

MAMMOTH SHIP NOW ABOUT DUE

MARK ANDORINHA COMING TO PORTLAND FROM SAN FRANCISCO IN THE BIGGEST BRITISH SAILING VESSEL IN THE WORLD—ARRIVES.

One of the largest British sailing vessels afloat is about due at the mouth of the Columbia river. She is the British bark Andorinha, which is en route to Portland from San Francisco. She of 3,187 net register tons, about twice the capacity of the average sailing vessel. The bark is capable of carrying 4,000 tons dead weight, and by measurement considerably more than that amount.

While the Andorinha is the largest sailing vessel that flies the union jack there are several German ships that have her discounted. Among the largest of these is the German ship Potosi, having a net registered tonnage of 3,854 and a gross tonnage of 4,027. She is accredited with being the largest windjammer in the world. The Potosi is owned by F. Laeisz of Hamburg, who operates a fleet of 15 mammoth freight-carriers.

Another vessel which left San Francisco for Portland at the same time as the Andorinha is the British bark Anacostis, which reached Astoria at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She is considerably smaller than the Andorinha, but capable of making much better time. The Anacostis is under charter to the Portland flouring mills, and the other is coming to Balfour, Guthrie & Co.

SLAVERY HORRORS

entrance was August 23, 1930, and the name of the applicant was Moy Yut Gum. The age given was 11 years, and Moy Sam Sing appeared and identified the girl as his daughter. The only mark of identification of the certificate was a photograph, and it is supposed that a picture of Chow Sheem was put in place of the one of the real daughter of Moy Sam Sing.

Behind the whole story is a tangle which threatens to result in a high-binder war in Chinatown, and the disclosures made by Chow Sheem only serve to intensify the plot. Moy Bun is a prominent member of Chinatown society. He is financially interested in a Chinese gambling house near the corner of Pine and Second streets, and is related to some of the wealthiest Chinese in Portland. He is backed by an influential coterie, all of whom join in the determination to cause some one to suffer for the misfortune he has sustained—first in losing a valuable slave, and second, in becoming implicated in a plot which must necessarily attach more or less suspicion.

Lay All Blame on Yuen Sing.

The one fated to suffer is Yuen Sing, an Americanized Chinaman in the employ of Rothchild Bros. liquor establishment. He is accused by Moy Bun of causing Chow Sheem to become disatisfied with her surroundings, and accordingly responsible for all of the trouble that has grown out of the affair. That he has been threatened by the highbinders, Yuen Sing himself admits. He believes that his life will pay the penalty, but he refuses to pay Moy Bun for his loss.

These threats were all passed before Chow Sheem's confession, and were the result of the loss sustained by Moy Bun, by her escape to the Rescue home. Now that the affair assumes a more serious aspect, and the operations of Moy Bun have been thoroughly exposed, it is hard to conceive the vengeance likely to be wreaked by his enraged friends.

In Moy Sam Sing the immigration officials believe they have one of the cleverest and most unscrupulous smugglers that ever operated in this part of the country. For a number of years he was a merchant in Chicago. Soon after the exclusion act of 1894, he sent his family back to China, but retained in his possession their certificates of residence, by means of which the officials believe he has effected a number of illegal entrances into the country. He is known to have a wife and daughter who are in China, and a son who lives

FOUR DRESSMAKERS FATALLY INJURED

PANIC-STRIKEN BY FIRE, THEY JUMP FROM THE FIFTH STORY WINDOW—OTHERS SERIOUSLY HURT—ELEVATOR CAR DROPPED FIVE FLOORS.

(Journal Special Service.)

Dayton, O., Dec. 18.—Four women employed at dressmaking in the Canby building became panic-stricken in a fire this morning and jumped from the fifth story. Minnie Troxell, two Levison sisters and Mrs. Frank Hughes are probably fatally injured. Ellis Reader, the elevator man, became excited and lost control of the car, which fell five floors and was fatally hurt. Elias Saunders fell three stories from the fire escape and is injured seriously. All would have escaped easily, as the fire was confined to the store in the basement. Smoke filling the building caused the panic.

with his father. It was on one of these certificates, that of his daughter, Moy Yut Gum, that Chow Sheem was smuggled across the border, and the officials believe this to be only one instance in many.

Son Is Also Clever.

The son's name is Moy Gee Poon, but he goes under the American name of Henry Moy. While only 12 years old, he is possessed of remarkable cleverness and is a colleague in all of his father's smuggling schemes. The older Moy meets the unmeted Celestials at the border, sneaks them across the line and arms them with forged certificates, while the son steers them to their destination. Not infrequently he passes through Portland at the head of 10 or 12 foreigners, bound for San Francisco or Los Angeles.

PORTLANDERS WILL SPEAK.

Washington Bureau of The Journal. Washington, Dec. 18.—Jefferson Myers and W. L. Boise of the Lewis and Clark committee will take part in the hearing tomorrow before the senate expedition's committee, and will speak in behalf of Senator Mitchell's bill. They both listened to Senator Fulton's speech today and express gratification of his able presentation.

IN HUSBAND'S POCKET

Wife's Discovery There Spills Christmas Surprise.

A Little Slip of Paper Arouses Suspicion, and the Secret is Out. An Example Which Many Should Follow.

The holiday season is full of surprises, the most of which are pleasant, we are happy to say. Generally they reveal a thoughtfulness and consideration for the pleasure and happiness of others. That any of them should be spoiled is a great pity. But we doubt if the discovery of a lady in Portland, who had an errand to her husband's pocket, really resulted in any disappointment. In her search for a note sent her by a friend through her husband, and which he had forgotten to deliver, she unfolded a slip of paper, which, on reading, she discovered to be the first receipt from Eilers Piano House for payment on an exceedingly choice piano. Her delight was so great she could not keep it, she just had to ask him if it were really true. So, after confessing, he came to our store and told us we might as well send it up now, instead of holding it until Christmas, as the secret was out. The piano, one of our special art styles, designed for the Christmas trade, is now in one of Portland's most cultured homes.

Our store is full of just such beautiful and enticing instruments, pianos in a great variety of exclusive styles. We are making a special feature of prompt Christmas delivery at the proper time. Already we are holding an immense number, which are intended for Christmas gifts, some of which were purchased as early as two months ago, but we are amply able to take care of twice as many, if necessary.

Prices, as usual, are the lowest that can be asked on pianos of such great merit. On these instruments, as well as on all others, moderate terms of payment can be arranged and old instruments taken at a very liberal valuation. Eilers Piano House, largest, leading and lowest price piano concern on the Pacific Coast, No. 351 Washington street, corner Park.

ESCAPES LONG SENTENCE.

(Journal Special Service.) London, Dec. 18.—George Robinson, the engineer who made a murderous attack on Secretary of the Bank of England Graham, nearly a month ago, was today adjudged insane and sent to hospital.

AT THE THEATRES

Next week will bring to the Marquam Grand the play and players who created such an unusually favorable impression during their engagement here last season. J. H. Stoddard and Reuben Fax, in a clever dramatization of Jan Maclear's Scottish tale, "The Bonnie Briar Bush," which is booked for five nights, beginning Tuesday next, with matinee Friday (Christmas day) and Saturday, and the announcement should be a source of much satisfaction to all who witnessed this charming performance a year ago. The same beautiful scenic production is promised, and an excellent acting company, among whom are many who were here during the previous engagement. The advance sale of seats will open tomorrow (Saturday) morning at 10 o'clock.

The concert which was given at Temple Beth Israel, slight proved to be one of the most delightful affairs of the season in the musical world. The program was cleverly arranged and magnificently rendered. Each one of the numbers was a gem of beauty, and to the ladies' auxiliary, under whose auspices the musicale was given, all credit is due.

The concert served the purpose of introducing Miss Genevieve Merriam, formerly of Minneapolis, for the first time to a Portland audience. She has a good mezzo-soprano voice and is possessed of a rare artistic instinct that adds greatly to her expression.

Edward E. Courtenay, piano virtuoso, improvised a very brilliant number. The program was as follows:

- "Grande Overture de Concert".....Thayer
- Miss Leonora Fisher.
- "Calm as the Night".....Bohm
- Mrs. Irene Carter May.
- "Simple Aven".....Thome
- Henry Metzger.
- "Don Falala" (from "Don Carlos").....Verdi
- Miss Genevieve Merriam.
- Improvisation, "Free Fantasia on Momentary Inspiration".....
- .....Edward E. Courtenay
- "A Forest Song".....Whelpley
- Mrs. Rose Bloch-Bauer.
- "I Envy the Bird" (from "The Serenade").....De Koven
- J. Adrian Epping.
- Miss Leonora Fisher and Edgar E. Courtenay, accompanists.

ARCADE THEATRE.
Kehoe and Rainer and the Alldena, comedy acrobats, are the mirth-makers at the Arcade. Kehoe sings "Way Down in Maine" and Rainer "That's What," and their conversational quips are amusing. Frank Bowman, the magician, does novel feats of legerdemain. Leslie Pomroy, in illustrated songs, wins the title of the best ballad singer that has ever visited Portland.

"THE MINISTER'S SON."
"The Minister's Son," with W. B. Patton as Simon Ray, will be the offering at Cordray's theatre tonight and at the matinee and evening performances tomorrow, for the last time. This company has made friends and done well in the face of Christmas distractions.

"HELLO BILL."
The patrons of Cordray's theatre will have something to laugh at next week, when "Hello Bill," one of the funniest of all farce comedies, opens at Cordray's on Sunday with a special matinee. The play will remain all week, with a Christmas matinee on Friday.

Sig Sichel & Co., 92 Third St.
"Our Own Mixture," the best pipe tobacco ever produced; costs no more than the ordinary kind.

LUMBER YARD BURNS.
Harrisonville, Mo., Dec. 18.—A fire today destroyed the Harrisonville lumber yard. The loss was $40,000.

MADE THOUSANDS OF THEM

While conducting the manufacture of the White Gold Crowns in San Francisco our Dr. L. L. White turned out thousands of these most perfect adjuncts to successful dentistry. It therefore goes without saying that he ought, at least, to know more about these crowns than any other man, as he invented, patented and manufactured them. Thousands of dentists all over the country use these crowns now. Indeed more of them are sold than of all other kinds combined. Citizens of Portland may have them, too, by having their dental work done here.
