A $50.00
Sewing Machine
for $18.75

Tomorrow and Balance of Week Only.

Fourth Floor—Take Elevator. The regular agency price, with the well-known name attached by which it is recognized in thousands of American homes, is $50. We are allowed to sell the same machine, without the maker's name, for $27.75, but on account of pressing need of room for a carload on the way from the factory, we offer this peerless machine this week only $18.75

It's ball-bearing, has drop head, the woodwork is of fine golden quarter oak, piano-finished, 5 drawers, double feed, and other special features of which space forbids mention. The sale on these machines at this ridiculously low price positively ends on Saturday at closing. Next week the same machine will revert in price to $27.75, and it's worth $50.

REFRIGERATORS Radically Reduced

The weather man has been so miserly and delinquent in handing out the warm days that he has cut our season almost in two for the selling of the splendid stock of food-preservers we selected for your buying long ago. Less Than the Old Regular Prices

To pay here now, for we own our new stock at the old prices, some even below, for we took the advice of our man on the spot—our New York buyer—thus saving for your saving now. We print a few prices below attached to values in the store:
