SUCCESSORS TO L. SHANAHAN

Corner of First and Salmon Sts.

WE DESIRE to announce to the public that we have assumed control of Mr. L. Shanahan's branch store, located at First and Salmon Streets. In order to carry out the extensive plans we have in mind for a large fall business, we will be forced to close out the present stock at once. Tomorrow there begins here a sale without a single equal in the city. It will be an event that means the most rigid price cutting in the history of Portland. Every nook and corner of the entire store will offer its share of bargains.

This sale will be a big event for the wage-earner, on account of the remarkable values. You can't afford to miss it. It offers the most seasonable goods, in the best styles, at prices that are irresistible. ALL GOODS MUST GO. Original cost or present values are not to be considered during this sale. We must have the room. The most desirable and attractive goods offered during this sale at little more than the cost of manufacture. Every man and woman in Portland and the neighboring towns should take advantage of this sale.
