$750 in realty will be given away the 12th day of January, at Estacada. Every person present that day will have a chance to secure a residence or business lot free—without investing a single penny. The parties who are successful in this free gift of a homestead will receive a warranty deed from the Oregon Water Power Townsite Co. before leaving the city of Estacada, on the day of sale. The distribution of free lots will be conducted by a committee which will be selected by all parties present. Come to the big lot sale and help make Estacada the second metropolis of the West. Trains leave First and Alder streets at 7:40 and 9 o'clock a. m. on the 12th day of January. Round trip excursion fare 75 cents.

The cause of the death of Joel W. Payne, who died at Good Samaritan hospital yesterday was blood poisoning with which he had been suffering six weeks. His foot was crushed by a falling box and while at first it was not thought serious, complications followed resulting in his death. Mr. Payne came to Portland in 1886 and was 66 years of age. For years he has been a salesman with Allen & Lewis. Three sons and a daughter survive him: J. F. Payne and Mrs. L. J. Cleland, Portland; J. W. Payne, Kentucky; G. F. Payne, now in the Philippines. Mrs. E. C. Brownough of this city is a sister and C. H. Payne, Davenport, Wash., a brother.

Detective Welner last night recovered diamonds valued at $225, which had by mistake been sent to a Chinese laundry wrapped in soiled linen. The gems belonged to R. J. Burley. As soon as the mistake was discovered Mr. Burley hastened to police headquarters and Detective Welner accompanied him to the laundry at Front and Clay streets. The laundryman was about to open the package of clothing, but the detective did so instead and the owner found the diamonds. The laundry was sent at 10 o'clock yesterday morning and it was 10:50 last night before the bundle was unopened.

The judiciary committee of the city council yesterday decided to pay a judgment of $71 obtained by G. E. Thomas in Justice Reid's court for trouble incurred in looking up a horse that had been captured by the poundmaster. The animal was later sold and Thomas identified his animal by means of a brand which had escaped the eyes of the officials because it had been hidden by a crop of hair. City Attorney McNary said that the individual employee was liable for damages, but as a matter of equity the committee decided that the city should justly pay the claim.

Scottish Rite Masons of the state will hold their semi-annual reunion in Portland January 14 and 15. The services will be held in the new temple on Morrison and Lowndes streets. Delegations of big Masons are expected to attend from all parts of the Coast. An interesting program has been arranged for the event, and for the first time of the Rocky mountains the fifteenth degree will be conferred.

The will of Rosetta Barker was admitted to probate in the county court yesterday. A. H. Bell is named as executor without bonds. The estate, valued at $5,000 and in which Mrs. Susan Barker, mother of the deceased, has a life interest, is bequeathed to Edward D. Barker, a brother, with instructions to pay $100 each to his sisters, Mrs. Lorena Holcomb, Mrs. Selma Barr and Mrs. Alma Hall.

During the absence of the family from 4 to 5:30 p. m., a burglar entered the home of Representative A. A. Bailey at Hawthorne and West avenues Sunday evening. With great care he removed several potted plants from a window sill so he might enter without doing any damage. The window he forced with an ax. He stole two pairs of opera glasses, a valuable umbrella and some jewelry.

Portland people have desires and appetites the same as other people. This is why preference, lebkuchen, baumkuchen and stollen, those high-class German confections, made by the Royal Bakery and confectionery, Washington and Park, have so enraptured those who have become acquainted with their delicacy. This is the only place in Oregon where these table delights may be found.

Louis Kallisch, a Woodlawn baker, was sentenced yesterday to serve 10 days in the city jail because of a drunken freak Saturday night. He went into a passageway at the rear of the Peerless saloon at Third and Ash streets and fired a pistol, then ran to the ground with a moan. People attracted to the scene thought he was badly hurt. He was without a scratch.

The funeral of Mrs. Mary J. Russell, who died suddenly on Sunday, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. C. Albee, 680 Schuyler street, was held this afternoon from the residence. The deceased was 80 years of age and left five children: A. P. Russell, Mrs. H. C. Albee, Mrs. F. W. Harmon of this city, and Mrs. John Hanly and Mrs. A. G. Coleman of San Francisco.

ACCUSED OF COWARDICE.

(Journal Special Service.) New York, Jan. 5.—In accordance with the order of Secretary Moody, acting on the recommendation of the board of naval officers which went to Iona, N. Y., to investigate the explosion in the naval magazine there, resulting in the loss of 120 lives, a general court-martial met at the New York navy yard today for the trial of Otto Fries, gunner in charge, and Sergeant Brooks, in charge of the marine guard. Fries is charged with failing to observe the necessary precautions, as the regulations in such cases provide, and Brooks is charged with running away and seeking a place of safety, taking his men with him.

TRIAL OF LIEUT. CASTLEMAN.

(Journal Special Service.) Norfolk, Va., Jan. 5.—A court-martial convened at the navy yard here today for the trial of Lieut. Kenneth Castleman, commanding the gunboat Yankton, on charges arising out of a collision in the harbor of Norfolk on November 27, in which the Yankton sank the tug Hustler and endangered the lives of eight men aboard. Lieutenant Castleman is charged with failing to observe the necessary precautions, as the regulations in such cases provide, and Brooks is charged with running away and seeking a place of safety, taking his men with him.

"BRICK" JOHNSON ARRESTED.

(Journal Special Service.) Helena, Mont., Jan. 5.—"Brick" Johnson was yesterday arrested at Billings at the request of Walla Walla county, Oregon, officials. Beyond the fact that the charge is a serious one, no details are known here. The sheriff of that county will reach Helena with requisition papers in a day or two, when Johnson will be returned to Oregon and stand trial.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS HOPELESSLY DIVIDED

Ladies and Gentlemen: Conforming to the usual custom, we herewith beg to submit for your information a report of our work during the fiscal year just ending, and we sincerely trust that it will meet with your approval.

At the last annual meeting we furnished you an estimate of what our expected receipts and disbursements would be for the present year. As it is human to err we have merely exemplified the maxim, as you will find that our estimates have been under the actual amount expended in several respects.

The school census of district No. 1 is increasing in greater proportion each year and our estimates have not quite kept up. In our opinion, with such increase, this we have endeavored to remedy in our estimates for the coming year. Last year our estimate for new buildings was $75,000. Actual amount expended in excess of that amount, $13,237. The repair fund is over 50 per cent in excess of the amount estimated. Streets, sewers and sidewalks are also in excess of the amount so estimated. Various other items will be found in the same conditions as are in as good shape, we believe, as could be expected with the amount of money expended upon them. We have been compelled to change the sanitary condition of the Couch school at a cost of $2,635. This includes all repairs to that building for the year. The high school has cost $4,345.60 for new plumbing and moving of the laboratory. On Clinton Kelley we have expended $1,214.99 for plumbing and other repairs. These three items cover the greater part of our repair expense for the past year and accounts for the excess over our estimate.

Other Needed Expenditures. The coming year will need still greater expenditures in the direction of heating, ventilation and sanitation. Our own knowledge of the situation, together with the present crusade and investigation that is being made by various of the local and local associations, and the public school system and the strong interest that is being shown by parents for the welfare of their children, will certainly make it necessary to increase the estimate for the betterment of all the older school buildings now used by the district. You will find it necessary to install in the high school a new heating and ventilating plant. This will cost between $9,000 and $10,000, according to our lowest estimate. Other places will also need improvement, as each year they are growing older and demand greater attention and expense for the improvement of streets and the putting down of stone sidewalks and the rapid extension of our sewer system will make it necessary to increase the estimate for such purposes.

Regarding New Buildings. You will find it necessary to spend a considerably larger amount of money during the coming year and instead of spent in the past, and, as stated before in this report, our expenditures for the past year have exceeded our estimates. Therefore, unless you make a generous provision for the coming year you will certainly find yourselves more seriously handicapped each succeeding year. There is need, in our opinion, of an addition of four rooms at South Portland, four rooms at Clinton Kelley and four rooms at East Twenty-eighth and Couch streets on a new block purchased by us for the district. This block should have an eight-room building in addition to the present number of rooms, and this eight-room building should be built in such a manner so that later on an addition can be made whenever the demand for school space becomes imperative. Central is in need of a four-room addition. The property for the same has been purchased. Portsmouth needs four rooms, as we are using portables there. Williams Avenue is very crowded. We are renting buildings in that section of the city and using portables. Couch needs your attention, as the school is badly crowded and we are using two portable schools at the present time at that point. We believe it would be advisable to secure a location at some point between Couch and Chapman schools and build sufficient rooming schools and build sufficient rooming schools and build sufficient rooming schools.

We believe that the amount we have recommended for new buildings will be absolutely necessary to maintain the present efficiency of our schools. Taking into consideration the yearly increase, with a lesser sum it will prove inadequate and it is possible in the future. We have found that the taxpayers have always responded generously to whatever demands have been made upon them in the way of estimates by your school board. The great difficulty has been on the part of the school board being a trifling too conservative in its estimates in asking for a less amount than was reasonably necessary for the carrying on of the public schools of the district. This we will also endeavor to remedy at this time by making our estimate as realistic as possible in accordance with what we consider to be the actual amount necessary at this time, feeling that the responsibility for any shortage should lie with the taxpayers of the district instead of the board.

New Property Purchased.

We have purchased during the past year the following properties for school purposes: Three lots adjoining the Albina Central school for the sum of $1,500; lots adjoining Brooklyn school, $1,450; lots adjoining Peninsular school, $2,501; lots adjoining Sellwood school, $2,113; block on East Twenty-eighth street, between Couch and Davis streets (10 lots), $5,000; total, $13,237.13. This will give the district the property necessary for their wants for the coming year and probably for several years to come except location suggested between Couch and Chapman schools.

The Year's Building.

We have built, during the present year, a fine new school building at Highland, eight rooms at North Central, eight rooms at Stephens school, completing only four of them.

Bonded Indebtedness.

Bonded indebtedness: At the last annual meeting we reported that there was outstanding $120,000 in 8 per cent bonds, $10,000 of which mature in 1910, $10,000 in 1916 and $100,000 were issued in 1893 running for 20 years, but redeemable at the end of 10 years at the option of the district. Your directors found it was possible to finance $100,000 of these bonds so that a saving could be made for the district, and again refund them on a basis of 5 per cent, and that the state land board would purchase the bonds. Ten thousand dollars was retired during the year from the proceeds of levy made for that purpose at your last annual meeting, leaving $90,000 to be taken care of. There has since been an election held at which, by an affirmative

Thirteen Pianos Sold at Eilers Piano House Saturday, Fourteen Yesterday — More Particulars and Terms of Payment.

Yesterday was another busy day at the co-operative piano sale of Eilers Piano House. On Saturday, when the stores were kept open in the evening, 13 pianos were sold. Yesterday up to 5 o'clock 14 more pianos and pianolas had been disposed of.

The news of this co-operative sale is spreading rapidly. Instruments yesterday were sold to buyers from Bellingham, Wash., The Dalles, Or., Albany, Astoria and Aumsville.

There will undoubtedly be more than a hundred pianos sold during the coming week, and at this rate of selling all of the five clubs will be filled before the time originally allotted expires.

The sale includes the finest instruments made in America, among them the glorious old Chickering of Boston, the great Weber of New York, and the now famous Kimball of Chicago, as also the Vose, the new Hobart M. Cable, the Crown Orchestral, the Doll, etc., etc.

Terms of payment have been made so easy now that no one need hesitate about running for 10 years, but redeemable at any time after the first year. Your board of directors considered that this was an advantageous move on their part for the benefit of the district.

We have called your attention to the special matters that have been placed during the past year and instead of embodying the tabulated statement in our report, we refer you to the clerk's reports which will give you the details of the receipts and disbursements for the past year.

We respectfully submit our estimate for the coming year, and we hope that our figures will commend themselves to your favorable consideration and that you will furnish the board with the amount they have recommended.

Estimates from All Sources.

The board estimates that from all sources the district will receive the following amounts:

Cash on hand $ 25.00
County school fund 195,000
State school fund 40,000
District school fund 500
Sundry cash receipts 600
Tuition 800
Total $257,500

Estimate of Disbursements for 1904.

October (teachers' pay, 1903-1904) $ 26,500
November (teachers' pay, 1903-1904) 283,000
January salaries 22,000
School clerk's salary 700
Superintendent's clerk's salary 700
Superintendent of repairs and new buildings, including Atkinson school 125,000
Interest 7,500
Insurance 4,000
Water 1,700
Rent 1,000
Stationery 2,500
Fuel 9,000
Gas 500
Janitors' supplies 1,400
Printing 900
Street and sewer cleaning 20,000
Repairs and sanitation 20,000
(This includes High School estimate for heating and painting.)

High school laboratory.

Expense of school election 450
School winter 7,000
Attorney's fee 500
School census 600
Extraordinary expenses 1,500
Total $527,275

The assessed valuation of the property of the district for the year is $45,084,554.

We have carefully made the foregoing estimate for the maintenance of the schools only for the ensuing year, and if it is correct it will require a levy of a special tax to meet it of not less than 3 1/2 mills, which we recommend.

In the foregoing estimates of disbursements there will be found nothing for new buildings. The reason for this omission is that the several members of the board have been unable to agree upon the amount to recommend for this purpose and have, therefore, concluded to submit that part of the report to the taxpayers without recommendation, feeling that whatever is decided upon by the taxpayers will be for the best interest of all concerned.

ENGINE RUNS AWAY

AND SMASHES THINGS

(Journal Special Service.) Helena, Mont., Jan. 5.—There was a spectacular wreck on the Great Northern at Clancy late yesterday. Engineer Brown and fireman were entrusted with the care of the engine, which was out of repair, and were told to take it to Clancy. Starting down the mountain from Corbin, the engine got out of control. Realizing that there was no hope of stopping the engine both engineer and fireman jumped, the latter landing in a snowdrift, sustaining only slight injuries. Brown was seriously injured.

A freight train was standing in the Clancy yards and into this the wild engine plunged with a terrific crash. Both engines were literally smashed to fragments, while a number of freight cars were thrown from the track, which was torn up for a considerable distance. The engineer and fireman of the freight train saw the approaching engine in time to get out of harm's way.

STREET CAR TOLLS ON CITY BRIDGES

PRESIDENT PAXTON AFTER INFORMATION AS TO RATES FOR LIKE ACCOMMODATION IN THE EAST—DOES NOT WANT HIS COMPANY DISCRIMINATED AGAINST.

The officers of the Portland Railway company, while opposing a marked increase in the Burnside bridge tolls, do not oppose the company's paying as much as any other local corporation for the same concessions. President F. O. Paxton of the railway company said this morning:

"We have had a meeting with the county commissioners and will have another when we receive data from the East relative to the tolls paid by eastern companies. We have no desire to shrink from bearing our burden of taxation so long as we are not discriminated against, and as we have done more than any other company to build up Portland during the last season, we feel that we should not be made to suffer for our improvements and progress."

"We are at present on the same basis as the City & Suburban company, paying $150 a month for the Burnside street bridge. I understand that the new arrangement is that the City & Suburban will pay 3 cents a car or a minimum of $12,000 a year, but this is for a new bridge. On the new Morrison bridge, as I understand it, the car tracks will be so separated from the roadway that traffic will not be impeded. This one this is worth thousands of dollars, for constantly our cars are delayed on the Burnside bridge because of trucks and heavy wagons of all sorts, and when one car gets off schedule, as closely as we run them out Union avenue, the whole system is unbalanced."

"Then the City & Suburban runs about twice as many cars across the Morrison street bridge as we do across the Burnside bridge, and so their minimum would hardly with justice apply to us. We have not yet received information of the tolls charged eastern streetcar companies for bridge accommodations. When we hear better tell what is the right amount to charge us. We are informing ourselves on the subject and as we gather data will turn it over to the county for its information."

Mr. Paxton also stated that the Morrison bridge, because of its cost, is a much more valuable thoroughfare than the Burnside bridge, and intimated that if the Portland railway could gain a right of way over this structure it would soon send out lines into the Mt. Tabor, Mt. Scott, Lents and Oregon City country.

OLD ELDERS WILL APPEAL TO SYNOD

"No, of course we shall not resign under any circumstances," said W. E. Spicer, elder in the Grand Avenue Presbyterian church, yesterday when asked concerning the future course of Elders W. E. Spicer, Hugh Nesbitt, Ralph Miller and R. G. Hamilton, who were requested to resign by the presbytery owing to the controversy between them and their pastor, Rev. J. H. Gibson. The elders mentioned were opposed to Dr. Gibson. When the presbytery's recommendation that the elders resign was selected, the presbytery called a meeting to take action on this refusal. The meeting was not regularly called and for that reason was declared illegal by Elder A. J. Spear, moderator. The matter was passed up to the presbytery, in session today at Albany.

The church has elected four new elders to take the place of those who were asked to resign. The elders will appeal to the synod and also to the general assembly.

SPANISH IDEA SOLVES PROBLEM

J. Flood Walker, architect of the Idaho building at the St. Louis exposition, was in the city yesterday afternoon. Mr. Walker confronted the problem of devising a suitable building for Idaho from the small appropriation made and solved it by designing a Spanish stone hacienda, roofed with red tile. The building will have 10 rooms looking out into a central court, which will have a fountain and will be turned into a bower of wild plants and flowers. Though the entire appropriation of the state was but $25,000, through the generosity of the women of the state and the work of business men, the building will contain an exhibit worth more than $150,000.
