Weather conditions and general forecast for Oregon, Washington and Idaho:

The high pressure area that has caused the fair and moderately, cold weather in this district during the last several days is gradually decreasing in magnitude and a storm is apparently approaching the Washington coast. It is expected that this storm will continue its inland movement and cause a change to rainy candillous and higher temperature west of the Cascade mountains touight and Friday.

The weather continues fair in the Rocky meantain and Pacific coast states this morning, but cloudless has increased along the coast and in the Williamette valley and, the Schud country. Light show is reported in the Candian Northwest, the Dakotas, Minuscota and Illinois.

Maximum temperature in the last 24 hours, 42; minimum temperature, 30; precipitation, none, TODAY'S FORECAST.

INDICATE THAT THE MORTHERN LY PURCHASED LINE AS A CUT-OFF PROM VACOLT.

The recently announced purchase by the Northern Pacific of the old Port-land, Vancouver & Yakima road, that runs from Vancouver, Wash., to Ya-colt, 38 miles, is believed by local Northern Pacific men to be the first step in the building of a short line from North Yakima to Vancouver, and thence to Portland. Up to this time the Northern Pacific has been generally credited with the in-tention of building into Portland via the north bank of the Columbia river, the new line running from Pasco to couver, but with the purchase of the Portland, Vancouver & Yakima a dif-ferent trend is given to speculation and It seems that the course of the short line into Portland will be via North Yakima and Vancouver, This route would save hundreds of miles, compared with the present route, and many miles of hard construction, when compared with that projected from Pasco. It would also open the interior of Clarke, Skamania and Yakima countles, that are very rich in timber, have not been touched by rall and cannot be reached

IRRIGATION SCHEME FOR PASCO, WASH

(Journal Special Service.) Spokane, Dec. 10 .- A big project to irrigate a vast tract of land in the country about Pasco, Wash., has been The Current Motor & launched here. Power company has been incorporated by some of the men who have been foremost in the Wenatchee irrigation projects, which have been a great suc-

The Northern Pacific Interests nate the new company, some of the in-corporators of which are O. L. Hanson, superintendent of the Northern Pacific Irrigation company; A. E. Law, assist-ant general superintendent of the North-ern Pacific; M. D. Wright, a local con-tractor; C. C. Klopenstein, and John Roeh, who owns the patents on the curmotor pumps which the company plans to use.

plans to use.

The company expects to put water upon about 100,000 acres of the barren land in the Pasco district, pumping water from the Columbia. Some enormous pumps are planned and the work will be carried through on a big scale. The pumps are a new invention and The pumps are a new invention and work with a long, sweeping arm and deflection biade. They are especially designed for use in rivers where the current is not swift enough to supply power for ordinary pumps. A trial pump has been installed at Chandler, on the Yakima river, which has been supplying water for 80 acres of land and has shown a capacity of 200 gallons a min-

Mr. Hanson states that it is necessary to have the pumps made by special order, as no factory is turning them out. He hopes to get the work in operation next summer, but inability to secure pumps fast enough may cause the delay of another season.

The opening of this district to irrigation will be one of the biggest irri-gation profects ever undertaken in Washington, but the new company in-cludes some of the best-known irrigation men in the state and is equipped to undertake the task.

MT. TABOR MAY ASK ANNEXATION

The question of annexing a portion of the Mount Tabor district, or all of it, will come up soon for consideration by the city council. Petitions are now being circulated asking for a special election on the proposition, and if 15 per cent of the residents sign the papers the authorities will probably call the pol, of voters. At present it is not known whether the people at Montavilla wish to be annexed or not. By annexa-tion the district will receive the benefit of municipal water and sewer privileges. Mount Tabor has a population of 2,500, and Montavilla 1,500.

THE WRONG HOUSE? THE NEW WAY.

POLICE GET NO TEACK OF THE PAIR, ONE SUPPOSED TO BE A WOMAN, WHO ENTERED THE HOME OF JULES WAGNES ON WEDNESDAY MORNING.

The police have been unable to secure any trace of the two mysterious persons who entered the home of Jules Wagner and his wife at 685 Fourth street yesterday morning.

As stated by The Journal yesterday entrance was forced into the house occupied by the elderly couple, who be-lieve that one of the intruders was a woman. They say the woman was short and slight of build, while the man was

The fact that one of the supposed burglars appeared to be a woman is what mystifies the police. They cannot see why a woman should try to rob the old couple and the theory has been ad-vanced that the woman was a man of small size or a boy dressed in female attire as a disguise.

It was about 3 o'clock in the morning when the rear door was forced open and the old man and his wife were awakened by the noise. Both say that they clearly schools of Benton county take part in distinguished the outline of a woman's the exposition at St. Louis next year. figure. the intention to set out large numbers of sand-bearing plants on these spits, as well as in the vicinity of gun emplacements under construction, next fall, from the nursery, and gradually increase the area to be reclaimed. Surveys.

An examination was made of the bar in January, with the view of ascertaining the changes which had taken place since the survey of June, 1902. soundings taken showed a possible shoaling in the north channel and a somewhat increased depth of the south channel. The harbor throat also showed increase in depth.

The survey of the bar was commenced in June, but owing to rough weather and some slight repairs to the boller of the tug, was not completed until July 8.

The map of this survey shows very little change from the survey of June, 1902. The depth of the north channel has decreased and that of the south channel has increased by about one foot, thus making the navigable depths at the close of the year 20 feet, with a narrow channel of 21 feet, and 31 feet with a narrow channel of 23 feet, respectively, at the average of the lowest low water. Peacock spit shows further seaward movement of the lafoot curve of about one mile. There is practically no change in Clatsop spit nor in the 24-foot curve, while the inner 24-foot curve has advanced seaward, making the distance between the inner and outer 24-foot curves less than half

The total cost of the project, as entimated by the board of engineers, including the south jetty, north jetty and dredging, is $3,715,000. Of this sum $1,500,000 has been appropriated, leaving $2.215,000 needed for completion of the project.

More Funds. The estimated cost of the south jetty is $2,260,000. From the already approppriated funds it is proposed to pay the expense of remodeling the transport Grant and operating it as a dredge, and a very conservative estimate of funds required for this purpose is approxi-mately $500,000. As this expenditure will reduce the amount available for the south jetty by that amount, future ap-propriations should be large enough to supply this deficiency. The amount shown in the money statement—$1,250,000—should therefore be appropriated to insure no further delay to this important work.

This work has been in the efficient charge of G. B. Hegardt, assistant en gineer.

Project Proposed By Board. The board recommends the following project for the permanent improvement only brief excerpts being given from the report:

The existing jetty, hereafter called the south jetty, should be extended due west for a distance of two and a half miles unless impracticable depths, as hereafter noted, and encountered before that length of jetty has been con-structed. This work should be pushed seaward as rapidly as practicable. To produce a bar depth of 40 feet and a channel of suitable width, not less than one-half mile, and to maintain it permanently, will require a nearly com-plete control of the ebb flow across the

The construction of a north jetty is recommended at such time as its necessity becomes apparent, and in case the south jetty alone fails to produce or maintain a permanent 40-foot channel. This north jetty should start from the most suitable place on Cape Disappointment south of Mackenzie head and run in a generally southwesterly direction across Peacock Spit, following the line of least depths, but so located that if necessary it may be without abrupt change of direction ultimately extended to a point about two miles north of a point two and a half miles due west of the present end of the south jetty.
