Daylight burglars plundered the home of Mrs. J. E. Perrault, 435 Everett street, about 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Perrault was away from home during the early part of the afternoon, and upon her return found her house in confusion. Every room had been systematically searched and the contents of bureaus and drawers were scattered. Even articles of clothing with the pockets turned inside out were lying about the floor. Among the articles missing are two valuable watches, a lady's coat, a revolver, a quantity of silverware, clothing and underwear. The plunder taken is valued at several hundred dollars. In one trunk which was not opened was a considerable sum of money. Detective Brown and Kerrigan are working on the case. The work looks as if it had been done by some one familiar with the premises.

This might be appropriately observed as a week of thanksgiving among the myriads of ladies who are taking advantage of the surprising bargains offered at the White Corner, Third, Yamhill and Second streets. These particular times that big institution is "handing out" values that it will be difficult to duplicate at any future time this fall. These consist of women's apparel of every description, almost, and such opportunities for fine dressing as are had at that place now ought to encourage the most lively buying. The White Corner has become "the home of big values for little money," and is known as such throughout this entire region.

Save $2.10 on every fare to The Dalles or points beyond by riding on the beautiful steamer Charles R. Spencer, and at the same time view the magnificent Columbia river scenery. Fare by the steamer is 50 cents to any landing, including The Dalles; by rail, $2.10 to The Dalles. Persons going beyond The Dalles can buy their tickets by steamer to that point, and thence by rail to their destination. On her way up and down the Spencer stops at Vancouver, Washougal, Cascade Locks, Stevenson, Carson, Collins, Hood River, Bend, White Salmon, Hood River, Bling and Lyle. Fare, 50 cents to any stopping place. Wharf foot of Oak street. Telephone Main 2960.

The date of the replevin suit of Edward Shields against S. Morton Cobb, proprietor of the Arcade theatre to be fought out before Justice of the Peace Reid, has not been settled. Constable Jackson served the papers on Mr. Cobb Saturday and the latter at once gave a bond in the sum of $500 in the fidelity and guarantee company. Some of the theatrical paraphernalia claimed by Shields had been removed from the theatre but some of the ropes, blocks and tackles, mentioned in the suit, are still in use at the theatre. Mr. Cobb claims that Shields owes him $85 and the entire matter will be decided by Justice Reid.

Plans for the farmers' institute to be held at Gresham, December 11 and 12, are being formulated by the Gresham Grange, Patrons of Husbandry. Day sessions will be held in the grange hall and the evening meetings in Metzger's hall. Aside from the usual addresses on agricultural topics, a short musical program has been arranged. Dr. Wilky, combe of the Oregon Agricultural college, W. Cotton, Judge J. F. Caples and others will make talks during the institute. The farmers of Multnomah, Clackamas and Washington counties all will be invited to attend.

This ought to be pretty weather in which to make an excursion up the Columbia, through the beautiful scenery to The Dalles. The handsome steamer Charles R. Spencer leaves Portland again on Thursday morning for this most delightful run, and charges only 50 cents for the round trip to any landing between this and that city. The Spencer is the people's favorite boat. She is smart as a duck. Dock foot of Oak street. Telephone, Main 2960.

Balicy Gatzert, the popular passenger steamer, makes the trip from Portland to The Dalles on Thursdays and Saturdays, leaving The Dalles on alternate days, except Sunday, arriving at all ports from one to two hours earlier than any other boat on the river. She makes the following landings: Vancouver, Cascade Locks, Stevenson, Carson, Collins, White Salmon, Hood River, Lyle. Fare 25 cents to all landings. Leaves Alder-street dock at 7 a. m. The Dalles at 7 a. m.

Just a moment! The Spencer carries you through the grandest scenery in the world. The Columbia river is famed for this. Next boat from Oak-street dock will be Thursday morning at 7 o'clock. The fare to any landing between Portland and The Dalles is 50 cents. Passengers save $2.10 by riding on the steamer and not the railroad, as railroad fare to The Dalles is $2.60. Telephone, Main 2960.

The Dalles City leaves Alder street at 6:30 a. m. Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; leaves The Dalles Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, at 7 a. m. Makes all way landings. Fare 25 cents. Ship your freight by the Regular line. The Regular line is the only company that has comfortable and dry warehouses for the reception of freight and passengers.

These officers who walk the north end beats to keep street watch over the place under suspicion. This order applied particularly to Patrolman Thomas Kay, whom the chief singled out, because there are several galleries in his territory. The chief ordered the men to establish a blockade if necessary in front of the places where bunco is suspected, in order to put a stop to it. He told them to walk up and down in front of these suspected resorts to keep "suckers" away.
