Mr. Ballin said that the proposed vessel was about 15 per cent finished. The keel has been laid and most of the frame is erected, the forgings, casting and parts are out, the engines are being fixed and the first payment will be made to the contractor, amounting to about $4,500, as provided for in the specifications. Madame H. Vaughn, officing in the McKay building, speaks to readers today in most vigorous language. Her lively advertisement in another column tells its own story—only that it may be added that she has performed some remarkable feats of late in restoring to injured faces the beauty of which sickness or age had robbed them. It may also be added that she is a conscientious, painstaking, careful dermatologist, and that her splendid success has been well earned. Her parlors are the objective point of many a visit from anxious and humiliated women, but when these have passed through the lady's course of treatment all anxiety and humiliation have passed away. Youth has taken the place of aeternity and age, and happy smiles are found on countenances where they were not found before.

PORTLANDERS TO GO TO PENDLETON

GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN WILL HEAD A CONSIDERABLE PARTY OF VISITORS TO THE MEETING OF THE STATE IRRIGATION ASSOCIATION THREE NEXT WEEK.

Governor Chamberlain goes Sunday night to Pendleton to speak at the meeting of the state irrigation association, which is to be in session there during Monday and Tuesday of next week. While in Pendleton Governor Chamberlain will also deliver an address at the dedication of the new Catholic hospital, which has been completed at a cost of $50,000. A. Devers, president of the state association will go with the governor, accompanied by a number of prominent Portland business men, who will participate in the proceedings of the state meeting.

The object is worthy the best thought and attention of the representative men of the state," said Mr. Devers. "Furthermore, the people of Pendleton have arranged for the very pleasant entertainment of the visitors, and will appreciate it if a large delegation goes from this city. Indeed, a large delegation should go and meet the people who will be there from the Eastern part of the state especially."

Some of the Speakers. Addresses and discussions will be given at the state association meeting by these representative men: Governors Chamberlain of Oregon and Morrison of Idaho; L. T. Harris of Eugene, speaker of the lower house in the legislature; W. F. Butcher of Baker City; Dr. Y. C. Blalock of Walla Walla; Dalton Briggs, Burns; J. H. Lowell, Caldwell, Idaho; Judge F. A. Moore of the supreme court; E. L. Smith, Hood River; James Withycombe, Corvallis; Prof. F. G. Young, State University at Eugene; J. K. Wenzel, Albany; Prof. M. L. Mackay, State Experimental station at Union; C. W. Mallet, Ontario; J. B. Saylor, Walla Walla; Will R. King, Ontario.

Officers of the Association. The officers of the state association are: President, A. H. Devers, Multnomah; vice-president, W. R. King, Multnomah; secretary, W. R. King, Multnomah; treasurer, W. S. Wright, Union; secretary, J. M. Moore, Multnomah; assistant secretary, E. P. Dodd, Umatilla. Executive Committee—A. H. Devers, Multnomah; W. R. King, Multnomah; H. E. Ankeny, Lane; Henry Hain, Multnomah; George Chandler, Baker; W. H. Hope, Multnomah; E. M. Brink, Crook; E. M. Brannick, Multnomah; E. J. Frazier, Lane; Samuel Connell, Multnomah. President Devers is working for more names to add to the list of those who will go to Pendleton, and has assurance of these: A. H. Devers, J. Thorburn Ross, F. E. Beach, P. G. Eastwick, E. M. Brannick and A. King Wilson.

Others are striving to arrange their business to permit their attendance, and it is certain that the delegation will be larger, although the names are not yet available.

SENTENCED WITHIN 30 HOURS OF CRIME

The local police are interested in the fate of William alias "Spec" Smith, who was taken to Salem penitentiary Wednesday for two years for shooting with intent to kill. Smith was arrested in August by Detective Joe Day for permutating an officer. Smith represented himself as Detective Day to Myrtle Collins and is charged with the murder of her. He was sentenced to three months on the county rock pile, but made his escape about two weeks ago. After leaving here Smith went to Oregon City, where he stole a skiff and when the owners followed him he shot at them. Chief of Police Burns arrested the desperado, but not before Smith tried to kill him also. Smith was charged Tuesday and the day following pleaded guilty. And was sentenced to Salem to serve two years. Within 30 hours after the crime was committed he had begun his term in prison. Preferred Stock Canned Goods. Allen & Lewis, Best Brand

WHY NOT

Follow the laws of nature and get well, if you have some long-standing affliction? My method, which is REVOLUTIONIZING THE ENTIRE TREATMENT OF DISEASE, MAGNETIC and Suggestive Therapeutics, has cured thousands of cases which had been given up by drug and other methods.

YOU'VE HEARD OF THIS TREATMENT

Possibly you have expressed an opinion on it before investigating it, as we are very apt to do on any matter which is "new." Its application to all kinds of diseases has made new men and women of many former wrecks.
