The officers of the George Wright and The officers of the George Wright and Lincoln-Garfield posts and corps were publicly installed at the headquarters of George Wright corps in Eagles' hall last Saturday evening, the two posts and Lincoln-Garfield corps being, the guests of George Wright corps. Mrs. Mary E. Chamberlain, past department secretary, acted as installing officer. After the services were concluded a short musical program was rendered. After the services were concluded a short musical program was rendered, and bountiful refreshments were served. About 200 were present. Following are the officers of George Wright corps for 1964: President, Elsie May Shafer; senior U. P., Sadie Hamilton; Junior U. P., Helen N. Packard; secretary, Mary F. Chamberlain; treasurer, Mary K. Pferdner; chaplain, Mary Goodwin; conductor. Tree Smith, ward Mrs. Wetzel. ductor, Inez Smith; guard, Mrs. Wetzel.

out," almost, a few weeks ago. What goods were saved have been collected together and placed in the building formerly occupied by the Holman Undertaking company, Fourth and Yamhill, where a fire sale is now in progress, and if the crowd in attendance a nre sale is now in progress, and if the crowd in attendance is a criterion by which to the sales may be judged, the stock won't last long. It is going with a rush—and for a song. The prices obtained are almost nothing at all. And much of the goods on sale are only day. much of the goods on sale are only damaged by a little smoke and a trifle "yellowed" by water.

$750 in realty will be given away the 12th day of January, at Estacada. Every person present that day will have a lot free—without investing a single penny. The parties who are successful in this free gift of a homesite will re-ceive a warranty deed from the Oregon Water Power Townsite Co. before leav-ing the city of Estacada, on the day of sale. The distribution of free lots will be conducted by a committee which will be selected by all parties present. Come to the big lot sale and help make Estacada the second metropolis of the West. Trains leave First and Alder streets at 7:40 and 9 o'clock a. m. on the 12th day of January. Round trip excursion fare 75 cents.

Cars will be running over the completed Russell street extension of the Portland Railway company in the early Work will shortly be commenced to extend the line to University Park. That completed runs from Union avenue out Russell street to Gantenbein, Gantenbein to Monroe, Monroe to Commercial then over Shaver to Maryland avenue, where it finishes. entire distance is nearly all double-tracked except for a short way on some of the narrower thoroughfares. Work and he alleges that a similar roll use is being rushed on the Vine street extension which will shortly be finished The steel bridge for the new Portland heights line has not yet been shipped.

Because satisfaction was acknowledged in the municipal court this morning, Lester Foster of University Park, whose arrest was reported in The Journal day before yesterday, for robbing his mother's house, was released from custody yesterday. Foster is 26 years of age and has served both in the army and navy. Detectives Kerrigan and Snow learned where he had pawned a number of articles, including a revolver, a mandolin and a camera. The plunder was returned and as there was no desire to prosecute on the part of the owners, the action was dismissed.

George Frazer and Louis Condrette, the young boys who were arrested for stealing chickens on the East Side last week and later were found sleeping soundly in a minister's house, which they entered while the occupants were away, had their hearing before Municipal Judge Hogue yesterday morning. The boys were sorry and as they promised to do better their cases were turned over to the Boys' and Girls' Aid so-ciety. Frazer is the lad who accidentally shot another boy, John Mitchell, near Lents, a month ago.

For carrying concealed weapons Fred Love, suspected highwayman, was sentenced to 30 days yesterday, while his companion, S. C. Hendricks, was fined $40 for roaming the streets. While the prisoners are serving their time in the county jail, Acting Detectives Hogeboom and Vaughn will investigate their connection with recent highway robberies. A victim of one of the many recent robberies is positive that Love and Hendricks are the pair who held him up on Everett street a week ago, robbing him of about $11 and his pocketbook.

A sneak thief who is robbing tele phone machines narrowly escaped being caught at 5 o'clock this morning when he attempted to break open a slot ma-chine in a lodging-house, 206% First street. Quietly sneaking through the hallway the thief sttempted to pry the money box open, but the noise he made awoke the proprietor, who opened his door to see what was the trouble. As he did so he saw the coat tails of the First train, 7:40 a. m. and second train

Paul Strain will tomorrow advertise another great Saturday almost-give-away-goods sale, and hopes that this time the rush will not be so great that men will break his show cases to get his clothing. Such was the case on last Saturday, and Mr. Strain says that if it happens ugain he will stop advertising in The Journal. Let his multitude of customers be patient this Saturday. His extra salesmen will hustle to beat the band, yet it may require some walting to secure the garments desired, therefore patience is collected.

The Republicans of the Powell strept district on the East Side have taken the preliminary steps for the forming of a "President Roosevelt club." The organization will be perfected at a meeting to be held at Blanck's hall, Powell street, on the evening of January 15. The following officers have been placed in nomination: President L. H. Wells: The Simmons Bros.' stock of dry goods and notions was badly damaged at the time their Washington street store was wrecked by the fire that "closed them out," almost, a few weeks ago. One wouldn't eat hay if offered pie, This comparison applies to the delicacies of baumkuchen, stollen, pfeffernuse and lubkuchen, made only at the Royal Bakery and Confectionery, Park and Wash-ington streets. There is no other place in Portland at which these aristocratic viands may be had. Though aristocratic, however, they are not expensive,

A good hot water bag or fountain syringe is a handy thing to have in the house, but don't get fooled into buying cheap, trashy affair because it is a bargain, as a leaky water bottle is a nuisance. Be on the safe side and get a reliable article, one that you can de-pend on, from Albert Berni, the druggist, Second and Washington.

The directors of Good Shepherd Episcopal church of Albina will hold a meeting next Tuesday evening to call a rector to take the place of H. D. Chambers, who some time ago resigned. Rev. Dawson of Roseburg is mentioned for the place.

Every special advertised value of the week is here on sale!

The FRIDAY "ECONOMY SALES" of ours are of extremest importance to every person who is interested in knowing how to spend money to the best advantage. Merchandise so timely and desirable as to need but little description, at prices that are much below the real value of the goods offered. COMPARISON of VALUES DEMONSTRATES OUR GREAT TRIUMPH -our positive leadership not only in everyday selling-January Clearance selling-but also in Friday bargain-giving. It's not a store's claim to greatness, but actual proof of its buying and selling power; not the collection of shoddy goods at catch-penny prices, but the merit and reliability of its merchandise; not what a store promises or brags about, but what it actually performs, that inspires PUBLIC CONFIDENCE.

The seeds of honest values, honest methods, honest advertising were planted here in fertile soil. The ripe and luscious fruit is now enjoyed by everyone within shopping distance - while our Mail Order Department reaches out and supplies even the uttermost parts of the civilized earth. In these respects we've built up an impregnable stone wall in defence of the buying public. You need go no farther - your best interests lie HERE! COME DOWN TOMORROW.
