AT THE THEATRES

Soami Ram, high priest of India, who has been lecturing and teaching in Port-land for the past ten days, has interested many people in his new plan for accomplishing effectual missionary work in India with the expenditure of very much less money than is at present devoted to missions in that country. This plan Ram will lay before the peo ple in a lecture on "The Condition of India," which he will deliver at the Marquam theatre on Sunday afternoon, December 20, at 3 o'clock. The lecture will be free, but reserved seats for same may be secured at the Marquam box office any time after 10 clock on Saturday morning.

old order of things is to be re versed. Out of the jungles of Upper India has come a man of astonishing wisdom, a prophet, philosopher, scien-tist and priest, who proposes to play the role of missionary in the United States, and preach a new doctrine of unselfish ness and spiritual power to the idola-trous worshippers of the mighty dollar. He is a Brahmin of the Brahmins, a Gosomai of the highest caste, and is known among his brethren as Soami

"How do I live." he said yesterday. "That is simple. I do not try. I be-lieve. I attune my soul to the harmony of love for all men. That makes all men love me, and where love is, there is no want, no suffering. This state of mind and faith brings influences to me that supply my needs without the asking. If I am hungry there is always some one to feed me. I am forbidden to receive money or to ask for thing, yet I have everything, and more than most, for I live largely in a world that few can attain, or do attain I should say, for it is possible to all it they but try. In return I give the world a knowledge of truths that beget more real happiness and benefit than the wealth of the world could buy." Soami Ram is a guest at the home of Mrs. O. N. Denny, 375 Sixteenth atreet, where he will be pleased to meet any one interested in his work or his philos-

Denman Thompson resurrected a play without much merit when he revived "The Two Sisters," a comedy - drama which appeared at the Marquam Grand last night. An acrobatic stunt introduced by a colored boy as a specialty received deserved applause.

There were a number of people in the cast who were likable, and Frank Karrington moulded the part of Hiram Pepper from Montana into a very entertaining character personation, and Anita Zorn and Evelyn Faber did un-usually well with two awkward roles as the two sisters, and Charles L. Banks gave a really side-splitting monologue on "Women" and was encored, repeat-

The motif of the play has to do with the adventures of two country girls, who go to New York looking for work. Of course, there is the usual villain, the betrayal and subsequent tragic death of the bad man, who drinks a dose of prussic acid in the last act. The wayward girl finds forgiveness and the tale ends with an expectation of peace, if not happiness, for the wronged heroine. Lillian Douglas, who essayed the part of Rosie, is rather attractive and pleas-

"The Two Sisters" is pre-eminently play for the popular-priced houses, and is out of its element at first-class theatres. It will survive in the former cir-cuit, but even chairty compels us to insist that it will not last long at more than 50 cents per.

ARCADE THEATRE.

Jessie Orr, a dainty brunette in red, is dancing her way into favor at the Arcade theatre this week. She does a rainbow dance that her grace and the flashing colored lights make entrancing. The Alideans, comedy acrobats, vie with her for popular favor. The entire bill is the most varied yet presented at this playhouse.

"THE BELLS."

As the week draws to a close on the spiendid performance of "The Bells" at ne Baker, interest seems to increase la the production, and last night was the largest attendance since Sunday. Mc. Alison is receiving much praise for his ine work in the star part of Mathias. The funny curtain-raiser provokes

GRAND CONCERT TONIGHT. Music lovers are anticipating a genuine treat at the grand free concert which is to be given tonight at Temple Beth Israel. The program is varied and comprises an unusually brilliant array of selections. The feature will be the initial appearance of Miss Genevieve Merriam, a talented mezzo-soprano, formerly of Minneapolis, who will be heard here for the first time. The singer is said to have a voice of remarkable range and quality: Mr. Edward E. Courtienne, Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer, Miss Carrie May, Mr. Harry Metzger, Mr. J. Adrian

Miss Leonors Fisher and Mc Edward Coursen have already been heard at recitals and concerts and their reappearance will be welcomed. The program follows: grande Offertorie de Concert...Thayer

"A MIDNIGHT BELL."

Beginning Sunday afternoon, the Ba ker company will play for Christmas week Hoyt's jovial character drams, "A Midnight Bell," and as Miss Oza Waldrop makes her debut in the company more than the usual interest is being manifested in the performance.

"THE BONNIE BEIER BUSE."

A welcome announcement in local the veteran actor, Mr. J. H. Stoddart, in Ian MacLaren's Scotch comedy, "The Bonnie Brier Bush," which comes to the Mar-quam Grand theatre next week, commencing Tuesday night, with matinees Christmas (Friday) and Saturday. This is the third transcontinental tour of this greatest of Scotch plays and the indisputable fact of its increasing popularity with each successive visit, is ample evidence that like Tennyson's brook it could "run on forever." Mr. Stoddart, Mr. Reuben Fax, and severa of the original cast, are still with the company, while the production, scenic-ally, is kept up to the high standard long ago adopted by Kirke La Shelle with all of his attractions. Few plays have received such un stinted praise and few actors have won such laurels as Mr. Stoddart at the ripe old age of 78. He has made this character the greatest artistic triumph of his long and honorable stage career, and local amusement lovers will remember the pronounced success made great old man when here last season. The advance sale of seats will open next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

"THE MINISTER'S SON." "The Minister's Son" attracted the biggest house since Sunday night at Cordray's theatre last night. This is gratifying to the management and plainly shows that theatre-goers appreciate a good, clean play. The matinee will be given Saturday. Next week, opening Sunday matines the attraction at Cordray's will be "Hello Bill," the first real farcical comedy of the season, and there will be special matines on Christmas day.
