

TO GO AROUND DANGEROUS LOOP

The Celebrated Ruel is to Perform Notable Stunt Before the Portland People Next Month.

He is the Man Who First Was Able to Circle the Deadly Whirl—At Multnomah Club Carnival.

The class of people who take delight in seeing others take their lives in their hands will have an opportunity during the week commencing August 10, of witnessing a performance that makes slack wire, high dives and other aerial performances look like child's play.

Last Summer, during the Elks' carnival, thousands of people flocked nightly to the carnival grounds to see a bicycle rider face death in an attempt to "loop the loop." The foolhardy rider suffered two falls and as many miraculous escapes from death, before he gave up the feat as an impossibility.

The Loop is Conquered. Since that time the same loop that baffled the attempts of Rider Teltham has been conquered. John Ruel, a young German, has for several months been making his fortune in the loop.

The fact that Ruel, better known as "Diavolo," loops the identical loop that has sent 47 men to the hospital and has killed two outright, will no doubt bring thousands of lovers of the sensational to the daring performance.

Charles Kilpatrick, the one-legged bicycle expert, is the inventor of the bicycle loop, which was made under his personal direction. No one ever succeeded in looping this loop until Diavolo made the great whirl in Paducah, Ky. on Monday, the 11th of May, 1902.

A Dark Journey. His third ride around the loop was made at night and just as he started down the incline an electric fuse burned, every light went out and he made his trip in total darkness. How he ever did it no one ever knew. Even the assistants, accustomed to watching the nervy performance, held their breath and shook with terror as he plunged down the incline into the dark.

He says that he followed the course by instinct, at least he can account for his feat in no other way. At any rate, he never got off the six-inch line, which cannot be left except at the utmost peril of the rider. On the night following this he made another thrilling ride in a pouring rain. Though efforts were made to dissuade him, he was determined and he had his way.

Diavolo was formerly an expert pacer for bicycle racers. He paced "Jimmy" Michaels many times on a motorcycle and was accustomed to a rate of less than a mile a minute, hence his head was clear as to speed, but he had not experienced the whirl. This he tried without ever practicing in a ear loop, in which passengers run no risk of a fall.

The wonderful feat will be performed at the Multnomah Club grounds. Manager E. J. Kilpatrick, of Kilpatrick's Loop the Loop Company, has been in the city during the past week making arrangements for the performance.

The company gives a thoroughly high-class performance, having recently played nightly for three weeks to more than 20,000 people at Madison Square Gardens, New York.

Musical Festival. The performance consists of a musical festival, given by a military band recognized as one of the best in the country; an exhibition by the four champion cycle dazle riders of the world; Kilpatrick's famous ride; and 10 other first class vaudeville acts, concluding with the wonderful ride through the loop and an exhibition of fireworks that will surpass anything ever given in the Northwest.

Seats will be provided for 20,000 people on the club grounds, and the performance will be given in the open air.

STRANGE CASE OF LARCENY

(Journal Special Service.) JUNCTION CITY, Or., July 25.—A peculiar case of larceny has just been reported. A farmer sold a band of sheep to a buyer and was negotiating the sale of other stock which was located on another ranch. On the way to the latter place the men passed the sheep already bargained and both presumed that the animals had broken out of their pasture, as they were grazing in the county road. As the men were in a hurry they concluded to leave the sheep where they were, supposing they would be all right. Upon returning, no sheep were in sight and upon investigation no sheep were found in the pasture. A thorough search followed and the lost property was located in a neighbor's barnyard. Strange to say, the ears of the sheep had been freshly clipped, so that they were now in the mark of the neighbor. A hasty hunt failed to reveal the whereabouts of the culprit, so the sheep were taken home and turned over to the new owner. The thieving neighbor has not yet returned.

CLEVER CAPTURE OF TWO HOLDUP THUGS

Cottage Grove Sleuths Quickly Roundup the Highwaymen Who Robbed Stranger.

(Journal Special Service.) COTTAGE GROVE, Or., July 25.—By the prompt action of the deputy sheriff at this place today a very neat capture of two holdup men was effected. A young man, a stranger, was traveling through the country about and about midway between this place and Drain. Thursday night at about 10 o'clock, he was stopped by a couple of parties and relieved of a $5 gold piece, two silver dollars and some old coins. The young fellow made his way to Cottage Grove, arriving here early yesterday morning, and reported the matter to the police, giving a very good description of the men who robbed him. The officers kept on the lookout for the men, and they had not been in the city more than 15 minutes when the officers spotted them and had them under lock and key. They were thoroughly identified by the young man who suffered the loss at their hands, and all the money and the old coins were found on one of the parties.

Burglary of Pharmacy. COTTAGE GROVE, July 25.—The Modern Pharmacy was broken into last night by unknown parties and three valuable gold nuggets were carried away by the thief or thieves. Entrance was effected by means of smashing a panel of glass in the rear door and thereby enabling the burglars to turn the key, which was always left in the door. Nothing else is missing, as far as Proprietor Griggs knows, except a drink of brandy, but the burglar was kind enough to leave a 10-cent piece near the glass, as if it was intended as payment for the drink. The cash register had been opened and left open, but the small change, something like $1.50, was not taken. A party is under suspicion and a close surveillance is being kept by the police. The gold nuggets were the property of some miner and was left in the store for the purpose of helping out a very fine display of quartz specimens which Mr. Griggs keeps in one of his front windows.

SEATTLE IS PROUD OF "JIMMY JAMES"

Nag Belonging to Street Department Turns Out a Racer of Merit.

(Journal Special Service.) SEATTLE, Wash., July 25.—The City of Seattle is a sporty burg for a fact. Seattle used to gamble to the limit when faro bank was the fashion, and now that the sport of the kings has supplanted cards and games in popular favor, Seattle keeps up with the procession by owning a race horse. It was Jimmy James, a 4-year-old nag belonging to the street department, who swept all before him at the Driving Club's matinee at The Meadows last Saturday. Now the city councilmen, who are known as financiers, are wondering whether it would be better to dispose of the noble steed to some racing man or to open a city racing stable and put the pacer on the Pacific Coast tracks for big prize money. There is no doubt but that Jimmy has the speed and the blood in him, and Superintendent of Streets Walters is the man to whom credit is due for the acquisition of this bit of horseflesh. Walters was allowed a comparatively small sum for the purchase of a horse and buggy to enable him to properly look after his department, but he was raised on a farm and knows a few things about horses so it is to be wondered at, say his admirers, that he should procure an animal that would make the fancy driving horses of Seattle look like a plugged dime. Walters and other city officials are very secretive as to just what Jimmy can do, but it has leaked out that in a trial heat recently he did a half in 1:15. He was shod for road work then and hitched to a road cart. Jimmy gets his name so the story goes, as a compliment to J. A. James, the Fourth Ward councilman.

STREETCAR MEN IN SEATTLE HAVE AID

Amalgamated Association of America Takes Up Their Cause.

(Journal Special Service.) SEATTLE, Wash., July 25.—The differences between the local streetcar men's union and the Seattle Electric Company have been brought to the attention of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees of America. Richard Cornelius, president of Division 248, of the San Francisco local union and deputy W. D. Mahon, of the international organization, arrived in Seattle today to take up the matter with the local union. Cornelius stands very high in the councils of the international union and in labor organizations in general, and has full authority from President Mahon to act in the local situation. The local union will hold a reception for him this afternoon at 2:30 and again in the evening at the union's clubrooms, 1550 Second avenue. Cornelius will make a thorough canvass of the local situation going into the details of the recent strike and the causes which led up to the present difficulties between employes and the company. He will advise as to the best course to pursue and his suggestions will be strictly followed by the men. Cornelius is a radical unionist and is eternally vigilant in his efforts to up-build organized labor. His presence here means that the streetcar men are going to insist on an immediate adjustment of relations between themselves and the Seattle Electric Company.

NEGROES IN REVOLT

(Journal Special Service.) CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., July 25.—The 125 negro convicts leased by the State of Georgia to the Georgia Iron & Coal Company at Coal City are still in revolt. Yesterday afternoon they resisted the punishment of one of their number and in the mixup that followed two convicts were killed by the guard. The remainder of the prisoners barricaded themselves and are being starved out.

WILL OF MRS. BLAINE

(Journal Special Service.) AUGUSTA, Me., July 25.—The will of the late Mrs. James G. Blaine was filed for probate here yesterday. She leaves an estate valued at $500,000. No public bequests are made, the property being divided between the testator's children and grandchildren. The instrument is dated at Washington, April 6, 1901.

FOR SYSTEMIC CATARRH

Peculiar to Summer Pe-ru-na Gives Prompt and Permanent Relief.

C. S. Rhoads, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "For the past two years I have hardly known what it was to have a sweet, restful night's sleep. Cares and overwork seemed to weigh me down more than it should or would had I been able to get my proper rest. My doctor was unable to help me and ordered me South for a complete rest and change. As this was simply out of the question, and as I had heard several of the men under me speak of how much Peruna had helped them, I decided to try it and am glad indeed that I did. Six bottles made a new man of me. I eat well, sleep well and get up feeling refreshed and rested. "My official duties are not half so hard and I certainly have good reasons to heartily endorse Peruna."—C. S. Rhoads.

Judge Wm. T. Zenor, of Washington, D. C., writes from 215 N. Capital street, Washington, D. C.:

"I take pleasure in saying that I can cheerfully recommend these of Peruna as a remedy for catarrhal trouble and a most excellent tonic for general conditions."—Wm. T. Zenor. Mrs. Amanda Morrill, 180 Reid street, Elizabeth, N. J., writes: "I have been sick over two years with nervous prostration and general debility, and heart trouble. Have had four doctors; all said that I could not get well. I had not walked a step in nine months, suffering with partial paralysis and palpitation of the heart every other day, and had become so reduced in flesh as to be a mere skeleton, weighing only 85 pounds. "Up to this date I have taken Peruna for seven months. It has saved my life as I can safely testify. I have not felt so well in five years, having walked over one mile without ill result, and have also gained thirty pounds since commencing to take Peruna. In fact, I cannot praise it too highly."—Mrs. Amanda Morrill. Peruna never fails to prevent systemic catarrh or nervous prostration if taken in time. Peruna is the most prompt and permanent cure for all cases of nervous prostration caused by systemic catarrh known to the medical profession. If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
