THIELMAN PITCHED SPLENDID CONTEST

CREDITABLE RECORD OF OREGON 'VARSITY

PORTLAND TWIRLER SHOULD HAVE HAD A SHUTOUT TO HIS CREDIT, BUT TWO WILD PITCHES WERE COSTLY—HARRY BLAKE OUT OF GAME.

(Journal Special Service.)
Eugene, Or., Nov. 27.—The result of the Nevada-Corvallis football game, as well as the result of the Idaho-Washington match, place Oregon in a creditable position as far as the Pacific coast colleges are concerned. Oregon is the only eleven in the Northwest that has scored against the champion Washington eleven this season, and when it is remembered that the local 'varsity played a 6-5 game with the Washingtonians their showing is all the more creditable.

Oregon had a hard game with the Corvallis 'Aggies,' finally winning by a score of 5 to 0. Yesterday the Corvallis team played at the home of the Washingtonians.

The Browns played errorless ball and that in a great measure held the local score down. Hollingsworth and Anderson especially distinguished themselves by their fast work around second.

Harry Blake is quite sick and unable to play and will probably be out of the game for the rest of the season.

Keefe filled in at right in a satisfactory manner.

Van Buren led off in the first with a single, was forced at second by Freeman, who scored on hits by Thielman and Hollingsworth and Anderson's out. The Francis hit for three bases in the second and scored on Clarke's out at first.

Two games will be played tomorrow, which winds up the season of 1923. The score follows:

If Portland wins the next three games, and San Francisco loses three, the Browns and Fisher's contingent will be tied for third place. Should Seattle continue to lose, Frisco or Sacramento could get the place, if they take a brace and win.

After tomorrow the fans will await the publication of the season's averages and then they will alternately condemn and praise this and that player all winter.

Harry Blake is sick and unable to play and may not don the spurs again this season. Blake's services will be missed, but as there are only three more games Thielman will fill in nicely.

All but five of the Portland players will be back in Portland next week. Van Buren, Shields, Anderson and Butler will put in a few weeks in the woods. The boys expect to arrive in Portland Tuesday night or Wednesday morning.

Hollingsworth will undoubtedly be a member of next season's team, and may possibly be played at second base.

Hughy Jennings, the well known professional ball player and coach of the Cornell team, who wound up the season this year by managing the Baltimore team of the Eastern league, has declared that he will quit the diamond for good at the close of next season.

Jennings is now a senior in the Cornell college and is anxious to begin the practice of his profession just as soon as he possibly can.

Jennings admits that the time is fast approaching when he will be compelled to give up the national game, and as a result he has decided to only engage in another season on the diamond.

Several of the Los Angeles players, who asked about the recent Seattle series, replied: "When we get them on our grounds, see what happens. It seems that things have been happening (to Seattle) for the past few days."

Jake Thielman has it on all the other pitchers in the league when it comes to hitting with the possible exception of Doc Moskman.

ARMY AND NAVY IN BATTLE ARRAY

(Journal Special Service.)

Philadelphia, Nov. 28.—On Franklin field, Philadelphia, this afternoon the eleven representing West Point and Annapolis academies will engage in their annual football contest. Already crowds are on their way to the grounds, and it will be impossible to admit half the spectators, who are willing to pay any price in order to witness the great struggle between the military and naval branches of the United States government.

From the splendid record of the army team this year it looks as if they will sweep the navy boys before them. Annapolis men are saying little, but confidently expect a much closer game than their opponents anticipate.

Franklin field is gorgeously bedecked with the stars and stripes, and on opposite sides of the field the navy and army rosters are camped. The president, most of his cabinet and high officials in the army and navy departments, senators and congressmen, judges and ministers are in attendance at the game. When the referee's whistle blew an immense assemblage was present.

FITZ-GARDNER BOUT NOT SATISFACTORY

(Journal Special Service.)

As a result of the Fitzsimmons-Gardner fight in San Francisco Wednesday night, all boxing contests may be stopped by the supervisors. The claim is made that the fight was the poorest exhibition ever given in the Bay city, and even the referee was compelled to criticize it severely. According to a well-informed sporting man, it is understood that the Yosemite club, which fostered the fight, is in bad repute there and that Managers Alex Gregains and Jimmy Coffey are on the market endeavoring to square the club and stifle censure. Ever since Fitzsimmons' alleged fake fight with Jeffries in San Francisco, it is said that the Cornishman always harbored a secret revenge to give the 'Frisco people an unkind cut, and many think that his fight with Gardner was the package that Fitz desired to dispense. In the meantime, the sports are wondering whether or not they were duped again.

BOWLERS MEET TONIGHT

(Journal Special Service.)

The Multnomah and Commercial clubs have chosen the teams that will represent those clubs in the bowling tournament which opened last Saturday. The clubs will be represented by the following bowlers: Multnomah—Haghighorath, Bailey, Cauthern, Zellar, Wels and Ford. Commercial—Graham, Killingsworth, Wheeler, Mays, Howard and Bushong.

REILLY TO MEET WOODS

(Journal Special Service.)

Tommy Reilly, the Seattle boxer, who has been in this city for some time, will leave this evening for San Francisco, where he will meet Billy Woods and fight articles for a 20-round contest. Reilly claims that he can defeat Woods, providing the men hit in clinches, and will endeavor to have the articles of agreement state that point.
