CZAR ASSUMES IRON ATTITUDE

He Forms New Vice Royalty in Siberia and China and Gives Admiral Alaxeiff Supreme Authority.

Russian Press Is Openly Criticizing the Attitude of United States in Regard to Manchurian Policy.

(Journal Special Service.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 13.—A ukase just signed by the Czar provides that the Amur districts of Siberia and the Kwang Tung territory of China will be formed under a special viceroyalty, the viceroy to have supreme civil authority.

The Novovremta has an editorial today on the attitude of America toward Russia, relative to opening the ports of Manchuria. It says:

"Whereas Russia has been accustomed to regard England as a permanent enemy, the situation is now changed, England having been replaced by America and Germany. The Americans can not see why the open door rule should apply to the Philippines as well as to Manchuria. America is now guided solely by commercial instinct and rides behind England. Japan, which is pushing England on to fatal foolishness, does young America's work as England did that of Germany in the Venezuelan affair."

Admiral Alaxeiff is appointed viceroy of the new province with supreme power over the army and navy to conduct diplomatic relations with all neighboring states.

TYPOS TORE UP NON-UNION BOOK

(Journal Special Service.)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—The session of the International Typographical Union was delayed a few minutes this morning until copies of a pamphlet that had been circulated throughout the hall, but which bore no union label imprint, had been destroyed. The pamphlet presented the employers' side of the controversy in Seattle and Spokane.

Driscoll addressed the meeting and declared the trouble at Seattle and Spokane was inexcusable. He said he came before the convention to condemn and criticise President Lynch's action. If arbitration had been adhered to there would have been no trouble. He wanted the union to avoid breaking contracts.

Lynch referred the charges to the proper committee and said he desired to be heard and assured the delegates that charges of broken faith were entirely without foundation.

STRANGE ACTION OF NURSE IN MONTANA

(Journal Special Service.)

EUGENE, Aug. 13.—News of the death of a former well known and respected resident of Lane county was received here yesterday in a letter from Butte, Mont. Anthony White Laughlin, known as "Grandpa" Laughlin, died at Butte Saturday morning, very suddenly, and was buried the same afternoon by order of his nurse, Miss Lillian Hare, who was his companion for several years previous to death. He had deeded all his property to her and she gave out the information that she was poor and had to go to work as soon as possible after the funeral. She is worth at least $10,000. No physician was called and the entire proceeding is said to be looked upon with suspicion. The authorities are working on the case.

BURYING THE DEAD OF TUNNEL HORROR

(Journal Special Service.)

PARIS, Aug. 13.—Nineteen more victims of the tunnel disaster were buried today at public expense. Very imposing was the ceremony. The Court Prefecture and the police were present, also the families of the deceased and many high officials of the city.

Premier Coombes delivered the funeral address.

FOLSOM CONVICTS STILL AT LIBERTY

(Journal Special Service.)

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 13.—No news of the convicts was received from Amador today. A rumor from Marysville states that Howard is traveling north dressed in a khaki suit.

Strain Too Great

Hundreds of Portland Readers Find It So.

The hustle and worry of business men.

The hard work and stooping of workmen.

The woman's household cares.

Are too great a strain on the kidneys.

Backache, headache, sideache,

Kidney troubles, urinary troubles follow.

A Portland citizen tells you how to cure them all.

Mrs. C. Richards, wife of C. Richards, painter, and living at 671 Market street, says: "Mr. Richards values Doan's Kidney Pills very highly. He has had attacks of kidney trouble for years. He is a painter by trade and there is no doubt but the turpentine has had more or less effect on his kidneys, as I believe most painters are more or less afflicted with kidney troubles. Last fall he had an acute attack and when Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to our notice I went to the Laue-Davis Drug Company's store, corner of Yamhill and Third streets, and got him a box. They so regulated his kidneys that relief came in a remarkably short time. I have heard him express his appreciation of this reliable remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name — Doan's — and take no other.

HOW AN ACCIDENT BROUGHT FORTUNE

CHARLES G. KILPATRICK.

A mathematical problem in which the subtraction of a leg from a human body resulted in fame and fortune is explained by Charles G. Kilpatrick, the one-legged bicyclist who performs wheel feats which would be impossible to the ordinary person in possession of both his nether limbs. A car wheel severed Kilpatrick's leg and a bicycle wheel has brought him worldly wealth. Without the first he feels confident he would never have secured the second.

"What caused the loss of the missing leg?" was asked of Mr. Kilpatrick last night, just before he mounted the flight of steps down which he coasts at breakneck speed at the Multnomah Club grounds.

"Well, it won't take long to tell the story," he responded, and the recital as given is reproduced here in Kilpatrick's own words:

"I was born and raised in Danville, Ill., and at an early age made up my mind to 'get busy' at any occupation which might enable me to lay the foundation of what I hoped, and still hope, some day to be a fortune.

Worked in Mines.

"Coal mining is about the main business around Danville, and so into that manner of work I turned my efforts. Although but 12 years of age at that time I was soon earning about $5 per day, and more than three quarters of it found its way into the bank every payday.

"One night, when returning from the coal mines, I undertook to 'hitch' onto a passing freight train, and in jumping on fell beneath the cars. The wheels passed over my leg quicker than I can tell it, and in due time the injury so received terminated in a surgical operation which left me with one limb with which to navigate.

"The thought of possibly becoming a subject of charity caused me to do some pretty heavy thinking, and I finally decided to invest enough of my savings as was necessary to make me the owner of a first-class bicycle.

"I soon had my wheel, and in the course of time had mastered enough tricks awheel to enable me to pose as a sure-enough fancy rider. Engagement followed engagement, for cycling then was all the rage, and soon my stock of tricks was a great deal more than I had ever dreamed of as among the possibilities.

"One day, while filling an engagement in Washington, D. C., the idea occurred to me that for the first man who would successfully ride down the steps of the capitol building a crown of more than ordinary value was awaiting, and I resolved to make the effort.

"One morning bright and early I went again as had then become my regular morning habit, and before I returned to my hotel I had actually made the ride down the capitol steps, more as a test or a sample, than ought else.

"All this time I kept mum about the test ride which I had taken, at sunrise the morning prior, and at last I publicly offered to wager as much money as anyone cared to bet that not only would I make the ride, but would also negotiate it successfully. At once the sporty element came at me with tens, twenties, fifties and hundreds, all of which I covered, and to cut a long story short, on time to the minute of that memorable Saturday afternoon I appeared on the scene in identically the same costume as I wear now when I make my ride down the stairs as you see them here. The dash down the stairs was made by me O. K., and since then, in addition to the many thousands of dollars won by me in wagers that day, I guess I have made as much as any one man in the world out of his own—call it what you will, but I will go back to the original mishap when I lost my leg in Danville, Ill., and term it—'fate.'"

SERIOUS ACCIDENT TO TOURIST PARTY

(Journal Special Service.)

ASHLAND, Or., Aug. 13.—A party of tourists, prominent residents of Hornbrook, returning to Ashland from Crater Lake and Pelican Bay, met with a serious runaway accident on the Dead Indian Hill, about nine miles from town, last evening, but fortunately all escaped severe injuries.

Mrs. H. Horn, Miss Grace Horn and Mrs. George Rymal occupied a surrey, which was driven by H. Horn. Ahead was a buggy occupied by Mrs. Albies Smith and Mrs. Thomas Jones. Without warning the neckyoke of the surrey team broke, and the horses started to run. Mr. Horn was unable to check them or to control the vehicle with the brake. Quickly they were upon the buggy, crashing into it with great force. Horses, vehicle and occupants were thrown violently to the ground, some of them going 30 yards down the mountain side from the road. The vehicles were smashed into pieces. The escape of the people from fatal injuries was miraculous. Mrs. Jones was painfully hurt about the head and neck, and Mrs. Smith suffered a sprained knee and injuries to the limbs, but none are severe. Other members of the party were more or less bruised and shaken up, but will be about within a few days.

COUNCILMAN IS ILL

B. P. Cardwell, councilman at large, is lying in a dangerous condition at his home, Fourth and Harrison streets with a severe attack of heart trouble. Mr. Cardwell went to the sea shore recently where he was seized with the malady. He became so ill that he returned home Monday and he has since been in a serious state. Today he was reported slightly better but his recovery is doubtful. Mr. Cardwell is a well known city official and one of the pioneers of the city.

WE CURE MEN!

F. L. TALCOTT, M. D.

CONTRACTED DISORDERS.

Every contracted disease is attended by grave dangers that nothing less than a thorough and absolute cure can remove. To take even the slightest chance in such cases is to invite lifelong misery. Men do not realize life as they should. A partial cure is followed by a chronic stage, with all its horrors, the same as though the disease had not been treated at all. We positively will not dismiss a patient until every possibility of relapse is removed. By our system of treatment every patient is soundly cured, and made as free from disease taint as he was before the ailment was contracted.
