THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, SATURDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 7, 1903.

осіету boutonniere and Dr. McNeer wore lilles groom being served from china used at of the valley. the wedding of the bride's grandmother. Punch was served in a cozy nook in the

The beautiful and impressive doubleing ceremony was performed by Dr. stairway by a beyy of daintily gowned Talbott. The song "Always" was young ladies, while Mrs. Alan Wetch blayed softly during the service and at Smith presided in the diningroom. The conclusion Mendelssohn's March bridal party took their places in the rolled triumphantly forth. Mrs. Thomas pa.lor, while Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Forbes received in the reception hall resided at the organ. The color scheme was white and gold, about 300 guests who called during the hose being the colors of the class of evening. A very pretty wedding took place at 98 of the Woman's college of Baltimore, of which Miss Bennett is a memper, and the lily of the valley was the the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luedke, East ower of the Alpha Phi Fraternity. Nineteenth street, where Miss Lisette Immediately following the benediction Hofman was united in marriage to Mr. flower of the Alpha Phi Fraternity. the party drove to the residence of the bride's parents, 475 Tenth street, where tor of the First United Brethren in Christ, officiating. delightful reception was held. house was lavishly decorated, the

the

The house was decorated without with hall being a marvel of beauty in rede Japanese Einterns, and within the walls cosmos, and here breakfast was served, were banked with autumn leaves and The dining room was in white and gold, holly, and a beautiful marriage alfar on the table a brass kettle, veiled with covered with smilax and white ribbons tulle and filled to overflowing with yelannounced the center of ceremonies. ow chrysanthemums made a very effect. Every nook and corner was adorned tive centerpiece. The room was lighted with a profusion of evergreens and with white candles in brass candle- floral streamers. sticks, and the color scheme was carried The bridal party met the clergyman out in the refreshments of ices and at the altar, with two little flower girls Wilder's orchestra, hidden heleading, followed by the bride and groom hind a screen of paims, rendered a de-lightful program during the evening and the bridesmaid, Miss Marie Ad-The drawingroom was in white cos-mos, intermingled with maidenhair accent to the march and tone to the ferns, and delicious punch was served impressive marriage ceremony. ere at the pleasure of the guests, In one of the front rooms upstairs. Anna Luedke, after which Miss Luedke tere at the pleasure of the guests. which was elaborately decorated with served an elaborate dinner in true Gerbride roses and maidenhair ferns, the man style, to the satisfaction of the gifts were displayed. Beautiful and ex- choicest palate. The feasting and conpresents were received from gratulations concluded in a shower of friends far and wide, many of which rice and shouts of "Long live the bride were cut glass and silver. The presents and groom." The bride was attired in from the Eastern friends were sent di- a charming costume of tan crepe rect to their home in Baltimore. About chine, with orange blossoms in her hair, 300 Portland friends attended the re- and carried a bouquet of bride roses. Miss Marie Miller caught the bride's eption Dr. McNeer is a prominent physician bouquet. of Baltimore, Md., while the bride is a Mr. and Mrs. Sester will be at home well-known and popular young lady of to their friends, near Gresham, after Portland November 9.

Dr. and Mrs. MoNeer, tert Wednesday via Canadian 'Pacific for their new home At 429 East Burnside street, Wednesin Baltimore. They will visit places of day, November 4, at 8 p. m., occurred interest on the way and will be at home, 1127 North Calvert street, Baltimore, Petrson and Sadie Neele and Otis Peterson and Sadie Neale, and Otis Md. on Wednesdays, after January 15. Welch and Mattie F. Neale, being the profusely decorated with vines, ferns The Mizpah Presbyterian church was and white chrysanthemums. the scene of its first wedding on Wednes-day evening, when Emma May. youngest Anna Welch the bridal party entered daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stan-burroligh, was united in marriage to arm of "her father, and Miss Mattle Nathan Mark Montgomery. upon the arm of her brother. The pretty little church lent itself Wm S. Gilbert performed the ceremony, graciously to the simple decorations of after which the guests repaired to the ferns arranged by the Mary and Martha dining room, where a sumptuous dinner dianer Monday evening at their resi-dence, 475 Tenth street, to the Bennett-ber, while the vestibule was embellished were received, attesting the good wishes McNeer bridal party. The house was tastefully decorated Rowing club, of which the groom is a son left for a short trip to La Grande and will be at home at 690 East Burn-

脱脱脱

1904.

The marriage of Charles Seeley of Yamhill county to Miss Lena Eligson of Stafford, Clackamas county, took place the toastmaster, Mr. Luther Steel, James Carrie Scougal, the maid of honor, was of the bride's parents near Stafford. A chiffon with trimmings of valencienes

28, 29, 29, 29,

During the reading of the impressive Burriage service by the Rev. Jerome R. November 3, at the residence of A.

ball room was prettily decorated in Ore- Cull, Mr. and Mrs. William Harder, Mr. gon grape, smilax and palms. Over-head in the center of the balt was a mass of Oregon grape and smilax inter-mingled with myriads of colored lights, garlands of smilax extended from this to the corners of the room. The stage where the orchestra was stationed was hardy and Mrs. J. E. Butterfield, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Fithjan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heitkemper, Misses Maude Tyler, Louise Hardy, Messrs, George to the corners of the room. The stage Tyler, Louise Hardy, Messrs, where the orchestra was stationed was Hardy and Heddert of Spokane. completely hidden by broad spreading The club will held its next party at palms and growing ferns. Delightful the home of Mr. and Mrs. William music was furnished by Parsons' or Harder. Mrs. Herbert P. Cloy entertained the Hiawatha Whist club in a very charm-ing manner at her new home, 174 East noon.

The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the dining room being extremely pretty. From the chan-deller to the corners of the table were streamers of smilax held in place with punch was served at the pleasure of the 现就就

R R 8

COMING EVENTS.

. . .

N N N

28 29 29

Golden Rule hive No. 17 will give a bazaar the first week in December for the benefit of the hospital fund. The ladies have made a number of pretty and 10, 10, 10, 10,

Invitations are out for a dancing par-ty at the New Woodman hall, on the evening of November 16, to be given by

. . .

The S. L. S. club will give the third in the series of their whist parties and

* * *

Company B. O. N. G. will give its sec-

and dancing party Friday, November 13,

N N N

December at Parsons' hall.

useful articles.

the Z. B. R. S.

at the armory.

The Woman's guild of Trinity church

The Cinderella olub will give the first

Mrs. Nina Larowe will give a dancing bunches of cosmos. The favors were chestra, the selections including all the new music. All of the ladies were beautifully gowned, making an exceedingly attractive picture. Dainty refreshments were served during the Twenty-eighth North, Thursday afterevening. The festivities continued until midnight. The patronesses were Mrs. J. Hallinan, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. J. T. Shen, Mrs. J. N. Sutton and Mrs. J. R. Biley.

The

bunches of pink carnations. Whist was The Women's Missionary society of played during the afternoon. Mrs. Max the Cumberland church met at the home of Mrs. O. M. Scott, 615 East Alder. Several interesting papers were read Mesdames F. Freeberger, F. Olsen, C. and a very profitable hour was spent Peddicord, H. Rebe, N. A. Roberts, Max when dainty refreshments were served Smith, J. Wolf, F. W. Marshall, H. P. by the hostess, and a social time was Cloyes, enjoyed.

A delightful Halloween was spent at the home of Mr. Matson in Irvington. A select dancing party was given by Parsons' hall. The hall was prettly The many appropriate games were en- decorated for the occasion in joyed, and also the delicious refresh-ments. The 24 guests repaired to their homes at a late hour, much pleased with chestra. During the evening pincapple Mr. Matson's entertainment.

Fidelity club gave the second party T. Walls and Mrs. L. M. Hubert. of the series last Thursday evening. In spite of the inclemency of the weather, a large number gathered to trip to the dence of Dr; and Mrs. Locke, East delightful music furnished by Everest's Twentieth and Madison streets. The hall was beautifully house was prettily decorated with Oreorchestra. decorated with large graceful palms, gon grape and pink cosmos. A short Oregon grape and colored lights. Much program was rendered after which credit is due Messrs. W. J. Redmond, R. dainty refreshments of ice cream and R. Routledge, C. F. Wheeler, J. J. Mead and F. J. Fox, the floor committee, for good management and courtisies shown.

The

The Centennial Girls, one of the most party Thursday, evening, November 12, popular organizations in the city, gave at Larowe hall, Twenty-third and Kearthe second party of the season Tuesday at Larowe h evening at Parsons' hall, which was elaborately decorated with autumn leaves and garlands of Southern smilax party of the season Thursday evening, were festooned from the ceiling with December 10 at Parsons' hall. The sechundreds of tiny electric lights mingled ond will probably be in Japuary. This with the foliage. The stage where the club consists of prominent young sociorchestra was stationed was hidden with ety people.

rare palms and growing ferns. The music for the occasion was furnished by Parsons' orchestra. Program was: 1. Waltz, "Centennial Girls." is planning to give a doll fete early in

Two step, "Society Swells."

Waltz, 'Amoureuse." Two step, "Dandy Jim."

"Anona, Two step.

Waltz, "Mascaritta." Two step, "The Crimson Wing.

Waltz, "Charmeuse."

Two step, "Peaceful Henry." Waltz, "My Pauline."

Two step, 'Billy Balley.'' Two step, ''Southern Smiles.' Waltz, ''Francezka.''

Two step, "My Dream Lady." Waltz, "The Burgomaster." Two step, "Princess Pocahontas."

socials in their hall on Third and Sher-The music was the best of the seaman streets, Wednesday evening, Novem-Four extras were given. son. ber 18. During the entire entertainment delicious fruit punch was served at the The gowns worn by the young women were very pretty, making an exceedingly attractive picture.

38 38 38

fine and her audience expressed their apcution the Jews have suffered much since ancient times and it is a wonder that they exist at all, and for the ceremonials that have ever been practiced he holds even now that they would not be perpetuated. He cited the Friday

祝祝就 preclation by hearty applause.

of their esteem and gratitude.

W. Grussi.

core.

the program rendered.

ness of the society.

The Portasia club will entertain Wed-nesday night, November 11, at Parsons' Miss Myrtle E. Long appeared in lavender organdle with trimmings of hall. This will be the second of their black silk applique. Miss Wetzler was series of dancing parties. last Wednesday afternoon at the home charming in green organdie and white 30° 30° 30°. The Catholic order of Foresters, Im-free.

very large crowd of invited guests were lace. Miss Baldwin was striking in a maculate Hearts court No. 1049, have present to witness the wedding cere-mony. Miss Eligson is one of the most with trimmings of black velvet. Miss issued invitations for a whist party and social November 12. popular young ladies in her section of Stoeher looked dainty in a gown of The ladies of the Congregational the county, and her family is one of the white organdle with applique, and lace trimmings and Miss Grussi was very sweet in a costume of white poplin de church will hold their annual bazaar on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, December 1 and 2.

There were about 125 couples present and all were hearty in their pro

"THE ULTIMATE MOMENT," by W. R. Leighton. Illustrated by A. I. Keller. A new Western roman ce. "THE HEART OF ROME," by P. Marion Crawford. A. tale of the "Lost

Water," founded upon an old Roman legend. "RESPER," by Hamilin Garland. "A work of remarkable realism and dramatic intensity, a worthy successor to 'The Captain of the Gray' Horse Troop.'

"SHE THAT HESTATES," by Harris Dickson. With flustrations by C. M. Relyea, author of "The Black Wolf's Breed." "THE TORON," by Herbert M. Hopkins. The story of a Pacific college.

"THE SHADOW OF VICTORY," by Myrtle Reed. A vigorous novel showing the development of character amid the rough and stirring scenes of an early Western trading post.

"DR. LAVENDAR'S PEOPLE," by Margaret Deland, author of "Old Chester Tales." Illustrated by Lucius Hitchcock.

10-	-Big Sellers	of	Last	t W	eek	-10
"THE	SHERBODS,"		Ву	George	Barr	McCutcheon

"THE LITTLE SHEPHERD OF HINGDOM COME," By John Fox, Jr.
"GORDON KEITH," By Thomas Nelson Page
"THE YELLOW VAN," By Richard Whiteing
"THE MAIDS OF PARADISE,"By Robert W. Chambers
"COLONEL CARTER'S CHRISTMAS,"
"IN OLD PLANTATION DAYS"By Paul Lawrence Dunbar
"BARBE OF THE GRAND BAYOU"By John Oxenham
"THE BAR SINISTER," new edition By Richard Harding Davis
"THE HEAST OF HYACINTE," By Onoto Watanna

Books for Serious Minded

New Series of

"THE LITTLE JOURNEYS," by Elbert Hubbard. Illustrated in photogravure, octavo, beautifully printed and bound. List, each, $2.50,... -"LITTLE JOURNEYS TO THE HOMES OF ENGLISH AUTHORS." 11-"LITTLE JOURNEYS TO THE HOMES OF PAMOUS PAINTERS."

Attractions for the Pacific Coaster

"THE WAY OF THE WEST," by Emerson Hough. With illustrations by Frederick Remington. The splendid and stirring history of the

"THE FUE TRADERS OF THE COLUMBIA RIVER AND THE ROCKY MOUNTAINS," as described by Washington Irving in his account of "Astoria," and the record of the "Adventures of Captain Bonneville."

with some additions by the editor, Frank Lincoln Olmstead. Net $1.06,

No Library Is Complete Without Them

Fine English Editions in Cloth and Half Morocco of

BOCCACIO, CERVANTES, LAMB, GIL BLAS, RABELIAS, ROUSSEAU,

SEARESPEARE, SMOLLETT, STERNE, ARABIAN MIGHTS,

The Ariel Booklets

been accepted as classics. The series now comprises a large number of the most perfect literary gems, prose and poetry, of the masters of lit-

Some Books for Lovers of Nature

"BEASTS OF THE FIELD"......Net $1.75

"FOWLS OF THE AIB"......Net $1.75

Of Recent Publication.

A series of productions, complete in small compass, which have

The volumes are printed in large, clear type, on the best

AND OTHERS.

American West. Net $1.20.

with autumn leaves and ferns and the prominent member. table was a marvel of beauty, with a centerpiece of bride's roses and forget- brilliant and artistic manner, rendered Mrs. Welch left for their home in Heppme-nots with silver candlebras holding the beautiful strains from "Lohengrin."

the ushers, Frederick C. Forbes, brotherin-law of the bride, William King, cards were very pretty, being decorated George Luders and George Houghton, entered, followed by the groom and his best man, Charles Clark Duncan. Miss McKinnon, Dr. McNear and Miss Ben- daintily attired in pale green silk ornett responding in a very effective man- gandy, with arm bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The young bride, on the arm of her were gold brooches in the form of a father, was a beautiful picture in her the county, and her chrysanthemum. To the matron of simple robe of organdy and lace, with honor a gold hair comb and to the veil fastened with smilax and carrying groom pearl studs. The groom pre- a shower bouquet of bride roses.

and his ushers with silver mounted card marriage service by the Rev. Jerome R.

side street after November 11. Mr. and pleasure of the guests.

contracting parties.

.....

'The house was

To the

One of the prettiest weddings of the chine with chiffon trimmings.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bennett, Dr. and Mrs. Alan Welch Smith, Misses Effie Bennett, Kate Gibbs, Jessie Farrell, Mary Talbot, Lila Sutherland, Messrs. Dr. Richard L. McNeer, James Sutherland, Luther Steel, Allen Percy, Lionel Paget and Paul Badollet of Astoria.

1000

A most delightful surprise party was given Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Russ at their residence in Montavilla October 10, the occasion being their 45th wedding an-

The ladies of the George Wright relief corps and the ladies of the Columbia Rebekah degree proceeded in a body to the residence. The surprise was complete in every particular and a merry evening was spent. A bountiful supper was served by the ladies, and just before departing some beautiful and useful gifts were presented with con-

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bennett gave a e menu was elaborate and the menu gratulations to Dr. and Mrs. Russ.

white candles placed at intervals.

with forget-me-nots in water colors.

Dr. Alan Welch Smith, best man, was

The bride's gifts to the bridesmaids sented the bride with a diamond brooch niversary.

원 번 원

On Wednesday evening the S. L. S. club gave the second in the series of their enjoyable whist parties and socials in their hall on Third and Sherswarded to Miss Millie Miller and Mr. E. L. Brady. During the evening vocal solos were rendered by Miss K. Covach Miss Alice Dougherty, after which MISS LILLIAN MYERS and Miss L. McCamm and a violin solo dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. The officers of the club are: Harry Mccullough, president; Miss M. Brennan, vice-president; Mat Kiernan, treasurer; Miss Rose Maney, secretary.

* * *

William Sanders of Southern Oregon, retired merchant and capitalist, is here visiting with his wife at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Gevurtz, 289 Seventh street. At home on the last Thursday of each month.

* * *

Mrs. J. N. Teal returned this morning from an extended visit in New York, Washington and other Eastern cities.

WEDDINGS.

One of the most beautiful weddings of the autumn took place Tuesday even-November 3, at the Taylor street Methodist church, where Miss Effic Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Bennett, was united in marriage to Dr. Richard Langdon McNeer of Baltimore, Md. In harmony with the season the chan-fel was beautifully decorated with huge branches of yellow autumn leaves and broad, spreading paims were placed here and there with artistic effect. The aisle was formed of broad white satin ribbons, the whole being exceedingly attractive.

At 8 o'clock, to the strains of Lohengrin's nuptial hymn, the bridal party entered the church. The bride on the arm of her father was winsome in shimmering gown of white satin with trimmings of point and Duchesse lace She wore a long tulle yell, which was held in place by lilies of the valley, and carried a shower bouquet of the same flower. Her only ornament was a beau Miss Lillian Meyers, the Oregon viotiful diamond brooch, the gift of the linist, who has been in Europe for the groom. Mrs. Alan Welch Smith, sister past six years devoting her time to the of the bride, as matron of honor, looked study of the violin, returned to her very beautiful in her wedding gown of nome in Portland a short time ago. white satin with trimmings of point Miss Myers has studied under the lace. She carried white chrysantheworld's best masters and has credentials The Misses Kate Gibbs, Jessie mums from Stern's conservatorium of music, Farrell, Mary Talbot and Lila Suther-Professors Joachim and Halir of Hoch land were the maids. Misses Kate Schule of Berlin, Anton Wittek of the Gibbs and Jessie Farrell wore exquisite Philharmonie and Professor Remy of gowns of yellow silk organdic, with the Conservatoire of Paris. Miss Myers is an exceedingly clever second regular meeting of the season. The hall was beautifully decorated nusician and her brilliant playing at the church parlors on Wednesday with Oregon grape and autumn foliage wreaths of yellow daisies in their hair and carried yellow chrysanthemums musician and Misses Mary Talbot and Lila Sutherland aroused much favorable comment from wore charming costumes of white net competent critics where she appeared over yellow silk, with wreaths of white last year. She played in salons of daisies in their hair, and carried yellow prominent people of Paris, including a chrysanthemums. The bride's mother solree at which the president of France was fine and was thoroughly apprewore a handsome gown of black point and his wife were present. Only pupils lace over black silk. of talent are in demand for the after-

The ushers were James McKinnon, noon and evening entertainments, and Luther Steel, Allen Percy, Lionel Paget they are occasions long to be rememand Paul Badollet of Astoria. Each bered wore a yellow chrysanthemum bouton-The young violinist is a loyal Oregon-an and will continue to reside in Portniere. The bridal party were met at the altar land. the groom and his best man, Dr.

A 14. 4.

Alan Welch Smith, both of whom were clad in the conventional black. Dr. Alan lovers of Portland will be granted a rare Smith wore a white chrysanthemum treat cases to be used on dress occasions. McGlade, Mrs. Bertha Grimes' rich con- Hislop, Vancouver, Wash., where Miss the party. traito volce was heard in "Oh, Promise Myrtle Hislop was united in marriage to O. Stoehr, Mrs. E. Wetzler and Mrs. J. Me," the strains of which swelled into the Mendelssohn "Wedding March" as of honor was Miss Dalsy Rulter and Mr the bridal party left the church.

A reception from 9 to 11 followed at the family residence on East Fifteenth to a few invited friends. Mr. Cartstreet. There the white and green color scheme was continued, the numerous tiny electric lights placed throughout the house and porch by the mother adding greatly to the already charming scene.

The numerous elegant gifts attested man streets. Fifteen hands of whist to the high esteem in which the young we're played, the first prizes being couple are held. In the gift room Mrs. Ferris poured coffee, the bride and of honor was Miss Daisy Rulter, and Mr. E. Basse acted as best man. After the ceremony an elaborate dinner was served wright came here a short time ago from Fort Wright and is in the employ of Captain W. C. Wren. The bride is an bride's old resident of Vancouver, and is well known here and has a host of friends.

HOME FROM EUROPE

机机机 Miss Florence A. Becker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Becker of Bridgewater, Mich., and Elwood O. Baylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Haylor of Port-land, Or., were joined in the bonds of matrimony Wednesday evening at the home of her sister, Miss Otilia J. Becker. 22 North Locust street, in the presence of the immediate relatives of their family, the Rev. W. K. Spencer of Alma officiating. The ceremony took place at 5 o'clock p. m., after which a bridal dinner was served. The bride was attired in white, and the decorations were chrysanthemums and bridal roses. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Becker and George Becker, Jr., of Bridgewater: Mrs. C. J. Becker of Ypsilanti, and Mrs. J. G. Thuriby of Fecumseh. Mrs. J. H. Baylor came from Portland, Or., to attend the wedding, and after seeing the young couple well settled in the old homestead, 17 Merrick street, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Baylor will start for the West. The bride and groom were well remembered by friends and relatives by many handsome as well as useful presents. After a pleasant evening Mr. and Mrs. Baylor went to their home, 17 Merrick street, where they will be at home to their many friends after December 1.-Adrian 36 36 36 Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Iva Rosalie Van Epps to Frank L. Satterlie at Olympia, Wash... Wednesday, November 4. Mr. Satterlie was formerly of Portland, where he is Rose Bloch Bauer was the accompanist. well known.

10 10 10 The marriage of Albert F. Gran and hour enjoyed. Miss Margaret Morgan was celebrated

The second dancing party of the seaat the residence of the bride's parents, son given by Gilbert camp, auxiliary 1, Spanish American War Veterans, took Midway, on last Wednesday evening. the Rev. C. A. Lewis of Sellwood of-Herman Naylor served as place Monday night at the New Woodficiating. men hall, East Side. best man and Miss Agnes Gran as Dinner was served, after bridesmaid. which the newly wedded pair repaired to orated in harmony with the season, and the affair was a success in every way. Everest's orchestra furnished a detheir new home in South Portland, where they were tendered a reception by, their numerous friends.

36 36 36 music. Arthur Knoll and Myrtle Chamberlain were joined in marriage at the home of the groom's parents, 435 Davis street, Wednesday evening, November 4. Rev. J. F. Ghormley officiated. The home pleased with the party. was beautifully decorated and an elaborate wedding supper was served. 选派级 EVENTS OF THE WEEK.

ful.

clated by her hearers.

The ladies' Aid Literary society of the First Congregational church, held its | Thursday evening.

afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Heppner read a paper on parliamentary law, which was very interesting and help- after the games a delicious luncheon Miss Vesta Townsend's reading was served.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Frank

Mastin and Mrs,' W. Moir.

Miss House sang a beautiful solo and Heitkemper entertained the Fortnigh was heartily encored. At the close of Flinch club at their home, 265 Lincoln Heitkemper entertained the Fortnightly The rooms were prettily decorated socially. A delightful dancing and card party was given Thursday night at Parsons' hall hv Portland Council No. 678, was won by Mrs. J. H. Clock and Mr. with orange grape and potted plants. A delightful dancing and card party was given Thursday night at Parsons' hall by Portland Council No. 678, Knights of Columbus. In the Turkish room were cards for those who did not care to dance. The

The Wisteria club will give one of The patronesses are Mrs. R. their pleasant whist parties Thursday evening, November 12 * * *

One of the principal events of the sea-The Council of Jewish Women held son will be the dance given by the Wistheir regular meeting Wednesday afterteria club Monday evening, November 23, at the New Woodman hall. Everest's noon in the Selling-Hirsch hall. About 250 members were present and all were orchestra will furnish the music. The much gratified with the excellence of ommittee is Messrs. Tom Maney, Joe Fay, Otto Hoak and Carl J. Straub. The first part of the afternoon was

87. 87. 89. Prospect camp No. 140, announces one of its social whist entertainments. occupied by the transaction of the busi-The first on the program was a read-Thursday evening, November 12. This ing by Miss Eleanor Haber of San being the beginning of the winter's cam-Francisco. Miss Haber is a reader of paign, a pleasant evening is assured. exceptional ability and her rendition of Excellent program and refreshments a negro dialect selection was unusually WOODBURN.

Haber gracefully responded to an en-Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Ingle gave a The council presented her with a nost enjoyable whist party to a small beautiful bouquet of flowers, as a toker number of their friends Thursday evening in honor of their first wedding an-The address of the afternoon was deniversary. Mrs. Henry Altnow won the livered by Dr. David Levine. The subprize, a beautiful medallion, and Mr. ject was "Jewish Ceremonials," and it Hurley Moore carried off the "bo was presented in a most attractive light, Ices and cakes were served. Ine invited the insight given into the ancient Greek guests were: Capt. and Mrs. O. D. Hen ceremonials being of peculiar interest. derson, Mr. and Mrs. Hurley Moore, Mr. Dr. Levine held that existence is well and Mrs. Fred Dose, Mr. and Mrs. Henry nigh impossible without Jewish Council Altnow, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Scott and ceremonies, that they are as natural as Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Gill. the air we breathe. After the perse-

Willamette university his second year was with his parents, Col. and Mrs. J.

M. Poorman, over Sunday. of Newport, were guests of Mrs. M evening ceremonial as one which had A delightful farewell party was given Adj.-Gen. and Mrs. W. E. Finser last especial influence in bringing and keeping the Jews together. At the close of his address an interesting discussion followed. Mrs. Frank Raley was the soloist of the day and her rich contralto oice delighted every one present and she had to respond to an chcore. A beautiful bouquet of chrysanthemums was presented her by the council. Miss sisted by Mrs. Edith Altnow.

Light refreshments were served at parted Tuesday for their future home in the close of the program and a social Portland.

SALEM

T. Holverson returned last night from Portland, where Mrs. Holverson is still visiting friends. During their absence from Salem they also made a trip to The hall was simply, but prettily dec-Puget sound, visiting the principal cities. Mr. and Mrs. George R. Peterson of Sloux Falls, N. D., on their way to spend the winter in California, stopped lightful program including all the new off in Salem for a few days to visit Judge and Mrs. Henry, whom they have Delicious orange punch was served nown for 30 years or more. Mrs. J. A. Sellwood reached Salem during the entire entertainment.

The festivities continued until about Wednesday night after an absence of midnight, when all departed, six months, during which time she travwell eled extensively, and visited relatives The patronesses were Mrs. W. J. Redin the United States and Canada. A large mond, Mrs. R. R. Routledge, Mrs. E. E. portion of the time was spent at Hatley, Quebec, where she visited her She also visited relatives in The Royal Neighbors of America, father. Mayflower camp No. 2,197, gave a very New York, Pennsylvania, and Massaenjoyable party at the Alisky hall chusetts.

Mrs. C. B. Shelton has returned from The hall was beautifully decorated visit to friends in Portland.

Mrs. Claud Gatch went to Portland which made the room very attractive. Wednesday afternoon for a visit with Whist was the game of the evening and friends.

Mrs. S. A. Kozer has returned from an extended visit with relatives in Portland.

(Continued on Page Seventeen.)

ATTENTION, LADIES

deckel-edge paper, with photogravure frontispieces, and bound in full flexible red morocco. There is nothing more admirably suited for a dainty, yet inexpensive gift to a person of taste and cultivation. Each, 75 cents. Winnie Poorman, who is attending erature.

Mrs. Harkelroad and daughter, Maude, Bradley part of this week.

Monday evening by his brother, Dr. Elmer Finzer, and wife, at their home Many friends were invited and enjoyed themselves. Mrs. W. E. Finzer won a beautiful plate in the contest game played. Dainty refreshments were served ate in the evening by the hostess, as-

Adj.-Gen. and Mrs. W. E. Finzer de-

"SECRETS OF THE WOODS"..... Net 75c "WAYS OF THE WOOD FOLK" Net 75c Filbert Roth, author-"A FIRST BOOK OF FORESTRY"..... Net $1.25 R. L. Gardner, author-"APES AND MONKEYS," their life and lan-WILLIAM J. LONG. Author

Children's Books of Artistic Design "THE HUNTING OF THE SMARK," and other poems. by Lewis Carrol. Illustrated by Peter Newell. Uniform in binding with "Alice in Won-derland" and "Through the Looking Glass." Net $3.00. Imprint of R. H. Russell. "LTL VERSES FOR LI'L FELLERS," by George V. Hobart. Eight fullpage pictures in half-tone by M. H. Squire and E. Mars. Quarto, or-namented cloth. Net $1.40. "JEST-NUTS," all fresh and hot, by L. J. Bridgman, author of "Guess" and "Guess Again." Net $1.00. "MAISTE AND REE DOG SNIP IN FAIRYLAND," by Bennett Musson.

These books are profusely illustrated.

A charming fairy story for children. Illustrated in tint by F. Y. Cory. Net $1.30.

the program a delightful hour was spent socially.

Miss Myers expects to give a concert hall by Portland Council No. 678, recital in the near future and the music Knights of Columbus.

