

A FISCAL PROPOSAL IN ENGLAND

Mrs. E. Conomy—"I've been reckoning up our expenses, dear, and I find that you spend £50 a year on sixpenny cigars. Now, if you were to smoke threepenny cigars instead there would be enough saved to keep me in hats for six months. See how I study economy!"

ETERNAL REGRETS

Mrs. Brown—"She seems to have got over the death of her first husband."
Mr. Brown—"Yes, but her second husband hasn't."
