

THE POPULAR NEWSPAPER

OF THE OREGON COUNTRY

Oregon Daily Journal

THE DAILY JOURNAL WITH HER OWN WINGS SHE FLIES

ALSO... Weekly, and Semi-Weekly

THE DAILY JOURNAL

TO ANY ADDRESS BY MAIL

One year . . . $4.00
Six months . . . $2.25
Three months . . . $1.25

The Semi-Weekly Journal

304 Copies during the year, all the news of the week, full market reports, special articles, per annum $1.50

The Weekly Journal

A splendid paper, sixteen to twenty pages, all the news of the week; full market reports; special articles; per annum $1.00

ALL OF THE NEWS
—AND—
PLENTY OF SNAP!

1903				OCTOBER			1903
SUN.	MON.	TUE.	WED.	THU.	FRI.	SAT.
Full Moon 5th	Last Quar. 13th	New Moon 19th	1st Quar. 27th	1	2	3
4	5	6	7	8	9	10
11	12	13	14	15	16	17
18	19	20	21	22	23	24
25	26	27	28	29	30	31

Hundreds of Subscribers Write:

"I like The Journal."
"I am pleased with your paper."
"Never saw a better looking paper, or a more interesting one."
"Delighted with The Journal; it is clean, bright, newsy. My wife and daughter enjoy it, too, and I want it always."
"My young son has demanded of me that I subscribe for The Oregon Daily Journal. He likes your children's page and the colored comic pages, and so do I—they are healthy reading."
"I enclose money for The Journal. Your fashion page and social news are worth the price of the paper to any woman."
"To a farmer or merchant, your market page is worth its weight in gold, so I want The Journal, every issue of it."
"Please find enclosed my check. Send me The Daily Journal for one year. The 'sporting news' of your paper is reliable, complete and comprehensive. Until The Journal came under its present management, no Portland newspaper supplied the 'sporting news.' The Journal sets the pace."
"As a taxpayer, a business man and a burden carrier, I like the stand of The Journal on public matters. I like its tone, its spirit of fairness, but I enjoy its fearlessness and independence better than all, for it DOES HEW TO THE LINE, and lets the chips take care of themselves."
Such are the expressions of some of those who have subscribed for and read The Journal.
Suppose you try the paper! Take it, support it, and The Journal "swears by the eternal" to be true to Oregon—to the masses of men—believing in the voice of the people—equality of opportunity—equal rights to ALL men!

The DAILY JOURNAL ON SATURDAYS

Carries a "Children's Page," by famous writers; a Fashion Page, containing the latest news of interest to women; two comic pages, carrying the productions of the wits of "newspaperdom," printed in colors and superbly illustrated; as well as containing the general news, editorial comment, society news, the latest sporting news, news of the stores and shops, crowded in twenty-four pages.

The Daily Journal of other days of the week is a newspaper of the modern sort in make-up and interest, carrying full press reports of general news, specials from The Journal's special writers and correspondents, full reports of home and foreign markets; the "sporting news," specially edited and written; coast news, and state news.

ALL POSTMASTERS AND NEWS DEALERS ARE AGENTS

Agents deliver The Daily Journal by carrier in all towns within the boundaries of "Where Rolls the Oregon;" and in towns where there are no agents already. The Journal desires an agent, to whom liberal terms are given. Address,

THE JOURNAL,

P. O. Box 121. Phone Main 500. Fifth and Yamhill Sts., Portland, Or.

The above calendar will appear in The Journal once a month. Paste or hang the sheet on the wall, as it will prove most convenient.