

NEW ORDINANCE NOT EFFECTIVE

ON THE FIRST TRIAL THE NEW THEATRE SCALPING LAW PROVES A FAILURE AND THE OFFENDER IS SET FREE—ORDINANCE WILL BE CHANGED.

According to the decision of Judge Hogue in the municipal court this morning, E. M. Fouch was not indicted under the ordinance...

The business of this defendant was not to sell tickets. He went to the theatre and waited his time to purchase for others...

destroying contaminated books." Continues Dr. Newman: "In many cities of the East this state of affairs does not exist, but in Pacific coast towns and cities the practice is the same as in Spokane. I attribute the loss of many a little life to the pernicious practice.

Repairs to the steamer Regulator, which collided with a ship in the harbor a week ago, have been completed and she went out on her regular run to the Dalles this morning.

TO SPEND $60,000 ENLARGING QUARTERS

Evidence of the steady growth of Portland along commercial lines are shown on all sides by the framework of new buildings in all processes of construction. New streets are being opened up and old ones are undergoing improvements.

One of Portland's largest mercantile concerns, the house of Olds, Wortman & King, at Fifth and Washington streets, is shortly to undergo alterations that will give it an added floor space of 30,000 square feet, and calls for the expenditure of $60,000.

OPERA TROUPE SANG LULLABY TO BRIDE

It is not often that a newly married couple are started on their first journey by the serenading of a comic opera company, but that is just what happened to a Portland bride and groom at the Union depot Wednesday evening.

The 11:45 train to Seattle was held for the "Prince of Pilsen" company that had just finished three nights in Portland, and when the gay singers reached the station at the midnight hour they found the place covered with rice, old shoes and

WAITING NOW FOR WILLIS' REPLY

GRIVANCE COMMITTEE OF THE STATE BAR ASSOCIATION PROCEEDS IN ITS INQUIRY INTO THE CHARGE OF PERJURY AGAINST ATTORNEY GENERAL CRAWFORD.

The grievance committee of the state bar association, which will investigate the charges of perjury made by Judge W. R. Willis against Attorney-General A. M. Crawford, has notified Judge Willis that he will be allowed 10 days from last Saturday in which to reply to the defense submitted by Mr. Crawford.

The precise nature of the attorney-general's defense has not been made public, although it is known, of course, that he denies the charge. In published interviews he has spoken of the accusation as an old matter that has been before the courts three times already. While it is a fact that the suit in which the alleged perjured testimony was given was tried in the circuit court and then went to the supreme court, and that another suit growing out of the same cause of action was afterward tried in the lower court, the specific charges of perjury against Attorney-General Crawford has never been investigated by any court. The original controversy between Willis and Crawford has, therefore, been adjudicated, but there has never been any judicial inquiry to determine whether or not the testimony of the attorney-general was false.

TAMMANY MAKING A FIERCE FIGHT

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Oct. 26.—A whirlwind campaign is marking the close of the mayoralty contest. Several thousand meetings are scheduled for this week. Indications are for an exceptionally close contest. All bets today are even money.

SULTAN VERY SICK MAN.

(Journal Special Service.) Paris, Oct. 26.—The Figaro today prints a Constantinople dispatch saying that the sultan is ill and fainting yesterday, since which time his condition has caused grave fear.

EFFICIENT PIETY IS PRESIDENT'S THEME

Washington, Oct. 26.—Seven thousand people listened to an address delivered by President Roosevelt yesterday afternoon in the open-air missionary meeting held at Mount St. Albans. The services were conducted in the cathedral grounds of St. Peter's and St. Paul's. Mrs. Roosevelt, Admiral Dewey and Brigadier-General Wilson accompanied the president.

"We have the right to claim for you not merely that you shall have heart in your work, but that you shall give the best that your minds have to it also. The friends of the good need to remember that in addition to being decent they must be efficient—that good intentions cannot be effective, that you shall give the best that your minds have to it also. We must have the purpose and the intention. We have the right to ask that in addition to being harmless a man shall be wise and strong enough to aid his neighbor."

"We should pray to be ready, to accomplish cheerfully our duties; we should try ourselves in every way to accomplish our mission. Small is the use of the man who is not a useful friend. The state will be saved if the Lord puts it into the heart of the people to do their part."

Absent-Minded. From the Brooklyn Eagle. A woman in one of the Long Island towns was met hurrying on her way to church with a piece of bacon clamped in her gloved hands. When her attention was called to the funny appearance she made, she said, being a German: "Ach, mein Gott! Und I haf put mein hymn-book to cook with der cabbage in!"

BROTHER WITNESS AGAINST SISTER

REPUTATIONS TORN TO RAGS IN TESTIMONY GIVEN DURING THE SUIT BROUGHT BY BELLE MUNSON FOR DIVORCE FROM MANUEL MUNSON.

Reputations were torn to tatters in the testimony in Belle Munson's suit for divorce from Manuel Munson before Circuit Judge Sears today. She charges cruelty. In a cross complaint he names Louis Reunan, a butcher, at 42 Sixth street, as co-respondent.

The star witness for the defense was A. E. Nutt, a brother of the plaintiff, who told the court that he believed his brother-in-law to be in the right, and that his sister was not entitled to a divorce—that if she would behave herself, her husband would provide her with a comfortable home.

DUNSLON CLEARS FOR ALGOA BAY

Thirteen Grain Carriers in River, All but three of Which Are Chartered—Very Few of Them Working on Account of Shortage of Grain at Warehouses—Big Fleet of Lumber Carriers and Coasters in Port.

The British bark Dunslon has cleared for Algoa Bay, South Africa, with 90,720 bushels of wheat and 3,400 barrels of flour having a total valuation of $84,924.

The vessel left down the river yesterday in tow of the Harvest Queen. Capt. Nichol, her commander, will leave for Astoria this evening by rail to join his crew, and expects to put to sea tomorrow.

The Dunslon arrived in port on September 25, bringing general cargo to Kerr, Gifford & Co.

About Wednesday the County of Inverness is expected to complete her cargo. She is being loaded by the Portland Flouring mills, and her destination is also South Africa.

At present there are 13 grain carriers in the river, only three of which and possibly two on the free list. These are the British ship Red Rover, the Italian ship Ninfa and the French ship Berangere. It is reported that the latter is chartered, but no confirmation of the matter can be had. Local shippers profess to know nothing about it.

A few of those engaged for outward cargo are working but a greater number is lying idle on account of a shortage of grain at the docks.

There are about a dozen coasters and lumber carriers in port. The fleet will be increased tonight by the arrival of the steamers Aberdeen, Despatch and Nelson, which reached Astoria at an early hour this morning.

It is believed that several additions will be made at once to the regular number of vessels which are engaged in the lumber trade between here and southern coast points on account of the higher freight rate which will go into effect on the Southern Pacific railroad next month. The tariff is to be increased from 45 to 75 per cent per thousand feet, which will be almost twice as much as the rate charged on the water route.

BRIDGE FOREMAN DROWNS. (Journal Special Service.) The Dalles, Or., Oct. 26.—William J. Slemm, foreman of the bridge gang on the Columbia River and Northern railroad, was drowned near tunnel No. 2, two miles below Rowena, Or., yesterday afternoon. His body was brought to Crandall & Burgett, undertakers of this city, where an inquest is being held. He had on his person $5,115.95 in certificates of deposit and $50 in cash and silver. His brother lives in Menominee, Mich., and he was telegraphed this morning. The accident occurred while transferring cars across the river to the Lyle railroad.

MADE MILLIONS IN THE COPPER DEAL

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Oct. 26.—Seventy-five million dollars is estimated by Wall Street wise ones as the profits from the group of capitalists recently made by the manipulation of the Amalgamated Copper stock. It is said that the Rockefeller group of millionaires have expended most of the profits in the deal in buying stock of the Amalgamated company. The general public, which bought above par on representations that it was Standard Oil property, lost more than $140,000,000.

ARABS REVOLT AND WIPE OUT REGIMENT. London, Oct. 26.—A dispatch from Constantinople states that the Pasha military commandant and governor of the province of Asir on the coast of Arabia have been killed in the revolt of two Arab tribes against the cattle tax. A thousand Turkish troops are reported killed and the remainder routed. Fresh troops under Hady Pasha have been dispatched to the scene.

A DESPERATE ROBBERY. (Continued from Page One.) among the broken furniture when he arrived after the robbery. Turned Toward Portland. The bandits left town on horses, going south, but it is believed they turned toward Portland. It is surmised that they did not go by way of Ballston for so soon as the alarm was given some of the farmers near Ballston stretched a rope across the road and guarded it with rifles but no one passed that way.

Seen at Hillsboro. Hillsboro, Or., Oct. 26.—Two strange men passed through here at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon on horseback, inquiring the way to Tillamook by way of Sheridan. One was of smooth face and the other had a heavy drooping mustache. One rode a gray horse and the other a buckskin. The police are trying to connect them with the Sheridan bank robbers.

CHINOOK COMING SOON. The dredger Chinook, which is to be used in dredging the bar at the mouth of the Columbia, will arrive from Mars Island about November 1 or 4, according to Major Langitt of the government engineers. The Chinook was formerly known as the Grant, but the name was recently changed to prevent confusion. The dredger is expected to be of great service in removing the present obstructions to navigation at the mouth of the river.

Supreme Court LEAVES TAX CASE

HANDS DOWN FOUR DECISIONS. BUT MULTINOMAH TAX CASE IS NOT INCLUDED—MENDENHALL WILL CASE DECIDED FOR PLAIN-TIFFS.

Salem, Oct. 26.—The supreme court today handed down four decisions. The Multinomah tax case was not decided. The opinions are:

E. and E. R. Mendenhall, respondents, against Rush, Mendenhall, executor, appellant, from Multnomah; Fraser and George Judges; affirmed. Opinion by Wolvelton. This was a suit to set aside the will of the mother of the plaintiffs. The court holds the will was improperly executed by failing to the witnesses attending before the testator had signed the document.

Saul Silverfield, respondent, against Sigmund Frank, appellant, from Multnomah; Cleland Judge. Affirmed. Opinion by Bean. Suit was to enjoin the defendant from building a contract wherein he had agreed to erect a certain fence on property adjoining the plaintiff. The court holds that the fence erected was a violation, and an injunction was ordered issued.

Joseph Hestay, respondent, against O. H. Reiger, appellant, from Multnomah; George Judge. Affirmed. Opinion by Chief Justice Moore. This suit was to recover $250, the agreed balance due plaintiff for selling his interest in a store. The case originated in a justice court, the plaintiff securing a verdict. On an appeal in the circuit court this judgment was affirmed and the supreme court also finds for the plaintiff for $250, interest and costs.

Arthur Heiny and others, appellants, from Multnomah; Sears Judge. Affirmed. Opinion by Chief Justice Moore. The suit was for the recovery of land, the alleged property of the plaintiff. He secured judgment in the justice court. The case was appealed to the circuit court, when the appeal was dismissed on motion of the plaintiff. The motion was attacked by the defense as improperly drawn, but the supreme court holds it sufficient and affirms the decree.
