

DID NOT REPORT A SUICIDE CASE

While Confined for Insanity Miss Bertha Calligan Takes Her Own Life at the Mount Tabor Sanitarium.

The Officials Failed to Notify Coroner Finley and He Is Making a Thorough Investigation Today.

Information of the suicide of an inmate of the Mount Tabor Sanitarium was withheld fully two weeks after death from Coroner Finley's office...

The facts were indirectly communicated to Coroner Finley and that official was very indignant at the disregard of the law.

What makes the case the more serious and which is thought to have been the incentive for "smothering" the true story is the fact that Miss Calligan, who is only 26 years of age...

Coroner Is Indignant. Coroner Finley first heard of the exact nature of Miss Calligan's death last evening and today he went out to the Sanitarium to make a complete investigation of the affair.

"Whatever induced the people to withhold the information," he said, "makes very little difference, but the act itself was a violation of the law and several times lately I have been annoyed by a disregard of the proper courtesy due this office."

Coroner is appointed to investigate such cases, and it is his duty to do so. When people try to thwart the law it makes it only the worse for themselves.

The case of the young McKensie boy, who was fatally injured in an elevator accident on Saturday, is another instance. I knew nothing about the death in my official capacity until I read the particulars in the newspapers.

In Miss Calligan's case the death certificate left the impression that she had been burned at Scappoose and had been brought to the Sanitarium for treatment. A person would also judge from her personal that she had gone insane from her injuries.

As a matter of fact, according to late developments, she was taken there suffering from insanity, and in some manner secured matches, built a fire in which she roasted herself to death.

The remains were shipped to the young lady's home for interment.

THUGS HANDLED IN VERY ROUGH ORDER Attempt to Rob a Picnic Gatekeeper Ends Disastrously for Thieving Ruffians.

(Journal Special Service.) SAN FRANCISCO, July 21.—Two thugs were arrested in an attempt to rob the gatekeeper of $900 during the picnic of the Austrian Military and Benevolent Association Sunday.

Friends pounced on the robbers and prevented them escaping. The Austrians present were greatly excited. Before rescued by the police the thugs were very roughly handled and cries of "get a rope, lynch them" were heard on all sides.

KILLED BY THE CARS (Journal Special Service.) REDDING, Cal., July 21.—Horace Bushnell had both legs cut off by the cars last night and died this morning. He had been drinking and fell on the track and went to sleep.

SIMMONS BROS. 101-103 GRAND AVE., COR. E. WASHINGTON. Mountains of Bargains HERE THIS WEEK! Every one the embodiment of perfection as to style, quality and good taste in making.

ROME WAITING TO KNOW SLAVERS OF CALOF PEDDLERS

which will differ greatly from the program of his predecessors of centuries past.

The interview is thought to have great significance as indicating far-reaching changes in the Holy See.

The Right to Veto. ROME, July 21.—Premier Zanardelli had another long conference this morning with the Minister of Justice, Signor Coccu-Ortu.

Portugal has never been recognized as a power enjoying the exclusive right of veto, although for centuries she has claimed that right.

Candidates for Succession. ROME, July 21.—It is now believed that the most prominent candidates among the cardinals for succession are: Cardinals Agnelli, Serafini, Vannutelli, Capelatro, Sarto, Rampolla, Di Pietro, Svampa, Ferreri, Satolli, Richelmi, Gotti and Oreglia.

Kaiser Sends Condolence. ROME, July 21.—The official certificate of the Pope's death was filed today with the Mayor of Rome by Dr. Lapponi.

Will Not Officially Attend. WASHINGTON, July 21.—The State Department announced today that the United States will not be officially represented at the Pope's funeral.

FOR REQUIEM MASS Preparations are being made for the requiem mass to be held in honor of Pope Leo XIII at the Cathedral, Fifteenth and Davis streets.

FIND WOMAN'S ARM FLOATING IN BAY San Francisco and Oakland Police Mystified Over What Is Believed Murder.

(Journal Special Service.) OAKLAND, Cal., July 21.—The police are working on a single clue of what is believed points to an appalling murder.

KATIE GRAY ARRESTED Late yesterday afternoon Katie Gray, a well-known North Ender, was arrested upon orders of Chief of Police Hunt.

THOMAS MURPHY, a fruit dealer who owns several street wagons, is deeply interested in the case and in discussing the matter he gave the opinion that the Police Department had not displayed the skill and interest in the case.

ALL OF SAME OPINION. "Yes, I have heard that Jerry Haley and 'Doughnuts' were suspected of the shooting of old man Calof."

THE CEREMONY OF CROWNING A POPE. ROME, July 21.—It is to Cardinal Macchi, the senior of the cardinal deacons, to whom, unless he himself is elected Pope, will fall the lot of crowning the successor to Leo XIII.

WAS NOT INVITED BY THE PRESIDENT. OYSTER BAY, July 21.—President Roosevelt was greatly surprised to see in this morning's papers the report that the Prince and Princess of Wales had accepted his invitation to pay America a visit.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

THE FUTURE CAN BE YOUR OWN. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school. We educate you for practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing.

FRATERNAL DAY AT WOODMEN CARNIVAL

Lodgesmen Will Meet This Evening—Two Weddings Tomorrow Night.

This is "Fraternal Day" at the Woodmen of the World Carnival and this evening members of various lodges of the city will congregate at the carnival grounds and participate in the exercises.

Addresses will be delivered this evening by representatives from the several lodges present. The carnival management desires the visiting lodgesmen to meet at the grounds at 8 o'clock instead of at their respective halls.

Tomorrow will be given over to the infants and at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon a baby show will take place. Prizes will be awarded. All children under two years of age are eligible.

Yesterday was Oregon Day at the carnival, and in the evening Gov. Chamberlain and other prominent citizens accompanied Queen Emma I to the Stadium, where addresses were made.

With the chief executive were United States Senators John H. Mitchell and C. W. Fulton and Judge John F. Caples.

Gov. Chamberlain paid a glowing tribute to the patriotism displayed by the Woodmen of the World and of the work the order has been doing.

Judge Caples in a characteristic address enraptured the vast audience. He urged the people of Portland to do all in their power to make the Lewis and Clark Fair a success.

Senators Mitchell and Fulton delivered short addresses.

$800, as an inducement to the arrest of the brutal highwaymen who shot down the old man in cold blood.

In fact the Calof murder has been the chief talk among the street fruit vendors for the past three weeks and among them it is the general opinion that Jerry and Doughnuts were the perpetrators of the dastardly crime.

Theory of Harry Calof. Harry Calof, a brother of Nathan, and son of the victim of the assassination, was lying sick in bed with a broken leg at the time his aged father was shot down.

However, he knows the two suspects well, and he is firmly convinced that they are the guilty men.

"Doughnuts" had been around the city for some time, and did not work all the time. He was employed by several fruit peddlers.

The theory that the two suspects are in the Puget Sound country is strengthened by the rumor that they were recently seen in Seattle by a city license inspector, who is well acquainted with the fruit peddlers.

"Yes, I have heard that Jerry Haley and 'Doughnuts' were suspected of the shooting of old man Calof."

"I have reason to believe that these two men are the ones who robbed young Calof and killed the old man."

"I don't know either of the men having criminal records but Jerry had one of his fingers shot off in the chair of Pinch. He is nothing but a traveling peddler and a petty thief when he is drinking."

"Jerry came to Portland about a week before the holdup. The first two days of that week he worked for me and later for Pinch. He stole some fruit from Pinch and on Saturday took a crate of berries that belonged to me and sold them."

"I don't know 'Doughnuts' so much, but I know he came from San Francisco. He never peddled until he came here. He has worked for a marine fireman and I think it possible that he returned to California and possibly left the country. He did not work very much here."

"It is my opinion that Jerry has gone up towards Seattle for he asked me the chances of getting work there. It seems to me that the police could not have failed to catch him at least, for it would be easy to pick him out of a 100,000 men. He had no money and could not travel far and he is so small and frail looking that he can do no work but peddling."

"If the police had gone at it energetically they ought to have caught Haley before he could have gone far. It is almost a month now since the murder and nothing has been seen or heard of them."

The Reward. A few days ago a reward of $500 was offered by the Police Department for the arrest and conviction of Calof's murderers and it is likely that within short time the county will raise this to

Drugs in Your Pastry.

COMMON Baking Powders are half Corn starch, the other half being Acid-phosphate, or Alum. Some of these are said to be very injurious, and quite unreliable.

Good Baking Powders are one-fourth Rice Flour, one-fourth Soda, and one-half Cream of Tartar.

These cost 13 cents per pound to manufacture, but you must pay fifty cents per lb. for them, at retail.

And it takes $4.40 worth of this Baking Powder to make a $6.00 barrel of Flour into Tea Biscuits!

"PRESTO" quick-flour needs no Baking Powder, and very little "Shortening."

It is the finest flour milled in America, being rich in Gluten (muscle-former) with a comparatively low percentage of Starch (fat), while Baker's Flour, for instance, is chiefly Starch, with little Gluten.

"PRESTO" quick-flour has the exact proportions of Cream Tartar, Soda, and Salt, such that flour needs, already blended uniformly into it, by machinery.

These chemicals are the purest made, mixed with the flour when they are fresh and strong, and then sealed up in air-tight packages that Grocers retail at 10c and 25c.

The very best flour, and the purest Cream of Tartar and Soda are thus sold in "PRESTO," at the price of common flour, combined with Baking Powder, — why?

Because—"PRESTO" carries only a Miller's profit on the whole product, instead of a Druggists profit on the Baking Powder, or 44 per cent. portion.

Then, there's the great labor saving, and the certainty of results, to consider in its valuation.

"PRESTO" makes the quickest, surest, lightest, whitest, and most economical of cakes, biscuits, and pastry.

See comparative costs in other advertisements.

FOR CAKES Quick-Flour PIE-CRUST BISCUITS SHORT-CAKE PUDDINGS MUFFINS DUMPLINGS DOUGHNUTS

Of all good Grocers, (or The H.O. Co., Buffalo, in 25¢ and 10¢ packages.

WORLD MAY KNOW TRUE CHARACTER

(Continued from Page One.) therefore I die in exile: I have loved justice, therefore have I Conflict and labor, plot and biting scorn.

Guardian of faith, for Christ's dear flock would I suffer with gladness, and in prison die!

To His Brother. The Pope's brother, Cardinal Pecci, died February 8, 1890. The first line of this poem, written on this death, refers to the passage of the soul through Purgatorial fires:

Justice is satisfied; the debt is paid; The starry sky is mine at last—but thou Dost hold a mighty office, and to God Owest the more, the more He gives to thee.

Courage! Thy bark still pilot o'er the deep; Sweet is the toll and worthy great reward. Which thou dost undergo for holy faith! Yet that thou mayst the heights of Heaven scale, Nor touch the burning pool, remember well, O Joachim, amidst thy mortal life, To wash away thy sins with tears and sighs!

The following stirring homily to himself was entirely characteristic of the noble life and splendid courage of the Pontiff:

Forward, then, Leo! Strive, strive To surmount with courage Whatever obstacles; To endure with patience Whatsoever trials; Fear not; Your life is nearly ended, Your race is nearly run; Renounce and spurn All that is perishable; Aspire to the heights; Press forward With constant longing Toward thy heavenly Fatherland.

THE CEREMONY OF CROWNING A POPE. ROME, July 21.—It is to Cardinal Macchi, the senior of the cardinal deacons, to whom, unless he himself is elected Pope, will fall the lot of crowning the successor to Leo XIII.

There are many people who will doubtless be interested to know that it is only since the thirteenth century that the Popes have been accustomed to wear white. Until that time they were arrayed in the red robes now affected by the cardinals.

Let me add that the crozier with which the new Pope is invested during the course of the mass preceding his coronation is distinguished from those of all cardinals, archbishops, bishops and abbots in that it is surmounted by a cross instead of a shepherd's crook.

It is said that one of the reasons why the other dignitaries of the church have the upper end of their crozier bent into the form of a crook is a symbol of the fact that their owners are compelled to bow to the will of the supreme Pontiff.

There are many people who will doubtless be interested to know that it is only since the thirteenth century that the Popes have been accustomed to wear white.

Until that time they were arrayed in the red robes now affected by the cardinals. Boniface VIII in 1294, however, realizing that the red was no longer a distinctive color of the papacy since his predecessors had accorded to their legates abroad the right to wear it, issued a decree granting to all the members of the Sacred College the red robes which they now wear, and decided that white should henceforth be the hue of the raiment of himself and of his successors.

The Popes, however, still retain from these ancient days the red hat which they wear out of doors, and the red mantle as well as the red shoes.

There are many people who will doubtless be interested to know that it is only since the thirteenth century that the Popes have been accustomed to wear white.

Until that time they were arrayed in the red robes now affected by the cardinals. Boniface VIII in 1294, however, realizing that the red was no longer a distinctive color of the papacy since his predecessors had accorded to their legates abroad the right to wear it, issued a decree granting to all the members of the Sacred College the red robes which they now wear, and decided that white should henceforth be the hue of the raiment of himself and of his successors.

The Popes, however, still retain from these ancient days the red hat which they wear out of doors, and the red mantle as well as the red shoes.

There are many people who will doubtless be interested to know that it is only since the thirteenth century that the Popes have been accustomed to wear white.

Until that time they were arrayed in the red robes now affected by the cardinals. Boniface VIII in 1294, however, realizing that the red was no longer a distinctive color of the papacy since his predecessors had accorded to their legates abroad the right to wear it, issued a decree granting to all the members of the Sacred College the red robes which they now wear, and decided that white should henceforth be the hue of the raiment of himself and of his successors.

The Popes, however, still retain from these ancient days the red hat which they wear out of doors, and the red mantle as well as the red shoes.

There are many people who will doubtless be interested to know that it is only since the thirteenth century that the Popes have been accustomed to wear white.

Until that time they were arrayed in the red robes now affected by the cardinals. Boniface VIII in 1294, however, realizing that the red was no longer a distinctive color of the papacy since his predecessors had accorded to their legates abroad the right to wear it, issued a decree granting to all the members of the Sacred College the red robes which they now wear, and decided that white should henceforth be the hue of the raiment of himself and of his successors.

The Popes, however, still retain from these ancient days the red hat which they wear out of doors, and the red mantle as well as the red shoes.

There are many people who will doubtless be interested to know that it is only since the thirteenth century that the Popes have been accustomed to wear white.

Until that time they were arrayed in the red robes now affected by the cardinals. Boniface VIII in 1294, however, realizing that the red was no longer a distinctive color of the papacy since his predecessors had accorded to their legates abroad the right to wear it, issued a decree granting to all the members of the Sacred College the red robes which they now wear, and decided that white should henceforth be the hue of the raiment of himself and of his successors.

Drugs in Your Pastry.

COMMON Baking Powders are half Corn starch, the other half being Acid-phosphate, or Alum. Some of these are said to be very injurious, and quite unreliable.

Good Baking Powders are one-fourth Rice Flour, one-fourth Soda, and one-half Cream of Tartar.

These cost 13 cents per pound to manufacture, but you must pay fifty cents per lb. for them, at retail.

And it takes $4.40 worth of this Baking Powder to make a $6.00 barrel of Flour into Tea Biscuits!

"PRESTO" quick-flour needs no Baking Powder, and very little "Shortening."

It is the finest flour milled in America, being rich in Gluten (muscle-former) with a comparatively low percentage of Starch (fat), while Baker's Flour, for instance, is chiefly Starch, with little Gluten.

"PRESTO" quick-flour has the exact proportions of Cream Tartar, Soda, and Salt, such that flour needs, already blended uniformly into it, by machinery.

These chemicals are the purest made, mixed with the flour when they are fresh and strong, and then sealed up in air-tight packages that Grocers retail at 10c and 25c.

The very best flour, and the purest Cream of Tartar and Soda are thus sold in "PRESTO," at the price of common flour, combined with Baking Powder, — why?

Because—"PRESTO" carries only a Miller's profit on the whole product, instead of a Druggists profit on the Baking Powder, or 44 per cent. portion.

Then, there's the great labor saving, and the certainty of results, to consider in its valuation.

"PRESTO" makes the quickest, surest, lightest, whitest, and most economical of cakes, biscuits, and pastry.

See comparative costs in other advertisements.

FOR CAKES Quick-Flour PIE-CRUST BISCUITS SHORT-CAKE PUDDINGS MUFFINS DUMPLINGS DOUGHNUTS

Of all good Grocers, (or The H.O. Co., Buffalo, in 25¢ and 10¢ packages.

Better NOW THAN EVER BEFORE

Because of improved facilities: Superior instruction in spelling, grammar, writing, arithmetic, correspondence, commercial law, bookkeeping, business forms, shorthand, typewriting, office work, etc.

PORTLAND BUSINESS COLLEGE PARK AND WASHINGTON. A. F. ARMSTRONG, LL. B., Principal.

Beginning This Minute

The future can be your own. Results are never in doubt when you attend our school.

practical business and assist in getting you a position when competing. All our graduates are employed. There are not enough to satisfy the demand.

Sit right down today and write for catalogue.

Behnke-Walker Business College

PORTLAND, OREGON

HILL MILITARY ACADEMY

Dr. J. W. Hill, Principal, 24th & Marshall Sts., Portland, Or.

A PRIVATE BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND YOUNG MEN.

New buildings, modern and complete. Manual training, military discipline. Boys successfully fitted for all colleges or for business life.

Principal of twenty-five years' experience in Portland. Boys of any age admitted at any time. Write for catalogue. Fall term opens September 16.

Will It Pay?

CERTAINLY! Our Employment Department Has more calls for competent

BOOK-KEEPERS and STENOGRAPHERS Than it can supply—ENTER NOW.

Holmes Business College

YAMHILL AND ELEVENTH STS.

PORTLAND ACADEMY

AN ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL SCHOOL FOR BOYS AND GIRLS. Fits both for Eastern Colleges. Primary and Grammar Grades Included.

ST. HELEN'S HALL

Home school for girls. Ideal location. Expert teaching in all departments. Outdoor exercise. Illustrated book of information sent on application.

CAVALRY NEEDED TO PROTECT OFFICERS

Determined Effort Expected to Rescue Murderer Jim McCloud in Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 21.—Sheriff Fenton left Thermopolis this morning with Jim McCloud, the alleged murderer, who will be placed in jail at Basin. He was escorted by a company of militia-cavalrymen and 40 picked deputies, as it is reported he will be waylaid in the hills and have to fight his way through. The rescuing cattlemen are said to be under the leadership of the notorious Tom O'Day.

POLICE NOTES Mrs. Hagery, who resides at 613 Hood street, reports that her watch was stolen from her home yesterday afternoon. Francis Felby, who is stopping at the National Hotel, reports that he has lost a ticket to Niagara Falls and an order on a Niagara Falls bank for $450. He thinks he lost the articles on his way to the depot from the hotel.

COLLINS' CASE ENDED UNION, Mo., July 21.—The case of Collins, the bank robber and murderer, will be put in the hands of the jury this evening.