TRANSACTIONS IN THE FINANCIAL WORLD

BOTH BRAN AND SHORTS ARE 50 CENTS A TON HIGHER ON AC-COURT OF STIFFER DEMAND-COPPERS HIGHER-EGGS WEAK-

Front Street, Jan. 2.—The principal items of interest in the local markets today were:

Feed ranging higher, Eggs weaker and lower. Changes in butter. All coffees higher. Large poultry demand. Wheat still weak. Very few hops are left.

Feed Ranges Higher.

The practical opening of the feeding eason has caused a much larger demand to prevail in that market and quotations are about 50 cents a ton higher today on bran and shorts. . Middlings are unchanged.

Portland Won't Pollow Bast.

The Portland wheat market does not seem to follow the lead of the eastern markets in their advances and no quotations of any moment nave taken place in this market for some time. The principal reason for the advances in the price of wheat in the East seems to be on account of the extensive demand for flour in the Middle West which the millers were unable to supply at the the demand for flour from the outside seems to be nominal, as both Japan and China are heavily overstocked and only active warfare and a prolonged struggle at that would cause any further calls for stocks from that direction. No changes are noted in local figures on either wheat

Few Hops Are Unsold.

Each additional day shows more sales of hops at the top price-25 cents and now the stocks remaining in the hands of the farmers are small indeed. It is difficult matter to give an estimate at this time of the hops unsold and an accurate count would be impossible. The hop market is very weak, with the dealers bulling the prices for all they are worth. The situation as it now stands is that the dealers are in absolute control and the few bales remaining unsold cut but little figure with the market. From those on the inside the information comes that soon there will be a change in prices, either for the better or worse. With the dealers in full control they will make a strong effort to boost prices clear out of sight but whether they can accompaigh this is a matter of conjecture. The sales of hops in this state of late have been for Eggs Are Weaker and Lower.

The price of eggs shows a decline to day and the market is weaker, with the receipts coming heavier each day on acount of the warmer weather. Local Front street merchants are well filled with fresh eggs and they are not refusing any prices from 27% to 30 cents #

Poultry Remains Pirm. Although Saturday is usually a very dull day in the Front street market, the fact that it followed directly after New Year's did make it doubly so and business on the street was quiet. This was not true, however, in the poultry market, for the demand here was very strong, with the receipts out of all proportion to the call. A few turkeys, both live and dressed, arrived in and found a good demand at current prices.

Fresh Meats Very Firm.

The fresh meat markets are very firm on all products at yesterday changes. There is a particular dearth of veal of all kinds, and the few arrivals are eagerly snapped up at slightly higher prices than those listed Good hogs, in fact all hogs, are wanted at the new prices.

Store Butter Slumps. The receipts of country store butter have simply caused a slump in the local figures. Arrivals of late have broken all records in this market. Creamery butter of ordinary grade is still weak with the demand for the very choicest goods fair. Prices of creamery are about the same. Lion Coffee is Higher. With the advance of Lion coffee today all eastern package coffee of the cheaper grades are quoted at the same price—$13.75. The advance in Lion brand was 50 cents a hundred. The entire coffee market is showing a firm In Potato and Onion Market. There was no change in the shipping demand for potatoes, and prices in this market remain unchanged today. Local dealers in touch with the San Francisco market say that nothing except very best goods are selling. No improvement is expected in this market during the coming week. There is a slightly better tone in onlors, but so far prices remain unchanged.

Opinions on Today's Market. Opinions on Today's Market.

W. B. Glafke Company—No improvement in the prune situation; creamery butter is still weak and pilling up.

Turner & Co. — Poultry is entirely cleaned up at top prices; eggs are accumulating faster and the market is weaker and lower.

Mark Levy & Co.—Business opened up fairly good for the second day of the year—and Saturday, too.

Bell & Co.—Car fancy Merced sweet potatoes came in today; prices are gen-potatoes came in today; prices are gen-

Chatterton & Co.—Poultry of all kinds continues to find sale at top prices; pork looking up in price; cream-ery butter shows no improvement. Levy & Spiegi—Some very fine hothouse tomatoes came in from Los Angeles per express today.

G. S. Smith Company—Chickens in good demand; medium apples are good sellers, D. E. Meikle—Don't look for any change in potato business for a few days anyway; onlons are a little firmer than they were. Davenport, Thompson & Co.—Car ba-nanas due tonight; steamer goods sold Everding & Farrell-Oregon eggs are weaker and lower; country store and dairy very weak, lower and accumulating; poultry very scarce, with market completely cleaned up at quotations. W. S. Swank-The steamer Elder ar-rived in 'Frisco too late to do any business in potatoes until today; expect to-night's steamer to take small cargo to Page & Son-Car celery and car sweet poultry coming in and everybody seems to want it; good demand for veal and hogs; eggs weaker and lower. McKinley Mitchell—Hop market still booming; expect some change in market prices soon; potatoes continue dull and no change is expected for few days. Toft, Hine & Co.—Receipts in all lines were small today, but this being Saturday and right after a holiday, the demand was not excessive. The market is in good shape for heavy receipts of all kinds. Eggs are rather weak. Today's quotations, as revised, are Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co., Portland: The year just passed has been a very eventful one in the speculative world, especially as regards New York securities; 1902 opened with a very pessimistic tone, but owing to the previous feeling of enthusiasm engendered by record-breaking prices during 1902, there were sharp rallies and recoveries of some moment, until the industrial world began to feel apprehensive of a contraction in business, when the market simped rapidly and declines of 50 and 75 points net were scored in the more active issues. This feeling of gloom has been partially dissipated of late owing to the clearing of the shipbullding trust and kindred schemes, Stocks are again on a level which invite the attention of conservative investors (the only class which cause permanent advantage to speculative holdings), and New York bankers are advising their clients to buy the better class of railroad stocks as an investment. The new year does not open auspiciously, owing to rumors of trouble in the political world, but the chances of this country being entangled are very remote, hence we feel that our stocks should not suffer much. Of course American securities being listed in London, and England from all accounts feeling apprehensive over the situation in the Far East, crratic movements may be looked for until diplomacy or actual hostilities have cleared the air.

til diplomacy or actual hostilities have cleared the air.

Dicks Bros., New York: The market has been demoralized today, heavy selling being influenced by the intuation in the Far East, war being apparently inevitable. A very unfavorable bank statement showing an increase of $16,000.000 in loans was another depressing factor. All of the active stocks showed the effect of heavy selling for both accounts, Pools dumped out leng lines of stocks without much regard to prices. The selling continued to the close and final prices were the lowest of the day. The breaks ranged from two to four points in the most active stocks. The expectation of a demoralized Lendon market was an influence at the close.

MARKETS ADVANCE

WHEAT WAS EXCITED AND GLOSED ABOUT 3 CENTS HIGHER WITH CORN 2 CENTS UP ON THE SAME CONDITIONS-OATS FIRM AND AD-VANCING-PROVISIONS UP.

(Furnished by Overbeck, Starr & Cooke Co.) Chicago, Jan. 2.—Logan & Bryan advise: The wheat market was excited and about 3 cents higher. There was a very heavy general trade, so large that it is impossible to estimate the individual operations. Armour probably sold some wheat, but it is difficult to guess how War news is the dominant factor. All other influences being at the moment subservient. When the war is once begun between Russia and Japan we can foresee the probable complications. The actions of Russia herself in respect to the exportation of food products, is a matter of uncertainty, as she has under like conditions in the past absolutely prohibited them. In any event, which ever way the news turns, an active, irregular market seems assured and wide fluctuations are more than probable. 'In view of this we advise conservatism, both in operations and in the protection of accounts.

Corn 2 Cents Up. The corn market closed about 2 cents higher. As in wheat, war was the controlling interest. There was a large general trade, much covering of shorts and what seemed to be liberal buying by Armour. Immediate condition of supply and demand are not potent. The market is likely to be flighty. We think we would continue to buy corn on sharp

Oats Firm and Higher. The oats market is firm and higher in sympathy with corn and wheat. There was not a very large trade considering the activity in other markets and there was nothing special outside of general conditions to note.

Provisions Sharply Advance.

Provisions show sharply advancing prices, and an active general trade characterized the market. The covering of shorts contributed, but provisions were affected by the general advancing con-ships which fly are as good practically ditions of other markets. They are likely to be controlled very materially. by the political news in the immediate

MELROSE MOVED

At last the schooner Melrose has been taken off the bar at Vancouver, where she had been aground with a cargo of lumber for the past week. The tugboat F. B. Jones pulled her out into deep water yesterday after the vessel had been sufficiently lightered. Her cargo will now be reloaded from barges and in a short time she will be ready to leave down for the sea. Her destination is the Bay City.

The schooner Forrester arrived in ort last night and began taking on lumper this morning for Japan at the Inman-Poulsen mill. She will carry about
