CLOSE CONTEST FOR THE QUEEN

All of Clarke County Is Out Working for Half a Dozen Young Women and Result Is Very Uncertain.

The Last Day of the Carnival Balloting Starts in Auspiciously and Will Close in Exciting Finish.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 7.—The election of the Vancouver Carnival Queen, who will represent this city at the Woodmen's Carnival in Portland next week, will show the most exciting finish of any contest ever held in Clarke County. Of the three leading candidates no one can select the fortunate one, and it is understood that one at least of the low candidates has a reserve fund of votes to be poured in at the last moment.

Already there have been more votes cast than in other cities of twice Vancouver's size, and the adherents of the various leaders say that they have not yet started. Tonight the votes will come in by the tens and twenties and more than one youth will place his week's and month's wages at the disposal of his chosen Queen.

The contest in two or three cases has narrowed down to a battle of business men who wish to see their candidate at the head of the list and who are willing to pay for the prize liberally. The successful Queen will have something to boast of, and can attend the Carnival knowing that she is a liege lady.

There are several private boxes in various towns near here and these contain numbers of votes that will be counted tonight and may decide the final result.

This morning the vote stood: Ester Cohen, 260; Flo Heaven, 250; Josie Crowley, 230; Blanche Lander, 112; Pearl Huston, 101; Laura Farrell, 77; Mabel Hopkins, 53.

RECEIVER IS WANTED

Chicago Commission Company Seeks to Recover Money from Its Washington Purchasing Agents.

The Mallory Commission Company of Chicago has begun a suit in the State Circuit Court against J. E. Sherar and Charles H. Shurtz, doing business at Ellensburg, Wash., under the firm name of Sherar & Shurtz. John A. Little of Antelope and the First National Bank of The Dalles, to recover $22,520, alleged to be due the plaintiff from the defendants, Sherar & Shurtz. The complaint alleges that since 1903 Sherar & Shurtz have been buying sheep for the Mallory Commission Company, and in 1901 owned the corporation $22,520, secured by a chattel mortgage on 2,542 sheep. Notwithstanding the mortgage and without any notice to his partner, Sherar sold the sheep to Little, who executed a chattel mortgage to the First National Bank of The Dalles for $15,000. Fraud in the sale is alleged, and it is asserted that Sherar has $7,500 deposited in the bank which he declares to be the proceeds of the transaction. He threatens to use the money as his own, and the plaintiff asks that he be restrained from doing so.

The company has attached the wool clipped by Little and stored in Ellensburg, and the money in the bank, and asks that a receiver be appointed.

HEAVY RAINS DAMAGE HAY

Too Much Moisture Makes Agricultural Conditions None the Better—Cherry Harvest.

GRESHAM, Or., July 7.—During the past two days a vast quantity of rain has fallen in this vicinity and has damaged the early hay which is mature enough to cut. Hay has grown quite rapidly and as a consequence is too far along for the season so far has been very moist. Clover hay grows very rapidly and usually it is somewhat damaged by the late rains, while the timothy is later and fares better. Haying commenced in earnest this short time if the rain ceases. The general indications are that there will be a heavy crop and will also be of a good quality, as the greater portion of hay acreage is on old land which has been well tilled before being seeded to clover or timothy.

Cherries Ripening.

The outlook for a heavy cherry crop is not quite so promising as several weeks ago. The recent rains have done more or less damage to the cherry orchards in this vicinity. Rain is rarely beneficial to ripening cherries and it is detrimental in nearly every way, as the fruit will split open and if not picked immediately will begin to moulder and decay. This prevents sale to the fruit-dealers from whom a larger price is usually received and the fruit cannot get the bulk of the yield at top prices.

Plan Tallyho Party.

The Gresham Grange Social Club is making definite plans for a tallyho party to be given in the near future. It will be a very swell affair, as nothing will be lacking to make the venture a success. There is to be one four-horse wagon, also a two-horse wagon and a single rig in which will ride the chaparons.

The party will drive to Sandy, partake of a fine chicken dinner, after which a musical program will be rendered by those present and they will then return to Gresham. The plans will be completed in a short time and invitations will be given out to all who are members of the club and also to a few friends of club members.

Order of Pendo.

OREGON CITY, July 7.—The Order of Pendo installed officers last evening. A large crowd of Pendos were present to witness the installation. After the work was done ice cream and cake were served. Lunch was followed by a dance which continued until 12 o'clock. The new officers are: Councilor, E. R. Boyer; Vice Councilor, Marguerite Bruner; Chaplain, Julia Tustein; Secretary, May Taylor; Treasurer, L. D. McClinton; Guide, Emma Thomas; Warden, Claude Smith; Sentinel, I. D. Taylor; Musician, Melissa Osborne; Trustee, J. O. Miller; Cellista of Guard, Augusta Lutz.

A Famous Remedy for Sick Headache.

The cause of this complaint is not in the head at all. It comes from the stomach. IT'S A BUSY MART

The Fascinating Bargains Offered at the White Corner, Second and Yamhill, Crowds the House.

The White Corner, at Second and Yamhill, the largest general store in Oregon, never before, in all its active history, sold so many goods each day as it passes over its counters to well satisfied customers during the 10 business hours of these prosperous days of trade. The management inaugurated a bargain campaign several weeks ago. It was its determination to continue this warfare on prices until every man and woman in Multnomah county, and others who do business in Portland, had had an opportunity to sample some of the fruits of the slaughter. The columns of the Journal, daily, weekly and semi-weekly, were employed to "carry the news" to the masses, and as a result thousands of bargain hunters have found the store and therein the goods they desired at such low figures as were not deemed possible until the war and prices were actually exhibited. Satisfied beyond their most sanguine expectations these persons have told their neighbors, and these other neighbors, until today the business of the White Corner is nearly doubled what it ever was before.

The White Corner people are "white." Their merchandise is first-class, and their prices are the glittering decoys that build up business. The institution deserves the laurels the purchasing public is placing upon its brow.

DEPOT BURNS

Fire at Keppner Junction Destroys the Freight Shed and Passenger Station.

(Journal Special Service.)

THE DALLES, Ore., July 7.—The O. R. & N. freight and passenger depot at Keppner Junction caught fire and was completely destroyed yesterday morning. The fire was so fierce for a time that passenger train No. 6, was unable to pass, being delayed about one hour, and is supposed to have started from an engine spark. The loss to the depot will be small as it was an old one, but the loss to freight stored therein cannot be told at this time until it is checked up.

During the Fourth there were six alarms sent in for fires in this city which was the largest on record within one day. They were all small and were put out without serious damage. The largest of the day was at 3 a. m. at Michelbach's saloon, where some burning caught fire and destroyed the finest silk flag in the city, the loss here amounting to $160.
