BASEBALL GOSSIP FROM EUGENE

Hopeful Fans Think that the Pennant May Still Go to the Eugenites.

(Journal Special Service.) EUGENE, Or., July 15.—With the present standing of the Willamette Valley Baseball League Eugene may win the pennant after all.

Somers, the Eugene twirler, was thrown out of the game early in the second inning, because he joshed the first baseman, Tim Shanahan, who heads the batting list of the Eugene players.

There are four more games to be played this season. Eugene is to contest four games with Salem, two here this next Saturday and Sunday and the last two in Salem a week hence.
