EXALTED RULER AND HIS NURSING BOTTLE

(Journal Special Service.)
Salem, Or., Jan. 7.—Prof. McEwen, the hypnotist, who is a member of Salem Lodge, No. 238, E. P. O. Elks, opened a four-night engagement at the opera-house here last night, giving a benefit performance for that lodge, and it was a financial and social success. The elite of the capital city was in his audience, and his startling and at times funny exhibitions were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated. In his great ring act he played a joke on two of the prominent members of the Elks' lodge that will long be remembered by those two gentlemen and their friends. He called for four rings, two from ladies and the other two from prominent Elks, one of them the exalted ruler. After the ring-breaking act, and the usual disappearance of the rings, he drew them forth out of some boxes, the ladies' rings being each attached to beautiful bouquets. The ring of one of the Elks was attached to a miniature nursing bottle, and this provoked an outburst of mirth seldom heard in the opera-house. But it was the ring of the exalted ruler that produced the fun of the evening, for it was attached to a miniature nursing bottle, supplied with a small rubber tube and nipple, and the joke was thoroughly appreciated, for every one in the audience remembered only too well the fact that that gentleman and his bride had returned from their wedding tour but a few days ago. The joke on the Elks lodge will not be soon forgotten.

Prof. McEwen is well known in this city, where he often visits, and he is one of the most popular members of the lodge of Elks here.

Western Union Accused.
In the circuit court yesterday afternoon the case of Frazier & Long, a local real estate firm, against the Western Union Telegraph company came to a sudden termination, when Judge Frazer of Portland, who was on the bench, allowed a motion for a non-suit, filed by the Western Union Telegraph company. The case was brought for the purpose of securing damages for the failure of the Western Union to deliver a telegram addressed to the firm, causing it to be alleged, a loss of a commission on a real estate deal aggregating about $400, and the firm sued for the amount thus lost. It seems that last February, within a few days after the firm of Frazier & Long succeeded Loucks & Frazier, the firm had had for sale a large tract of land to some parties near Salem. A visitor here considered the purchase of these farms, then left for California, and from Ashland he telegraphed Frazier & Long on February 13 that he would take the farms if wired at San Francisco to the effect that they could still be had at the price quoted him, and he would at once forward money to pay for them. This telegram was not delivered until five days later, owing to the fact that the firm, which was the one, could not be found by the messenger after diligent search was made, and it was by accident that they were located. The customer was at once wired to forward the money, but it was five days before the check came, and by that time the owners of the place refused to sell.

At the trial the plaintiffs presented their testimony, and on motion of the defense the court granted a non-suit, for the reason that the testimony did not show that even if the telegram had been delivered on time the sale would have been effected without the possibility of a failure.

New York Hop Dealer Loses.
The case of George A. LaVie against W. L. Toose, which has been on trial for six months, came to an end yesterday, when Mr. Toose secured a verdict. The suit was brought by Mr. LaVie, a New York hop dealer, to recover 40 bales of hops, and this was effected, the hops being turned over subject to the decision of the court. The case was tried, appealed to the supreme court and reversed. On coming to trial this week the jury found for Mr. Toose in the sum of $1,140.63, he being awarded the 40 bales of hops, 7,344 pounds, at 15 cents a pound. Mr. Toose sued for $2,000.

Tied to the Woods.
T. A. Drew, aged 24 years, was yesterday received at the penitentiary asylum for treatment from Coos county. He is a laborer and is violent. The commitment shows that he imagined some one was trying to take his life, and he fled to the woods after threatening the lives of his father and other members of the family. Sheriff Gallier and James Laird, Jr., brought him to Salem.

NO SECRET.

There is no secret about Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil. The label tells the whole story. There is a knack in making it. The only secret about it is the secret of its success.

This year, when cod liver oil is very scarce and high, all kinds of cheap, inferior oils are used to take its place, and all sorts of things presented as substitutes. Think of petroleum being taken as a substitute for cod liver oil—too absurd. Think of the so-called wines, extracts and cordials of cod liver oil—they are simply the shadow without the substance; no food value in them.

Scott's Emulsion—"The Old Reliable" is the same yesterday, to-day and forever.

Its quality and purity can be absolutely depended upon at all times.

the ensuing term, District Deputy Grand Chancellor H. A. Johnson, assisted by Grand Tribune F. T. Wrightman and Grand Keeper of Records and Seal L. R. Stinson, performing the interesting ceremony. The old officers installed are: T. J. Cronise, chancellor; J. J. Lawrence, vice-chancellor; T. J. Cronise, prelate; George C. Will, master at arms; A. E. A. McFadden, master of the exchequer; W. L. Staley, keeper of records and seal; F. T. Wrightman, master of the work; L. L. Freeland, inner guard; H. A. Johnson, outside guard; J. M. Lawrence, trustee.

Bids for Asylum Supplies.
Bids for supplies for the insane asylum were opened by the board yesterday. The proposals were numerous, but in spite of this fact it was found that prices for staple provisions had advanced materially and this was apparent in nearly all lines. There were few awards made as it will take several days to compare and check the bids.

In Meats the Contract for Beef and Mutton was awarded to E. C. Cross of this city, who has the contract. He is now furnishing meats at $5.50 per 100 pounds, but under the new contract will receive $7.55.

BROUGHT TO JAIL FOR CATTLE STEALING
(Journal Special Service.)
Vancouver, Wash., Jan. 7.—Warrants have been issued for the arrest of William Manney Jones and Fred Morter for stealing cattle from O. P. Shintaffer on November 28, last. Stealing cattle is the charge, but the facts prove it to be a cow that was stolen.

Jones is the man that took the cow, it is said, and Manney killed the cow. Sheriff Blomquist left yesterday for the vicinity where the men live to make the arrest and returned with the men, who are now safely lodged in the county jail awaiting an opportunity to get bail.

Grows Tired of F. G.
Maud Markberry is dissatisfied with her husband—F. G. Markberry—actions and now asks the superior court to dissolve the bonds of matrimony on the ground that he is unjustly and unlawfully and cruelly beat, struck and otherwise cruelly assaulted her. She also alleges that her husband has a very vile temper, so that it is impossible for the two to live together. There is one minor child and Mrs. Markberry also asks for the custody and care of it.

The Seward-Daily Suit.
Leon Seward has brought suit against Charles Daly for $203, money claimed due on the sale of certain logs. The case was formerly brought in Justice Haine's court, and was decided against Seward. Seward appealed to the superior court. Seward claims that it was agreed that the amount of logs sold to Daly was 282,000 feet, and he was to receive $1 per 1,000.

Library Benefit.
The well-known Fleck Jubilee Singers will appear in Vancouver on Friday night, January 15. It is said the troupe fails to please wherever they go, and as their appearance here is for the benefit of the public school library, it is hoped that everyone in Vancouver will go to hear them.

Vancouver Briefs.
Miss Florence Heaven left Vancouver yesterday for Condon, Or., where she will for the next few weeks visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wood have sold their property in Vancouver and leave today for Riverside, Cal., where they have purchased property and will in the future make their home. Mr. Wood has given up several fine contracts for buildings in order to move to California, being compelled to do so on account of his ill-health.

R. H. Murphy, who has been visiting his parents in Southern Oregon, has returned. Mr. Murphy says that he found his folks enjoying good health and that he had a very fine visit, which was the more enjoyable because he has not been home for several years before his holiday visit.

Mr. and Mrs. O. Bolen were completely but pleasantly surprised last night by a large number of their neighbors calling and congratulating them on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Both of them were presented with a very fine present in commemoration of the event.

UNHEARD OF CRUELTY PRACTICED ON COW

(Journal Special Service.)
Eugene, Or., Jan. 7.—A case of extreme cruelty to animals is reported from Riverside, a few miles north of Eugene. It appears that someone last night proceeded to the cow shed of W. S. King, a resident of that vicinity, and cut the tail off of one of his cows. When Mr. King went out to the shed this morning he found the cow bleeding terribly from the injury inflicted. It seems that a number of Mr. King's neighbors have a spite against him for some reason and they never tire of tormenting him and causing him trouble. Not long ago some one drove three of his young best steers away and they have never returned, and other depredations have been done from time to time on his place, and he lays it all to his unfriendly neighbors.

The Old Parker Theatre.
The old Parker theatre, which was used as a playhouse many years prior to the erection of the new Eugene theatre, will soon be remodeled into store rooms, the proprietor, E. H. Ingham, having so concluded. Thus what the actors called the "bummest" theatre on the coast will soon pass into history.

Hops Sell at 25 Cents.
A big sale of hops was made in Eugene today. H. J. Ottenheimer of Salem purchased the Thornsburg & Patterson crop of 400 bales at 25 cents per pound. This was the growers about $15,000. A number of other big sales are expected in a few days. There are now quite a number of outside buyers here and they are urging those who have held on to their crops thus far to sell now.

NEW CITY FATHERS GET DOWN TO WORK

(Journal Special Service.)
Oregon City, Jan. 7.—The new city council met in the city hall last night with all members of the council present with the exception of Councilman Kurner. The four new councilmen, Albert Knapp, Mark Chapman, M. Justine and H. E. Straight, were inducted into office.

Mayor Grant B. Dimick made the following appointments, which were in each instance approved by the council without a dissenting vote: Chief of police, Charles Burrows; assistant chief of police and night watch, Edward F. Shaw; street commissioner, John Green; city engineer, E. P. Rands; city attorney, George F. Story. All of these parties are the old officials, who have given good satisfaction in their various positions during the past year.

Bruce C. Curry, the present efficient city recorder, was elected city recorder for the next year by a unanimous vote. The mayor announced that he had not as yet completed the makeup of the various committees for the next year and hence would make no appointments at this time, but would hand the list to the city recorder at a later date.

Claims against the city to the amount of $1,500 were approved by the finance committee and warrants ordered drawn on the treasurer in payment of same. A petition to place an arc light at the mouth of Mollala avenue in Ely near the cemetery road was referred to the committee on lights and public property with power to act.

The application of W. E. Wilson for a renewal of his saloon license was granted and the license ordered issued. The recommendation or request of the ladies of the Lewis and Clark club that the city of Oregon City purchase lot 51 in Oregon City, belonging to Captain Anderson, for the purpose of erecting thereon a monument to Dr. John McLaughlin and making a small city park, was indefinitely postponed, as it was found by the committee who had the matter in hand that the cost of the lot would approximate $2,500.

The ordinance presented by W. H. Boney to allow himself and others to erect a telephone line along the streets of Oregon City was given its first reading and ordered published.

The ordinance presented by G. W. Chas. directing the city of Oregon City by its common council to lease to him 26 feet of the alleyway below the bluff on Fifth street for the purpose of erecting a warehouse thereon was given its first reading and ordered printed.

The ordinance levying a tax for improvement purposes upon the property abutting upon Seventh street was given its first reading and ordered printed.

The annual report of the city recorder was presented by that official, read and referred to the finance committee.

The engineer of the city was directed to submit his final estimates upon the improvement upon Jackson street at the next meeting of the council.

Next meeting of the council the committee on lights and public property be directed to investigate all halls, churches and opera houses in Oregon City, to determine if they have complied with the law in regard to providing sufficient exits in case of fire. His request was complied with, and the committee will report at the next meeting of the council.

The board of water works submitted a lengthy and final report of the business of the water department for the last year. Secretary J. F. Hedges prepared the report, which shows that the plant has been operated during the past year at a profit of more than $3,000. The indebtedness of the water works board amounts to $27,000.

Treasurer T. J. Meyers submitted his annual report of the receipts and disbursements of the city for the past year, which was ordered published in full. The receipts from all sources last year amounted to $12,177.31 and the expenses to $9,394.21. The total indebtedness of the city as shown is $97,507.98.

In the Circuit Court.
In the circuit court yesterday evening Judge McBride overruled the motion of the defendants for a nonsuit in the suit of the Gladstone Real Estate association against Sheriff Shaver and Clackamas county. Monday was set as the day for the final hearing on the case. This is an injunction suit brought to restrain Sheriff Shaver and the county from selling the Gladstone property for delinquent taxes for the year 1901.

In the divorce suit of Galbraith vs. Galbraith the court awarded to the mother the custody of the minor daughter and to the father was given the custody of the two minor sons. The property interests were equally divided.

In the divorce suit of Howlett vs. Howlett the defendant was directed to pay to the plaintiff the sum of $30 with which to conduct her suit.

Annual Tax Levy.
The county court of Clackamas county in session today made the annual tax levy for the year 1904. The levy aggregated 20 1/2 mills and is made up of the following items: School purposes, 5 mills; state tax, 5 mills; road tax, 4 1/2 mills; and county purposes 6 1/2 mills. The tax levy in Oregon City is 2 mills. So that the total tax for all purposes this year will be 24 1/2 mills as against 24 1/2 mills last year. As the assessed valuation of Oregon City and Clackamas county property has been a little more than doubled this means that this is the highest tax rate Oregon City and the county have ever been called upon to pay. It was understood that the tax rate would be cut in two, but it has only been cut 14 mills when to have cut it in two would have meant a reduction all around of 24 1/2 mills.

William Duran, an aged and respected citizen of this city, past 64 years, was killed yesterday afternoon near Butteville by a falling tree. He was a wood chopper and for the past month had been engaged near Champoux. On Tuesday afternoon late he was caught by a falling tree and badly crushed, having his leg broken and bruised otherwise, from which injuries he died the next morning. A team was sent after the body last night. The in-

The steamer Leona, which plies upon the upper river, broke her shaft a short distance from this city yesterday and was not able to make her usual trip.

A Quilt Wedding.
David Williams and Miss Evaline Dempster were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents at Green Point last evening in the presence of a few friends. Mr. James Wilkins was best man and Miss Marie Baxter was maid of honor. Rev. J. H. Mixwell performed the marriage ceremony.

Methodist Social.
The musical and social at the Methodist church last evening was a very delightful affair and was well attended.

Col. R. A. Miller has been selected as toastmaster for the Democratic banquet on Friday evening. All arrangements have now been made and the banquet in an assured success. Among the distinguished guests who will be present and respond to toasts are Gov. George E. Chamberlain, Senator Albee Swook of Portland and Senator William Grace of Baker City. Many other notables are expected.

CORVALLIS

FARMERS TO HELP IN GOOD ROAD WORK

(Journal Special Service.)
Corvallis, Or., Jan. 7.—Residents of Benton county are rallying to the call of the state of rural free delivery routes, and contributions of 50 cents and $1 each from patrons along the lines are being sent in as a free-will offering to assist the carriers in feeding their horses and keeping up expenses caused by bad roads. So soon as it is possible to do any road work there will be plenty of willing hands to assist in the task, as the farmers are fully alive to the benefits derived from free rural delivery, and will do all in their power to improve the highways, to the end that the Corvallis routes may remain in operation. Many offers to do road work have been made by citizens, but nothing of a permanent character can be accomplished until the opening of spring.

It is thought now, however, that the crisis can be averted and that by managing to keep the routes in operation for the remaining winter months there will be no further danger of them being ordered discontinued, as has been threatened.

Corvallis Personal.
In honor of her brother, Will Purdy, of Portland, Miss Esther Purdy entertained a number of friends Monday evening.

Miss Winnie Gilbert of Everett, Wash., is visiting relatives in this city.

Clara Randall returned to his home in Olex, Monday.

Edwin Johnson, a former student at O. A. C., left a few days ago for his home in Vale, Eastern Oregon, after a visit here.

Ira Hunter of Waterville, Wash., is in Corvallis for a visit.

Miss Fay Cooley of Brownsville is the guest of Corvallis friends.

Cosgrove's orchestra of Chicago is to appear at the college armory Friday evening. The entertainment promises to be an excellent one.

The local lodge K. of P. have installed the following officers to serve the coming year: C. C. James, Harper; V. C. Alex Rennie; Prel. W. G. Emory; M. of W. Charles Porter; K. of R. and S. Robert Johnson; M. of Ex. B. W. Johnson; M. of P. Thomas Whitcomb; M. of A. Edwin Rose; L. G. John Zels; O. G. Jesse Spencer.

N. L. SHAFER

Why Is He Called the Man of Surprises?

He said: "I suppose mostly on account of the decisive way I do business. Always forming quick conclusions and taking hold of matters with all my power. This train load of fine clothing and furnishings, which will be put on sacrifice sale in the Morrissey clothing store Saturday, will be a genuine surprise to every one. First, because it is the largest fine stock ever offered at bona fide sacrifice possibly west of New York. Second, because it is the best made and of the highest quality of value. Third, because it is in the hands of a receiver, a well known Portland financier. Fourth, on account of my closing up my own business to take the general management of the sale of the stock. I did this for the people believing that my name is sufficient guarantee of the unquestionable veracity of all advertisements. I have already made appointments with a dozen dealers to buy quantities, and they pay exactly the same price as the consumer. The public shall and always will have the same price opportunity as the dealers, as I mark everything in plain figures and one price to the man with a dime or the merchants with his hundreds."

MUSICAL TALENT AT FOREST GROVE

(Journal Special Service.)
Pacific University, Jan. 6.—Prof. T. T. Chapman and Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman gave their first concert before a Forest Grove audience, last night in March Memorial hall. Mrs. Chapman, with her deep mezzo-soprano voice, captured her audience from the start, and kept it in raptures of delight. The range of her voice is wonderful, and its tone magnificent. She is without a peer in this section of the country. Mr. Chapman is an artist of exceptional ability on the violin. He can fairly make the instrument talk. Mr. Chapman is undoubtedly the finest violinist that ever appeared in Forest Grove.

A large audience greeted the performers, and again and again they responded to the enthusiastic accolades. The people fully appreciated the exceptional quality of the entertainment, and hope to have the pleasure of again listening to Professor and Mrs. Chapman.

CIRCUIT COURT IS SHORT.

(Journal Special Service.)
Dallas, Or., Jan. 7.—Department number two of the circuit court convened here Monday afternoon, and the few cases on the docket were disposed of in short order by Judge Bojse. Only one divorce case was on the docket for that day, and Mrs. Hazel Kennedy was granted a divorce from Jasper Kennedy on the grounds of desertion. Several long-standing cases were settled and the docket pretty well cleaned up.

Firm Goes Bankrupt.
Dunn's Grocery company of this city, a partnership consisting of J. H. and N. E. Dunn, yesterday filed a petition in bankruptcy. They are indebted to a number of Portland and San Francisco firms, the heaviest creditor being Allen & Lewis of Portland. Their liabilities amount to something like $3,000, and their stock and fixtures is worth probably $2,500.

Second Term at Dallas College.
The second term of the college opened Monday morning after a two week's vacation. All the last term students are back again and work has been resumed. The college basketball team are resting up after their successful tour, and have a game arranged with McMinnville college Friday evening, to be played in the college gymnasium here.

Politics in Polk.
As yet, politics are not very lively in this county. Polk is a county that can neither be classed as Democratic or Republican, and the ticket elected is generally a mixed one. The Republicans so far, have two candidates for senator, D. L. Key of Perrydale and E. C. Kirkpatrick of this city, and the fight between these two for the nomination will no doubt be a warm one. W. W. Perival of Independence, chairman of the Republican county central committee, desires the nomination for joint representative for Polk and Tillamook counties. Representative Hawkins could no doubt receive the nomination to succeed himself should he care to accept, which is not likely. On the Democratic side, no candidates have announced themselves, though plenty of good men are available. District Attorney Hart of this city will have the endorsement and vote of his county delegation for his re-nomination as district attorney of the Third judicial district, while Oscar Hayter, a prominent young lawyer and Democrat, of this city, has been spoken of as the probable Democratic candidate.
