THE OREGON DAILY JOURNAL, PORTLAND, THURSDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 12, 1903.

Items of Local Interest for Busy Journal Readers.

If one has a little leisure time for a day out of town, the grandeur of the Columbla river scenery may be enjoyed on board the steamer Spencer at 50 cents for an entire day's ride. That is, one may take a trip to The Dalles for half dollar, and have the pleasure of viewing America's most romantic mountains, besides the charming landscape and yawning canyons that intervene. It will The a day never to be forgotten.

Spencer leaves Oak street dock at 7 a. m. on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Passengers to The Dalles or beyond save $2.10 In fare to that place by riding on the Spencer, as the railroad charges $2.60. Buy tickets to The Dalles, then go on by rail. Telephone Main 2960. Friends of Manager White, of the Alba Dentists, who may visit him in his new quarters, will find one of the most per-Mr. fect dental parlors in the country. White has spared no expense in fitting up most palatial apartments, and if his four fine chairs are not kept busy, then it will be because the people are not acquainted with the excellence of the work turned out. These dentists advertise in plain figures the eprices charged, and Dr. White assures the publie that it cannot get better work in the world, and that none but the advertised prices will be accepted. No one will be inveigled into the place and the charged more than they expected to be charged.

Save $2.10 on every fare to The Dalles or points beyond by riding on the beau-tiful steamer Charles R. Spencer, and at the same time view the magnificent Columbia river scenery. Fare by the steamboat is 50 cents to any landing, including The Dalles; by rail, $2.60 to The Dalles. Persons going beyond The Dalles can buy their tickets by steamer to that point, and go thence by rail to their destination. On her way up and down the Spencer stops at Vancouver, Washougal, Cascade Locks, Stevenson, Carson, Collins, Drano, Underwoods, White Salmon, Hood River, Bingen and Lyle. Fare, 50 cents to any stopping place. Wharf foot of Oak street. Telephone Main 2960.

We have addeds new department to our store, that of misses' and children's cloaks. We positively have one of the best selections of these garments in this city, and having bought at a bargain will sell at prices that will make people buy-if they will see them. We don't care where you have been buying before, nor what low price you secured, we will make you a little lower figures than you have ever had. In fact we will make you a whole lot lower prices. H. Baumer & Co., Union avenue and East Morrison-the merchant who pays about one-eighth the rent of the West Side fellows.

We have added a men's and boys' clothing department to our store-something entirely new with us, hence the stock is new. These garments are the newest in style, also, and having purchased at spot cash it goes without saying that our prices are a little lower than the goods were acquired on other terms. There is not another house in Portland prepared to offer inducements to clothing wearers equal to ours. avenue and East Morrison.

30th-Grand Friday Economy Sale=30th Merchandise of a different character from that carried by the ordinary store. We started more than twenty-five years ago with that sort of a shop but we started at the same moment to better it, and we've kept on bettering it every day since. Why shouldn't we have the best of everything in point of goods and service? We're eternally bending every energy, straining every nerve to excel not only other stores but ourselves. We stake our reputation on QUALITY; no inferior thing is allowed to pass muster here. We've but one rule in selling the merchandise bought so carefully and that's at always the lowest prices for worthy qualities. We challenge comparison of values from any source, BUT NEVER COMPETE WITH TRASH. THERE'S ALWAYS INHERENT VALUE IN A REALLY GOOD THING, otherwise why did the trotter Major Delmar sell for $40,000.00? And why is Lou Dillon worth a fortune, her owner doesn't trot her for stakes and they're really only "horses," but this is why they're "different" from other horses INHERENT WORTH. That's why this is a "DIFFERENT STORE."

2d Day of That Big 3-Days Sale of New Silks and Dress Goods

A Wonderful Feast of Values Spread in the Annex

For three days only (Thursday, Friday and Saturday) we offer the following exceptional values: Nearly 10,000 yards of 19-inch all pure silk colored Taffeta. The manufacturer, knowing our capacity for handling an immense quantity of good, honestly made silk, the best in the silk market, made us a proposition on this immense lot-at a big reduction from regular prices. We promptly accepted. These silks are sold in the leading stores of the country from 85c to 90c a yard. For wear we candidly and serviceable fabrics; goods that have the Olds, Wortman & King ring for sterling values. We have decided to make a radical reduction now for immediate clearance. The lines include panne, mirror, paon, silver haired, mouchette, English and French gibelines-and the prices, at which they are marked will move them in a hurry:

LOT 1-50 to 54-inch Zibelines, in above different finishes, in all good colors, including Oxford, navy, royal, myrtle, gray and cardinal Our regular $1.75 and $1.50 a yard

More than six times the number to to choose from shown by any other Portland house. The gems of the Orient-not an "Auction" or "Syndicate" rug in all the selection, but carefully chosen, rare, old specimens, results of selection by our own expert rug-buyer, who is now in the East among the leading collectors. Other collections appear ridiculous by contrast. We urge your most critical comparison.

IN THE UNDERWEAR AND HOISERY SHOP

(First Floor.)

These are very busy days. Now that winter has set in in earnest, and colds are so prevalent, our thoughts lightly turn to heavier underwear. Where to buy the best-made garments at the lowest prices is the question that comes to mind. Isn't this a good time to bear in, mind that this is Portland's RELIABLE house? And you want RELIABLE underwear-it's the only kind we carry. No matter how low the price, you may always feel sure of the quality if selected here. Just now we're clearing the counters preparatory for the move to the new annex soon. That's why these prices are fixed this way
