WHEAT YIELD IS MUCH IMPROVED

Sausages Are Showing Large tair.

from 10 to 15 per cent short of

While there are some sections of the Northwest that the yield of wheat during the coming season will not be nearly as large as that of former seasons, still late advices from the various sec tions tell a much different story than that which has been going the rounds for the past two months. A decided change for the better in the weather throughout the wheat belts will make vast difference in the coming yield from that which has been predicted by even the best experts in the business. In the Walla Walla section, in Washington, the change within the past two weeks has been wonderful to behold. and although all reports agree to the statement that the crop will show a shortage, still the percentage of loas will be greatly reduced. Harvesting operations are now under full swing. and the grain is yielding more bushels to the acre than even the largest of the bulls would dare hope. Improvement in the crop is also shown in the Palouse country, and all indications now point a yield of not less than from 10 to 15 per cent of that of normal years.

Valley's Prospects Are Better. Wheat prospects in the Valley are likewise showing an improvement, and although threshing operations have just opened, still what little ground has been gone over has shown the grain to be in excellent condition and the weight When the nearly up to the average. large increase in acreage in the Valley taken into consideration, it is quite probable that the yield this season will show up larger than that of last

Meanwhile Prices Look Higher.

Meanwhile Prices Look Righer.

Meanwhile all wheat prices are looking up, and the quotations on all grades are showing spirited advances. This is especially true of Valley grades. San Francisco millers are looking this way with longing eyes for supplies of soft wheat sufficient to tide them over until the new wheat is ready to be used independent of the old stock. Although no sales of local wheat have lately been made to the millers of the Golden Statestill the fact that they are in the market for stocks is causing the quotations on all lines to show up strong and further advances are predicted for the small remaining stores.

Today's Bail Arrivals.

The arrivals per rail from the South today consisted of one car of mixed watermelons and canteloupes from Sacramento, and one car of California yellow onions. Onions are advanced 20 cents a sack in the California markets, and the quotations in this city are likewise higher. The stock is quoted on the street today at 1% cents a pound. Onion stocks in the South are not as large as has been expected, and the good shipping varieties are very scarce. Onion prospects in Oregon are not so good, but with some warmer weather within the next week an improvement in the condition would be likely.

WAKES CHILD TO SEE HIM DIE

INFLUENCED TRADE Anton Gnos, a Sellwood Brewer, Rouses His Daughter at Night, Then Shoots Himself Dead Before Her Eyes.

> After having wakened a married daughter, Anton Gnos, a brewery work-man of Sellwood, held a pistol to his head and pulled the trigger. Death was evidently instantaneous Gnos had been complaining for some ime that he was insane. His family had suggested a medical examination, but this he violently objected to. "I know the doctors will send me to Salem, and I would rather kill myself than go there," he exclaimed.

Visitors at the Gnos home kept the family up until a late hour. Shortly after midnight Mrs. Richard, a man'ed daughter next door, was . wakened by the sound of pistol shots. Next came a knock at her door. She ran out in time to see Gnos walk away a few steps to bushels less than a week ago and a good the rear yard of his own home and fire deal less than a year ago. There was several pistol shots. She roused the family, who rushed to the spot where the man had fallen, finding him dead, with a bullet hole in one side of his head. The pistol was still tightly clasped in his hand.

> Twice Before Tried Suicide. This is the third time that Gnos has attempted to take his own life, Coroner Finley says. Once previously he tried to swallow a bottle of carbolic acid, but his wife knocked his hand aside in time to prevent the deed. Then he secured a pistol, but the weapon was taken away before he could kill himself. The last time he hid a pistol under his pillow and used it in his suicide

For the past seven year's Gnos had been employed in the Sellwood Brewery, where he was accounted an industrious and trustworthy workman. He was re lieved from duties for some time for business reasons and later taken back and it is thought that his suspension preyed on his mind. No Inquest Likely.

The body is in charge of Coroner Finley and it is hardly likely that an inquest will be held. The funeral has been arranged for Sunday. Gnos leaves a large family. Besides the two children at home and Mrs. Gnos. there is Mrs. Lizzie Regan of Hoquiam Wash .; Antone Gnos of Washougal, Or. and Mrs. Annie Dober of Roslyn, B. C. Gnos was also a member of the A. O. W., the Maccabees and the Swiss So-

ANOTHER MURDEROUS CONVICT CAPTURED

FOLSOM, Aug. 7 .- Seavis, the captured negro convict, was brought here from Auburn today.

Two convicts stole a horse and carriage belonging to Charles Darling three miles west of Folsom during last night. They left a tin can behind in which they had been cooking. These men are supposed to be Case and Fahey.

What puzzles the officers of this prison most is the fact that the outlaws do not attempt to leave the vicinity of the penitentiary, but, on the other hand, have scarcely traveled 20 miles in any one direction. The only man who seems to have ventured away is Roberts, who was captured at Davis-

In the capture of Seavis last night at Auburn the report has been received here that had it not been for a defective cartridge in the negro's gun, he might ave made his escape after murdering either Sheriff Keena or his deputy Coan.

Sheriff Keena received word from Newcastle last night that Seavis had taken a freight train at that place and was making toward Auburn. Keena and Coan were at the railroad tracks when the train pulled into the yards.

The convict crawled from underneath the train and was at once called upon to surrender. He replied by firing at Coan, but without effect. A second attempt to fire resulted in the non-explosion of the cartridge. At that moment both officers opened fire on the negro and wounded him in both legs. Seavis then begged that his life might be spared. He was shackled and brought to the city jail.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 7.—2:30 p. m.—Sheriff Reese has left for Yolo and is close on the track of Convibt Howard. He expects to capture him soon.

Seavis said at the penitentiary today that while he and Case were running up that while he and Case were running up that while he and Case were running up the surface of the converted to the city of the converted to the city is a converted to the converted to the city is a converted to the city is a converted to the converted to the city is a converted to the converted to cost $2.500.
