OUR MOTTO

No artist too good—no salary too high. We cater to refined people who know a good thing.

TO THE PUBLIC

Mr. J. P. Kennedy, late of Klondike, has returned to Portland and has taken a 13-year lease of the Winter Garden in basement corner Third and Morrison, and engaged Fiskey Barnett as manager. Mr. Barnett is one of the best known and talented amusement managers on the coast, having had long years of practical experience and knows the talented people in vaudeville.

The place has been renovated and refitted and rearranged, and is now second to no place of the kind on the coast, and will be in the future conducted always on legitimate and clean lines—in fact, will cater to the

Lovers of Vaudeville

High class—not the vulgar, slap stick and negro acts kind—will surely appreciate our efforts.

IT—IT'S A GOOD THING

Best People of Portland and Vicinity—Ladies and Gentlemen.—At no time will any unladylike or ungentlemanly acts be tolerated. People who cannot conduct themselves properly are not wanted.

The Winter Garden will give afternoon and evening a high class Vaudeville performance. Each week the highest salaried people on the coast will be seen here.

Our music will consist of a full orchestra, the equal of any in the city, which will render the latest music between acts daily.

Our Grill Room is presided over by one of the best caterers to be procured and the culinary department will be the equal of any in the city. Popular prices. Our Wines, Liquors and Beer are the highest grades and sold at reasonable prices.

Trusting a liberal share of the amusement public's patronage, we are very truly, J. P. Kennedy, Proprietor. Fiskey Barnett, Manager

OUR MUSIC

Like the rest of the program, is the best money can procure. You enjoy the latest music our orchestra produces.
