CALVIN HEILIG

MEAD OF THE HORTEWESTERN THEATRICAL ASSOCIATION, WELL KNOWN IN PORTLAND, BESTOWS HIS NAME ON ELLA LACKMUND OF TACOMA, WASH.

Wedding Performed at High Woon at the Besidence of J. W. Campbell by the Bev. A. A. Morrison-Ring Service of the Episcopal Church Used -Only a Few Immediate Friends of the Couple Present.

All the floral beauty that nature could bestow and all the magic of material environment that human handlwork could devise were blended in perfect harmony today to mark the wedding which united Calvin Heilig of this city and Ella Lachmund of Tacoma, Wash. Mr. Hellig is president and the organizer of the Northwest Theatrical association and is one of the foremost men in matters theatrical on the Coast. His bride one of the social leaders of Tacoma. The nuptials were of a quiet character and only the immediate friends and relatives were present at the home of J. W. Campbell, 201 Twelfth street, when Rev. A. A. Morrison of the Trinity ring service was used. Following the service Mr. and Mrs. Heilig left for a short trip to the Sound cities and will be at home to friends in this city after next week.

Episcopal church performed the service which made the two man and wife. The the bride and groom but there was quite place. a display of valuable wedding presents, nevertheless:

The wedding march was rendered by F. M. Griffin, conductor of the Baker Theatre orchestra, and the Spanish They performed brilliantly and the music was a feature of the

Mr. Heilig came to the Coast 12 years ago from the East, where he held a position in the paymaster's department of the Pennsylvania Railroad company. He visited his brother in Tacoma at a time when there was some trouble in the management of the Tacoma theatre and was asked to straighten out the difficulties and was finally made manager of the playhouse.

Two years later the management of the Marquam Grand theatre in this city was tendered Mr. Heilig and he accepted offer. In 1899 he organized the theatrical association of which he is now president, and has been an active leader in improving the condition of the drama here ever since. His marriage was s surprise to many of his friends, but they all join in their congratulations.

JAPANESE DID NOT KNOW PANTOMIME

Jim Fruya, a belligerent Japanese who is said to have cut a fellow countryman in an Everett street boarding house Wednesday night, was sent to jail for 29 days for carrying concealed weapons. longed to another man from the land of dled. the Mikado. Judge Hogue, to make the Ma in its sheath and then pushed it into his pocket asking him if he had had it there. At first Fruya thought the court was going to execute him and he looked frightened. When he saw no harm was intended he admitted he had carried the stilletto and he was sent to jail. Fruya is said to belong to a gang of blackmailwho have threatened the lives of local Japs if they do not furnish them

James H. Johnson, who is said to have collected tribute from several Chinese gambling houses under the representation that he would have them arrested, walved examination in the nolice court and was held to the grand jury. His ball was fixed at $100 cash. Johnson was arrested Thursday night after several Chinese had given him small sums of money, according to their story. Johnson says he simply borrowed it.

THE LA GRANDE LAND OFFICE NOT OPENED

(Journal Special Service.) Baker City, Sept. 19.—The land office at La Grande was not opened this morning because of an order received last night from Land Commissioner Rich-No explanation accompanied the order and it is presumed that it is the result of Senator Mitchell's stop in Washington on his recent trip East. The land office it is thought here, will not be opened again until the delegation from Oregon and the administration at Washington come together on the matter of an appointment for a successor for Register Bartlett. E. W. Davis of Union, who was recently appointed, has not received his commission

SENATOR GREEK ARRESTED.

Binghamton, N. Y., Sept. 19.—Senator George Green, one of those against indictments were returned by the federal grand jury for postal frauds Wednesday, was arrested here this

MATRON BROWN

DR. MEADE TESTIFIES THAT BOW-MAN CRILD WAS SUPPERING PROM LACK OF HOURISHMENT WHEN, IT WAS PLACED UNDER HIS CARE BY THE MOTHER.

Nurse Tells Harrowing Tale About Sad Condition of Crittenton Home Charge, and Mother Says She Was Not Allowed to Visit Her Baby at the Home-Infant Said to Have Turned Blue From Starvation.

Matron Frances Brown of the Florence Crittenton Refuge Home was acquitted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon of the charge brought by Carris Bowman, who accused her of ill-treating Miss Bowman's child.

the prosecution. Carrie Bowman, the mother of the child; Dr. Hamilton Margaret Spangle, a nurse, testified.

Miss Bowman stated that her baby was about 2 months old and was born at the Florence Crittenton home. The mother left the institution about three weeks after the birth of her child, and left it in charge of the head nurse. "I left it on Wednesday," said the witness, "and returned and saw my child probabilithe following Sunday. The baby apsummer. the following Sunday. The peared all right at that time."

The approaching wedding was known allow her to see the child and would to only a few of the intimate friends of not permit her to take it from the "The matron said she was afraid the baby was going to have diphtheria," said Miss Bowman, "and wouldn't even let me look at it. When at last I did get possession of the child it was wasted away to a mere skeleton. It was so weak it could hardly cry."

Attorney Bronaugh objected to the testimony of the witness. The examination was allowed to proeed, and when the witness declared that the child had been allowed to lie at the home in soiled clothes the district attorney broke out:

"And yet Mrs. Brown does not want an investigation of the home."
"I took my baby." continued Miss Bowman, "to a nurse, who refused to take it, as she claimed it would live only a few days. It was blue all over and was covered with sores." Dr. Meade said that when Miss Bowman first brought the baby to him he gave it only a casual examination and told the mother to bring it to him the next morning. "I suspected that the subject. However, he is any that the baby was suffering with diarrhoen," he said, "and found upon investigation that the child was afflicted with marasmus." This, the doctor said, was the cause of Asked to explain marasmus, he said: "Marasmus is, in other words, starva-

Upon cross-examination the witness admitted that even the children who re-ceived the best of care sometimes suffered from this affliction. However, he said that were a baby to receive immediate attention, and were its garments frequently changed, "scaldings" less likely to occur. Fruya told the court that the long Dr. Meade said he found no evidences dagger, which was found on him, be- of the child having been violently han-

Margaret Spangle went to the Critthe child was taken away. She said that black sores covered its body and it was dirty. For 13 or 14 years Margaret Spangle said she had followed the nursing profession. She was not a graduate of any hospital, she declared, but "guessed she knew something about taking care of

"Did you ever attend any cases of marasmus?" asked Mr. Bronaugh. "Six, and they all died," replied the

The state rested its case and the defense moved a dismissal. said the matter of the detention of the baby when its mother demanded it was a question not clear in his mind, and intimated that were it not for this inci-dent the motion of the defense would have been granted.

DEPARTMENT WANTS THE PANAMA CANAL

(Journal Special Service.)

Washington, Sept. 19.-Robert Fartaken in connection with Harran's visit ment of approximately $200,000. ast evening, leads to the belief that as effort is being made without, if not that the government has not facilities within the state department to bring the to handle the full amount called for in despite the adverse action of the Columbian congress. It is known Herran re-ceived important dispatches from his fered as much as the contract stipugovernment which were communicated lated. to the state department, but utmost secrecy prevails. It is understood the the contractors has been that their rock demands from the Panama company by breaks up into too many small pieces, Colombia have fallen from $10,000,000 and either causes the acceptance of to $3,000,000, which it is possible the rock varied from the requirements of Panama company will accept, and which the would treaty before Tuesday, the date when it expires by limitation. So far the company officials say, however, that they won't permit what they declare to be a plain case of hold up.

Preferred Stock Canned Goods. Allen & Lewis' Best Brand.

CRIPPLE'S SUFFERINGS TOUCH KIND HEARTS

a sufferer in Good Samaritan hospital, wish to help Mrs. Bruce. Mrs. Faulk-Bruce's charges for board and an attendant, so that the patient can be within reach of treatment all the time. Mrs. Bruce is a native of Denmark. where she was born 49 years ago. In 1890 she came to the United States, landing at San Francisco. In January. 1892, she married John Bruce. went to the Astoria hoggstal May 24, 1899, where she remained four months at a cost of more than $100 to her huswho found himself beset troubles. In the following September Mrs. Bruce returned to her home, where she remained for a year and a half, dur-ing which time she continued to grow thus has lost much of the time he might pastor of the Episcopal church of Astoria, Mrs. Bruce was admitted to Good Samaritan hospital. For months she was unable to move, and since her admittance every bit of food she has eaten has been administered by nurses.

A large hospital develops many pathetic cases, but that of the suffering invalid unable to do a thing for herself has drawn forth the sympathy of the attendants, used to such cases, and of a number of charitably inclined women, who have donated money, clothing and provided treatment for Mrs.

ing which time she continued to grow much worse.

Her husband, willing to do anything derson and Miss V. Zegg.

MORE DELAY IN

WILL BE UNABLE TO DELIVER BOCK FOR THE EXTENSIONS WITHIN THE TIME LIMIT SPECI-

Company Will Ask for Extension of Time in Which to Deliver the Material, But a Delay of from a Month to Six Weeks It Is Reported to Be Inevitable-The Situation Is Ex-

Under conditions now controlling the ompletion of contracts for the delivery to the government of rock for the jetty extensions, at the mouth of the river, a delay of not less than six months beyond the end of the long contract ap-The morning session was taken up by pears inevitable. The Northwest Construction Company, which is doing the work, will not be able to deliver the Meade, who attended the mother, and 160,000 tons of the short contract now in force before 30 to 45 days after the expiration of the time set, September 30. In the event the same proportional delay is experienced in the completion of the long contract for 475,000 tons, beginning October 1, the jetty rock will not have been all delivered until very late in the spring of 1904, with strong probability that it will be well into the

The government inserted in the con-Miss Bowman says that on Sunday.

August 30, she went to the home, and of annulling the contract, if the conMrs. Brown, the matron, refused to tractor fail to live up to the terms her to see the child and would thereof. Under the conditions, there fore, it rests with the engineering officer in charge to permit the Northwest Construction Company to proceed subtect to the distinct understanding that it will be impossible for the company to deliver the rock according to amounts stipulated in the specifications.

> Their Mouths Are Scaled. "Until we have submitted our report to the chamber of commerce," said George Taylor, chairman of the navigation committee, this morning, "we are unable to make any statement for publication. Our report is merely in the rough, and not yet drawn and finally vouched for and signed by the other members of the committee.

Alfred Tucker, another member of the committee, vouched Chairman Taylor's R. Livingstone, president of the chamber of commerce, peing out of town, W.

called on at his offices with Balfour. Guthrie & Co., and barely took time to say that he could say nothing on the However, it is expected that the cham ber of commerce will meet early next week, probably not later than Tuesday,

J. Burns of the board of trustees was with a hint that it might assemble in eculiar bluish color of the patient, special session on Monday, to hear the navigation committee's report The investigation, so far as can be ascertained from various sources, proceeds upon the assumption that there might have been made a series of mistakes, such as: Error on the part of the government engineers, in delaying getting at the work of drafting plans and specifica-

Error in placing in the contract requirements that were beyond the ability of the contractors to fulfill, as to time and quality of rock furnished.

Error by the contracting firm in signto do a certain thing that they could not The whole problem has resolved itself into these elements, according to previous statement by The Journal: Is the rock of the proper quality for su'h jetty work? contracts within reasonable time after the expiration of the time limit named therein? If not, can anything be done to improve the situation?

According to absolutely reliable in formation, it is learned that the jetty work will be delayed, under the present conditions of fulfillment, something like six months.

With from 30 to 45 days' delay in completing the short contract now in force, a contract calling for the delivery of 150,000 tons of rock, and a proportional delay in the filling of the long contract for 475,000 tons, beginning October 1, the delay indicated may be expected.

Some Technical Facts. The Northwest Construction Comment this morning a short time after The difference between these two bids faced the court again.

The Beaupres message was received. This was figured as a saving to the govern-

It was claimed by one rock contractor canal affair to a successful termination the contract, but such a thing has no yet come to the test, for the reason that yet come to the test, for the reason that the company has not at any time of-

The difficulty contended against by annulling of the contract, mean the ratification of the the annulling of the contract by the before Tuesday, the date when government. From inquiry by The Journal, such alternatives appear to on before the engineering department of the government at this time.

Differences of opinion come to light regarding the quality of the rock being delivered. The United States engineers contend that it is acceptable. skilled rock contractors, some who were interested and some who were in no manner interested in the letting of the contract, claim that the rock is not fit

"All we know," said a member of the chamber of commerce, "is that the prospect is for delay in improving the bar of the Columbia; that Portland, its tributary, must have that bar in proper condition as soon as possible; and that if it be possible to obtain more hast; action, we will obtain it. The situation is serious for the shipping. We mu t have easy access to the river. We propose to have it."

MARSHAL RICHARDS OF NOME IS FREE

Washington, D. C., Sept. 19 .- The preliminary report received from the department of justice today completely exonerates Marshal Frank Richards of the Nome district of irregularities in office, and for trying to bribe the grand jury and the ownership of the jail at Nome, and having charged the government rental. His accusers were unable to substantiate their statements. The investigation into the affairs of District Attorney Grigsby had not been com-pleted at 3 o'clock.

MERCHANTS DECLARE THEY WILL DO BUSINESS ON SUNDAY REGARDLESS OF READ OF THE POLICE DEPARTMENT.

Dealers Affected by the Order Claim Mrs. Micolai Says She Brank With Her That the Order Discriminates Against a Few and Consequently Is Invalid-Chief of Police Munt Said That Me Had Not Recalled the Order, But Declined to Talk Further.

What overtures have been made to Chief of Police Hunt to compel him to fered with the relations between her change his recent order regarding the closing on Sunday of second-hand stores and pawnshops is being asked.

with the announcement that any infraction of the order would be punished by immediate arrest. "Is this order to be permanent?" Chief

Hunt was asked at the time. "The police department never changes or rescinds its orders," replied the head of the police force.

The order caused a wall to arise from the second-hand dealers and pawnshop-keepers. They contended that the order of the police was class legislation and that they were being discriminated Their contention was that they against. were willing, and in fact very glad, to keep closed on Sunday, but they also wanted the clothing stores and other shops compelled to keep their doors

The first Sunday the new regulations were obeyed. Policemen warned several nerchants who were in their stores dusting their stock that the doors must be kept locked and no business transacted All adhered to the commands with fidel-

Last Sunday the new order from po lice headquarters was broken. Several pawnshops and second-hand stores along North Third street were open. Some of the larger merchants were not open for Tomorrow it is stated that all who wish will keep open and that conditions will henceforth be the same as they were heretofore.

A prominent pawnshop man was asked regarding the situation this morning He stated that the merchants of his class had no complaint whatever make. He said that business would go on tomorrow the same as usual. It was his opinion that the police had receded from their stand. He would not admit that there had been a formal revocation of the order, but stated that no one would make him close on Sunday.

"We intend to make a fight if the police tried to enforce the order." he said. but we won't have to. It looks as if the police are afraid to bring the matter to an issue, for there will be no trouble. We will simply keep open. For our part we would rather close on Sunday, but as the others keep open I have to Our objection to the chief's orders also. lies in the fact that it referred only to second-hand dealers and pawnbrokers and did not affect the clothing stores at

"Have you rescinded your orders re garding Sunday closing?" This question was directed to Chief of Police Hunt by a reporter for The Journal this morning. "No," he said, "but-well, I won't say anything."

"But you know, chief, do you not, that these shops were open last Sunday?" was asked "I don't know anything about it, and won't say a word. "Well, if you don't know that your order was being broken you could have learned it from The Journal of last Monday.

Capt. Gritzmacher stated that as far Are the contractors able to fill their as his knowledge went the blue-law order had not been revoked

MRS. ELLIOTT GIVEN A HEAVY SENTENCE

Ninety days in the county jail is the sentence imposed upon Mrs. Jennie Elliott, the Dallas woman who came to Portland with her 15-year-old daughter, Mabel, and went to the slums.

The case against the woman has been pending for over a week. She has been in fail nearly two weeks and since her incarceration she and her child returned to Dallas to testify against two saloon men who had sold liquor to the girl. Yespany receives 91 cents a ton for the terday the daughter was taken to one rock it is delivering at the land end of of the homes by Officer Hawley of the the jetty. They bid lower than Hale & Boys' and Girls' Aid society. This mornnum, representing the Panama Canal the jetty. They bid lower than Hale & Boys' and Girls' Ald society. This morn-company, called at the state depart-

The attorney gave notice of appeal and court and it is expected will furnish the bond for his wife's release.

IS SERIOUSLY HURT

Paul Silkworth, the 7-year-old son of Lewis Silkworth of 155 Forty-fifth street East, was seriously injured yesterday afternoon by a grocery wagon belonging to the firm of Lynch on Fifth avenue.

With several companions Paul was riding on the wagon in Tabasco addition when his foot slipped from the brake shoe and he fell under the wheels. As he fell his right leg was doubled under his body and was broken in three places The boy was carried to his home and medical attention secured. The doctors state that the boy's in juries while painful, need not permanently disable him.

MRS. J. T. ROSS DIES AT ASTORIA

Mrs. J. T. Ross, wife of the senior member of the firm of Ross & Williams in Astoria, died at 2 p. m. today at Astoria of peritonitis. She had been ill only a few days. Mrs. Ross was well known in Portland.

DYNAMITE KILLS MINERS.

(Journal Special Service.) Wilkesbarre, Pa., Sept. 19 .- A dynamite explosion occurred in the Laurel hill mine this morning and two bodies have been brought to the surface. A tritis. She wrote "Pa Gloogen" stories number of other miners are still un- in the Century magazine, which will be accounted for.

BABY'S TROUSERS

BAND DID NOT BUY MEE HLEVEN SILE WAISTS, BUT HE MAY HAVE ADDED ONE PAIR OF INPART TROUSERS TO WARDROBE.

Sen-in-Law, but Thought He Overdid vised Mrs. Davis to Leave Him, but Says She Warned Davis to Change Mis Ways-Witness Tells of an "Incident."

Whether Mrs. Hannah Nicolai interson-in-law, Dr. John H. Davis, and his wife, Lucy; whether Dr. Davis drank excessively and gambled, and whether he Three weeks ago the ukase went forth failed to support his wife and child, were three matters which were offered for the entertainment of the spectators at the trial of the Davis-Nicolai suit this morning.

At 11:20 this morning Mrs. Nicolai, mother of Mrs. Davis and defendant in the case, was released from the stand after four wearying hours of direct and cross examination. She was called as a witness late yesterday afternoon and resumed the stand today and gave some very interesting testimony. She said she had given Davis $250 and paid many of his bills. During the five years he was married to her daughter he had bought his wife only one dress. All the others were bought by the witness Davis was frequently intoxicated both in Portland and in Sumpter.

On cross-examination by Mr. Lord. Mrs. Nicolai admitted that she had drunk two cocktails with Davis in Sumpter. She did not object to him personally, but she did object to his habits. He drank and he could not be found at his office during business Before she left for California in August, Davis was drunk and his head was resting on the table.

"Was it clear of the soup bowls?" asked Lord with apparent great solici-

"It was," admitted the witness "You objected to his drinking?" "I did." "Yet you went to the Fredericksburg and Quelle and drank beer with him and your daughter?" "I went to the Fredericksburg with him," said the witness hesitatingly, "but I drank lemonade. I took no beer." "When he lived at your house, was he

"He was." "Didn't you a: I Lucy send him out frequently in search of your husband, A. L. Nicolai, in the North End?"

"We did not. "Didn't you tell a Mrs. Jacobson that, when Johnny was in Arizona, your husband would go there, start a saloon, take Johnny as a partner and have Lucy keep books?

"I did not. John had sent Lucy an insulting note and she refused to see him. I never advised her to go to Arizona and I never said one word that would separate them. Even when he had that experience at Salem, I did not say a word to her, but I warned him to be careful.

"When you took Lucy to California, did not Anthony Neppach, business manager for your husband, tell you that Lucy should be careful what steps she took in the matter of the trin?"

"He did. But Lucy was determined to so and quest. Johnny had written an insulting letter and when she received it she sat down and cried. Then she wanted to come with me." The cross examination was completed at 10:20 o'clock, and then Mrs. John H. Davis, attractive both in dress and personal appearance, followed her mother on the stand. She confirmed all their marriage and after the birth of their boy. Once he came home at 5 a.m. When she was sick the doctor told her she was worried and asked the cause, but she refused to tell him. "I remonstrated and told him ought to stop drinking and work at his office," she added faintly.

"Pretty weak voice alongside what she used to have," remarked Dr. Davis in an undertone. "But," she went on, not hearing but probably guessing the remark of her husband, seated 30 feet away, "he said he didn't have to work hard; that he'd get all his father had." "The Davises are the largest property owners in Albina," explained Attorney Paxton to the jury. "Johnny came home drunk one night at Sumpter and I asked him to stop the habit," continued the witness. told me that if I did not like it I could the court fixed the bond at $200. W. Q. get out and go home. I never advised Elliott, husband of the woman, was in him to play poker, but I did ask him not to gamble. He gave me a $10 check one Christmas and then asked me not to cash it, as the money had been at-This, I learned, was not so." "What did he do on Sundays?"

"In Portland, he spent the mornings hall. in his office, the afternoons in saloons, and in the evening he took me to the theatre."

Your mother gave you money?" "Yes; $150. I gave it to John, who put it in the bank, and I never saw it He also mortgaged our house at 198 Russell street for $650, but never received any of the money. "He bought your clothes during the past five years."

"that he did buy a pair of trousers for baby." "Then he didn't buy you 11 waists?" "No. I have only one silk waist in the house. He may have bought them for some one else." "You went to Seattle with him?" "I did. He told me to 'dig up' $10 and go along, and I 'dug it up.'" Mrs. Melinda Athoms, an elderly domestic, who was employed by the famthe of Gus Clemmons, at 198 Russell street, testified that she had seen Davis and Mrs. Clemmons in a compromising attitude. "Been telling the story ever since, I appose," said Attorney Caples.

"Whenever occasion requires and l as exchanging jokes with a friend." "Do you tell such jokes on yourself?" "No, not like that."

NOTED WRITER DEAD. (Journal Special Service.) Louisville, Ky. Sept. 19.-Elizabeth

Cherry Waltz, a story writer of national eputation, died this morning of gasissued next month in book form

THE ONLY GIFT CASTORIA

The Kind You Have Always Bought, and which has been in use for over 30 years, has borne the signature of and has been made under his perhat H. Flitching sonal supervision since its infancy.
Allow no one to deceive you in this.

All Counterfeits, Imitations and "Just-as-good" are but Experiments that trifle with and endanger the health of Infants and Children-Experience against Experiments

What is CASTORIA

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is Pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotio substance. Its age is its guarantee. It destroys Worms and allays Feverishness. It cures Diarrhoea and Wind Colic. It relieves Teething Troubles, cures Constipation and Flatulency. It assimilates the Food, regulates the Stomach and Bowels, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Panacea-The Mother's Friend.

CASTORIA ALWAYS

Bears the Signature of The Kind You Have Always Bought

In Use For Over 30 Years.

DRINK THE OLD AND RENOWNED

GAMBRINUS LAGER BEER

SEND ORDERS FOR BOTTLED BEER TO OFFICE, 793 WASHINGTON ST.

TELEPHONE No. MAIN 49.

BOTH PHONES.

TWO CRIMINALS ARE GIVEN TWENTY LASHES

(Journal Special Service.) Victoria, B. C., Sept. 19.-Leonard and Lorenzo, the two criminals who held up the bartender of the Western saloon here a few nights ago, were sentenced this morning. Both pleaded guilty and were apparently satisfied with the length of their sentence. Leonard, who was the chief criminal, and held the revolver at the bartender's head, got seven years, while the other received six years. Both are sentenced to 20 that Mrs. Nicolal said and added much more. She said that Dr. Davis begin them dismay. Leonard has served five staying out late at night soon after years in the Walla Walla penitentiary for a holdup game, and is believed also

Leonard is Desperate.

and J. H. Burnett.

to have served a sentence in California.

He goes under the aliases Billy Dunn

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 19 .- Leonard. who was convicted today for the hold up of a bartender, proved his desperate character by what he admits was an attempt to break jail at the police lockup. He secured a poker at the bar-racks and secreted it in his cell. Upon it being discovered he admitted he intended to overpower the jailer and make

ROBERTS' HEARING RESUMES TODAY

This is the day for the defense in the hearing of Special Policeman J. Roberts. charged with grafting. The inquiry was commenced for a second time this after- for the presenting of many spectacular noon in the committee rooms at the city tion and Chief Hunt claims to have affidavits that one "Jack Hoare, a special deputy sheriff of the North End, had sworn personal vengeance against him." It is not known whether the officer will be summoned, however, as the chief intimated that such was not his desire. The peculiar feature of Wednesday's hearing was the fact that Chief Hunt "One suit. Mother and Mrs. Davis took the stand to answer questions. The bought the rest. I believe," doubtfully, mayor declared that if there was any "that he did buy a pair of trousers for grafting going on in the department he wished to know of it.

TO PAY FOR ALDER STREET IMPROVEMENT

A call was issued today for a special session of the city council, to meet next Wednesday and pass an ordinance covering the assessments for the Alder street asphalt paving improvement. The contractors, The Trinidad Asphalt Paying company, have finished their work. and the passing of the assessment ordinance is necessary before they can be

City Engineer Elliott has inspected the street and pronounces it a fine piece of work. The total cost is in the neighborhood of $30,000. A cement sidewalk was laid in connection with the paving of the roadway and the street is now said to be one of the finest in the city.

DEATH OF MRS. J. T. BOSS.

(Journal Special Service.)
Astoria, Or., Sept. 19.—Mrs. J. T.
Ross. Astoria's sweet contralto singer. ACQUITTED OF ARSON.

DYNAMITE IN OFFICE.

Consumery in the case against Robert Gossman, accused of having attempted to burn the house of D. C. Burns, requantity of dynamite, capped and wired, was discovered this morning in a corner of the custom have on time from Sattle.

Rosa Astoria's sweet contracto singer, died at noon today of peritonitis, after an illness of a few weeks. Mrs. Ross was one of the most popular young many possibly open their return customent trons of this city, and her untimely death has cast a gloom ever the community. Mr. Ross and three children ratiroad company to bring the company to be company to bring the company to bring the company to be company to be

$16,780 VERDICT FOR FRED MARRIOTT

San Francisco Editor Gets Resvy Dame ages for Being Assaulted, But Served Notice of Appeal

(Journal Special Service.) San Francisco, Sept. 19. — The jury which is trying Thomas Williams and Truxton Beale for shooting Fred Marriott, the editor, a year ago, for publishing a scurrillous article about young woman who afterwards became Mrs. Beale, badly wounding him, brought in a verdict for $16,780. Marriott sued for $100,000 and his attorney

WILL STUDY FIRE WORKS IN THE EAST

has announced that he would appeal the

In order that he may study the successes and failures of the pyrotechnic displays given at the various world's fairs held in the Eastern cities, Director, General H. W. Goode, of the Lewis and Clark exposition, will leave this evening for an extended trip throughout the East and South. It is said that one of the greatest attractions for visitors at a great fair is the spectacular effects that are displayed at night. These attractions draw the crowds that visit the grounds during the evening. Guild's lake, around which are to be erected the great 1905 fair buildings, is said to offer a fine opportunity exhibits.

Mr. Goode has planned to visit officials The defense has intimated frequently of the expositions held at Chicago, that petty spite was back of the prosecu- Omaha, Buffalo and Atlanta. He will alo spend several days in Philadelphia. where he expects to call on Dr. W. P. Wilson, director of the various commercial museums that have recently been established in the Quaker City. Dr. Wilson is also the chairman of the board that will have charge of the Philippine exhibit at the St. Louis fair. Through the Lewis and Clark fair representative at St. Louis, Theo Hardee, Dr. Wilson expressed a desire to meet Mr. Goode and discuss with him the Philippine exhibit to be made at the 1905 fair. It is thought that the St. Louis Philippine display may be transferred to Portland, and many additions made to it before the Lewis and Clark exhibition opens. Mr. Goode will spend a week or more in St. Louis on his way home.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON IS GETTING BETTER

Chicago, Sept. 19 .- Sir Thomas Lipton continues to improve this afternoon, but he is a .... secluded by his physiclans. Hundreds of telegrams are arriving almost hourly, asking the popular man's condition.

NEGROES STEAL DIAMONDS.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Sept. 19.—Timothy Williams, and Charles Gates, two negro valets, were arraigned this morning for stealing $500 worth of diamonds off John W. Gates' steam yacht. MAY PLAY TOMORROW.

Since the publication by The Journal | for the comfort of his wife, mortgaged of the pathetic story of Mrs. J. Bruce, his little home for $200, which he has a sufferer in Good Samaritan hospital, since been unable to pay, although the many inquiries have been pouring in on Mrs. Faulkner, the nurse in charge of the firm charge of the firm charge paragraph who for his wife and children, he has had to her case, from charitable persons who remain home for weeks at a stretch and ner is ready to give her services free if have been earning wages. a fund can be provided to pay Mrs. Through the efforts of Rev. Mr. Short,