At this time of the year it is impossible to get a line on the teams for the reason that the freshmen class, about to enter college, may upset all calculations. Therefore, the Lohman pulpit outlook must be based entirely upon previous performances of the gridiron heroes already in college.

At Stanford all the old men will be back, except "Tub" Lee and "Red" Barnhisel, last year's guards. Thompson of the 1901 team will probably return and take Barnhisel's place, thus leaving only one hole in the line at left guard. The position of left guard is rather an important one on the Stanford team, for the reason that the holder of the place bucks against the invincible Overall in the big game. There is much good material among the wearers of the cardinal and it is safe to say that the Stanford team will be a formidable one in the final struggle.

The punting department of the game will, for a change, be well taken care of by the Palo Altians next fall. At practice, held during the semester just finished, several good kickers were developed, among them being Dole, Magee, Tarpey, McGilvray and Spot. Dole and Spot also showed their ability as place kickers.

With the place of but one man necessary to be filled on the line, with the back field intact, with an abundance of first-class material which insures the choice of a good man for every position, in addition to having for captain the best player on the coast in the person of Barnhisel, prospects certainly look bright for Stanford.

Over at Berkeley they have places of five men to fill. Albertson, Hudson, Mink, More and Sherman. Although on paper this looks like so many new men there will be some lively competitors. Over at Berkeley they have places of five men to fill. Albertson, Hudson, Mink, More and Sherman. Although on paper this looks like so many new men there will be some lively competitors.

PROVIDENCE, June 24.—Lynch made the marvelous record of 31 strike-outs and allowed only one single in the game against Columbia recently, which Brown won by a score of 8 to 0. DIAMOND GLISTENINGS. One more gone. And poor Charlie, too. When, oh when? Will Portland win? Seattle has lost one more game on the California trip than Portland. Rumor had it in Los Angeles that Umpire Levy had disappeared to unknown parts and as everybody was about to celebrate over the joyful news, he turned up, and mourning took the place of jollity. Jimmy Whalen of Uncle Henry's Bunch cannot be beaten on his own grounds, Jimmy is. Jack Grim and his "doughnuts" have not been heard from in over a week. The silence of Grim is golden. Jay Andrew's shoulder is all right again, and this afternoon Jay will take his first practice on the ball grounds.

KRIPP LOST HEAVILY ON SAD SAM

Scheme to make Big Winning Came to a Bad Finish for Plunger.

Ed Kripp of Sacramento came to town Monday expecting to get better prices on racing than the Seattle bookmakers allowed. He got better prices all right and managed to lose his $1,500. Kripp is a partner of Harry Green, owner of Sad Sam. Green had a tip that his horse would win first money in Monday's race and hastened Kripp to this city to bet $1,500, as the odds in Seattle were 1 to 2, while at the Portland Club they were 4 to 5. One thousand dollars was bet on Sad Sam at Spokane, and in all Kripp lost over $3,000 on the race. E. M. Buxtaut won the race, it being the last of the day and was for six furlongs. Sad Sam coming in second, Kripp left town feeling rather sore over his loss.

PITTSBURG PHIL BARRED. NEW YORK, June 24.—The Jockey Club announced that hereafter all the entries of George E. Smith, better known as Pittsburg Phil, will be barred from all the tracks controlled by this club throughout the country. This is probably the result of the investigation of Jockey Shaw's (Pittsburg Phil's rider) work in the now famous Illinois race.

Pittsburg Phil when interviewed regarding the affair was highly indignant. Among the remarks he made were: "I have been racing for 24 or 25 years and I defy anyone to show where I have done anything wrong. There are two officials of the club who are bitter enemies of mine, and whom I believe would take any unfair advantage of me. My honor is at stake in this affair and I will take it to the highest court I can reach."

SILVER MEN GO DOWN TO DEFEAT

Iowa Democratic State Convention Meets and at Once Turns Down Time-Honored Kansas City Platform.

Government Ownership Is to Be a Strong Issue in the Debates—Hamilton Is Made Chairman of Body.

DES MOINES, June 25.—The Democratic state convention assembled here at 11 o'clock this morning. Prior to convening the conservatives secured control of the resolution committee. The silver men accepted their defeat with poor grace and announced their intention of precipitating a fight on the floor of the convention on a minority report. They have 275 of the 825 delegates. In a speech Temporary Chairman Quick studiously avoided all reference to the Kansas City platform and his efforts were directed to trusts, tariff and government ownership issues. He urged the party to look forward rather than backward. Edward Hamilton was made permanent chairman.

A forecast on the gubernatorial nomination, J. B. Sullivan, who has a large conservative support, is favorably mentioned, also Judge A. A. Van Wagenen, who is a strong advocate of Government ownership.

Up to the time of the caucuses late today John Sullivan was the receptive candidate for Governor and was conceded to be in the lead. The conservative victory of this boomed the stock of Van Wagenen, the only avowed candidate. The latter, however, will be forced to accept serious modifications of government ownership plank or abandon the race.

When the convention reassembled this afternoon everything pointed to a total ignoring of the Kansas City platform and Van Wagenen's plank. All seem to be uniting on Sullivan, who insists he won't accept the nomination. His closest friends are confident that he will although his reaffirmation views may be ignored.

DRUGGISTS ARE IN GAYEST SPIRITS. Thirtieth Annual Session of State Society Proves a Great Success.

ON BOARD THE DALLES CITY, June 24.—The thirtieth annual session of the Oregon States Pharmaceutical Association is drawing to a close this afternoon and members say that it has been one of the liveliest and most profitable ever held since the association came into existence. Much of the credit for this happy result is to be given to J. M. A. Laue, the druggist at Third and Yamhill, chairman of the entertainment committee, who worked so energetically and intelligently in performing the duties of his important office. That committee consisted of John M. A. Laue, chairman, and Messrs. Clemenson and Knight, all of Portland. Mr. Laue stated that on account of meetings of the society being so meagerly attended of late years, the committee decided to inject a little novelty into the thirtieth session, hence the river trip to The Dalles was planned. The sessions had always heretofore been held in Portland, and country members had tired of the monotony of this program, so a decision to vary the session by dividing the time between business and pleasure was agreed upon. That the change had met with the approbation of the druggists of the state was proved by the enlarged roll of "presents" when the members' names were called today.
