

OUR SPORTING and ATHLETIC GOSSIP of the WORLD.

 EDITED BY
J. A. HOBAN

SHORT PARAGRAPHS ABOUT THE PLAYERS

Parke Wilson On an Eastern Trip After Men—Diamond Dots.

Chicago has signed Pitcher Dorchester of Fordham College.

Pitcher Ford was again knocked out of the box at Indianapolis Wednesday. Chebro has won ten games and lost seven. Differ from last year's record.

The baseball presidents will meet July 28 to draw up a new National agreement.

Dick Padden and Harry McCormack may be let out by the St. Louis American League.

The Chicago Club will play the New York Giants under protest if the latter uses George Davis.

Titus, Philadelphia's much-touted outfielder, is hitting about .215. That will hardly help his club much.

All the money that Stalling of Detroit takes in during the rest of the year will be velvet. He is now more than even.

Al Shaw is one of the most useful catchers in the Eastern League, and is having much to do with Buffalo's position in the race.

The Detroit management would like to get hold of Wolfe, the star left-hander of the Toronto, but refuse to trade either Yager or Hardy.

It is rumored that Rube Waddell's new wife, who is making this trip with the Philadelphia team, is about to leave the erratic one and go home.

Rube's old habit clings to him, and he will not go home as long as the lights are burning and the backer will stick.

Red Brown, who played such a good center field for Portland two years ago, played left for Seattle yesterday. Red is a steady player, and should make good.

Parke Wilson has signed. Second Baseman Ernest Mohler of the Denver team in the Western League.

Mohler played second for Parke in Denver last year, and Wilson has been trying to get him since the season started. That means Charley Schwartz will go to the outfield.

A triple play that really put out four men was the feature of the game between the St. Louis and New York National League teams recently, at New York.

It happened in the eighth inning, half of the sixth inning. Ryan opened with a two-bagger. Currie singled, scoring Ryan. Farrell was safe on Davis' error, and Donovan made it a full home when his grounder was kicked about the infield. Smoot made a mighty swipe, but Brennan, coming in, nailed the ball on the fly, retiring Smoot, then whipped it home to Warner, killing off Currie. Warner relayed the ball to Gilbert, disposing of Farrell. Donovan could have been put out at first if necessary.

"Do you know what kick Morley's pitchers had when we were there?" remarked Manager Harris the other day, when the score on the board stood 1 to 6 in favor of Sacramento. "They were crying that they had too little work to do. Dr. Newton, especially, was very much aggravated. He said he was doing so little pitching that he could not keep himself in shape. He is a big fellow and likes lots of work. Morley has the largest staff in the league. He has Gray, Hall, Corbett, Newton, Drinkwater and Wheeler, though the latter has not been pitching lately."

Hollingsworth, the former Los Angeles shortstop, who played yesterday with Aberdeen, has been purchased by Manager Dugdale. That means that Babbitt de Rabbit will go on the bench for a period. George, in the humble opinion of the writer, is a valuable man for any team. Of late, however, he has not been hitting up to his standard. Dug may try him out in the box.

Last Saturday Billy Murdock was given a hit which he was not entitled to, according to the Bulletin. He smashed a liner into right field and Pat Meany caught it a few inches from the ground. It was a beautiful catch, but O'Connell thought that Pat scooped it, and allowed the runner his base. It made quite a difference in the game, as Pat would have had a double play which would have retired the side, and Kruger would not have had the chance to score that run with a single.

Jimmy Whalen holds a batting record which he is willing to wager no other pitcher in any league will equal this season. At Los Angeles in the game the Prodigious won out in one inning Jimmy went to bat twice in this inning, and hit safely both times. If another pitcher duplicates his record, the drinks are on Jimmy.

Regardless of the reports of the poor condition of pitchers, and hard luck stories, the Milwaukee team keeps right on winning games. A Cantillon is a great leader, and while his team weakens in any department he has a way of mending which keeps his underestimates on the right side of the ledger.

Preston, the old St. Paul outfielder, who was with Denver last season, has been signed by the Portland team. There was a certain shoe dealer in San Francisco that would have heard words not pleasant to his ears if he had been present in the dressing rooms when the Oakland players were putting on their costumes last Sunday. Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

Manager Tom Loftus of the Washington American League, has offered to buy five players from the Milwaukee Western League as follows: Pitcher Kenna, Catcher Lucia, Third Baseman Cookman, Second Baseman Miller and Shortstop Catlin. The last Sunday Brick Devereaux ordered a pair of shoes to work in, and they were delivered promptly, but when he went to put them on he found one large enough for Jeffries, and the other too small for a cigarette. "What do you think of me sending out shoes like them?" roared the old dog, trying to kick the big cow over his head. "This is so large I can't tie it on, and the other so small it would pinch the toes of a baby. I'll bet that shoe dealer will get a piece of my mind when I see him tonight." And Brick went back to the old moccasins, which he thought he had abandoned forever.

BOB FITZSIMMONS AFTER GARDNER

Freckled Ex-Champion Desires a Meeting with the Conqueror of Root.

(Journal Special Service.)

BUFFALO, N. Y., July 8.—Manager Herman received a letter from Bob Fitzsimmons recently in which the lanky boxer said:

"We need two championships in the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons combination. I realize that I can never become heavy-weight champion while Jeff cares to retain the title. I am positive he will put Corbett away in their coming battle, and I feel young enough and frisky enough to take away that diamond-encrusted-ruby studded championship medal from the winner at your club on July 4. So, Herman, you can send along articles to me at any time for a contest with Gardner, the winner, to take place any time within three weeks or so after the Jeffries-Corbett fight."

"I will get plenty of good, hard work training Jeffries for the Corbett contest, and my friends can depend on seeing me just as good as I have been in the last 10 years, if Gardner meets me at Fort Erie or any other place. I am at the best of health and feel equal to several engagements in the ring before I stop for good."

"Your contest on the Fourth was a dandy to look at. Jeffries sends his best regards. He will be on hand to second me if I box at Fort Erie. Yours truly, 'BOB FITZSIMMONS.'"

O'Laughlin claimed he called time as soon as the ball hit McCarthy, and Hickman was sent back to third. There was great excitement over the accident and the ruling of the umpire, and during the remainder of the game the crowd was in a constant uproar. Had not Davis' throw struck McCarthy, Lajoie would surely have been out at the plate, and this would have saved the day. The winning run was made because O'Laughlin was afraid to declare Gochnaur out at the plate in the ninth, owing to the frenzied condition of the mob. Gochnaur had secured first on balls, took second on Abbott's out and came home on Ray's single. Pickering made a fine throw home and Sherock had Gochnaur blocked off so that he could not touch the plate, but O'Laughlin was afraid to call him out, and Cleveland won the game—Philadelphia News. It is quite evident that the author of the above is not very well acquainted with "SIX" O'Laughlin, for the doughty little knicker of all umpires never knew what fright was.

"I don't think I am batting right," said Krug the other day while waiting for his turn to bat one of Graham's twisters. "I have been taking too many balls, but I have been advised to do this. I should go up and swing at the first good ball that comes over the plate. That's my style of batting. Other players can swing them out, but not affect their batting average, but not me." There is sense in what Krug said. It has been noticed time and time again that when a pitcher gets a couple of strikes on him, he invariably swings at a bad ball next time. It is a bad habit of those batters who can go much when he is in a hole, but he does like to go after the first ball that looms up.

If they were all left-handers Delmas would have a swell batting average. They are his meat, but a right-hander with a wide out-curve is his worst enemy.

"Brennan is the fiercest fizzle that ever disgraced the profession. He has neither judgment, backbone nor ability, and back of it all hasn't enough gray matter on tap to feather a small flea. Talk about ye blocks, ye stones, ye worse than senseless things, as Bill Shakespeare used to say."

"Before blistering the human squash any further the game should be given some small mention. The bout wound up 5 to 5."

"Observe for a moment the umpire's decision of violation and then wonder why the Colonels played the game they did. During the first three innings Stafford, Weyhing and Matthews were benched without any cause whatever. Weyhing and Matthews were shoved into the coop from the side lines for giggling a bit when Brennan called strikes on Crozier and Williams three feet over their heads."

"All three of the Black Sox's first runs were due to Brennan. He refused to call strikes and then wonder why the Colonels played the game they did. During the first three innings Stafford, Weyhing and Matthews were benched without any cause whatever. Weyhing and Matthews were shoved into the coop from the side lines for giggling a bit when Brennan called strikes on Crozier and Williams three feet over their heads."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."

"Home fanatics might like to know who handled the indicator. Mr. Brennan was trembling like a leaf in a gale. He was the most abject specimen of humanity that ever happened, without doubt."