JACKSON DAY A MARKED SUCCESS

(Journal Special Service.)
Oregon City, Jan. 9.—The celebration of Jackson's day by the Democrats of Clackamas county at Willamette hall last evening by a banquet was one of the most pleasant events which has been pulled off in Oregon City for many a day. The arrangements were in the hands of Messrs. J. W. Cole and Charlie Kelley and the menu and refreshments were all to their taste and liking. The hall was beautifully and tastefully decorated for the occasion and three rows of long tables containing 200 places stretched down the middle of the hall from one end to the other. Promptly at 8 o'clock the untimely Democracy fled in and all the plates arranged were taken. It was a splendid crowd, representative of the best Democracy there is in Clackamas county. The old warhorses were there and the boys who have just come of age were equally conspicuous. Every part of the county was represented. Farmers from 15 and 20 miles out had ridden into Oregon City and remained all night to attend the banquet.

Governor George E. Chamberlain was the guest of honor. He came up from Portland on the 7 o'clock car and for half an hour was kept busy meeting the "boys in the trenches." The governor occupied a seat at the head of the table. Col. Robert A. Miller presided as toastmaster and did it right royally. After reading a number of letters from prominent Democrats from every part of the state who found it impossible to attend the banquet, and giving a history of the battle of New Orleans and Jackson's connection therewith, the colonel introduced Governor Chamberlain. The governor was in a happy vein and in a minute was in close touch with his audience. His speech dealt largely with existing conditions. He urged Democrats of every shade of opinion to "get together," forget the past and bury the dead. He said the "Democratic party was a live, active and growing party" and "that with party unity we could win the battle for the presidency this fall. He said he "believed in the Panama canal; that we ought to build it across the isthmus and not criticize the president for acquiring rights in that direction." He "believed that we had come in possession of the Philippine Islands as an incident of the Spanish-American war and it was our duty to give the islands a good and stable government." But above and beyond all things was his plea for acquiring rights in that direction. He "believed that we had come in possession of the Philippine Islands as an incident of the Spanish-American war and it was our duty to give the islands a good and stable government." But above and beyond all things was his plea for acquiring rights in that direction.

Among the other persons who were called on and responded to toasts were: Judge William Galloway, former register of the land office; Gilbert L. Hedges, former representative; W. H. Vaughan, a Democrat from Molalla; Frank E. Jones, now 33 years old; W. W. Jesse of Barlow, E. G. Caulfield, cashier of the Bank of Oregon City; H. L. Kelley, bookkeeper in the same bank; George A. Harding, Dr. M. C. Strickland, Dr. W. E. Carl, Judge C. M. Waite of Canby, Gribble of Gribble, Fraile, Hon. Samuel White, chairman of the Democratic central committee of the state of Oregon from Baker city, and J. H. Westover, editor of the Oregon City Courier. The meeting came to a close at 12 o'clock. It was a joyous occasion all around. The watchword everywhere was harmony, and the meeting leaves the Democracy of Oregon City and Clackamas county in better condition than they have been in during recent years. Music for the occasion was furnished by Cook's orchestra and was much appreciated.

Highwaymen Active.
The highwaymen are again getting in their work in this "neck of the woods." John Dickelma, an employee of the street cleaning department of Oregon City, was held up last night by two footpads and relieved of all his money, amounting to $28. He at once notified the police and gave them a good description of the men who did the deed, but up to this time they have not been caught or located. The highwaymen were unmasked and the holdup occurred on the Southern Pacific railroad tracks at their intersection with Eighth street. After securing their victim's money the robbers disappeared in the direction of Portland.

EVER HAVE IT?

If You Have, the Statement of This Portland Man Will Interest You.

Ever have a "low-down" pain in the back? In the "small" right over the hips? That's the home of backache. It's caused by sick kidneys. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills cure it. Portland people endorse this. Read a case of it:
"J. Jenkins, of 315 East Sixth street, now retired from active life, says: 'I think very highly of Doan's Kidney Pills, which I procured at the Laue-Davis Drug Co.'s store, corner of Yamhill and Third streets. I used them for an acute attack of backache, which had annoyed me for some little time. Three days after I began their use I knew they had gone to the cause of the dull, dragging pains across the small of my back, and relief came sooner than I expected. I believe the cure is permanent, for I have not felt any symptoms of a recurrence. Other members of my family have also used Doan's Kidney Pills with equally good results.'"

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SHE SOLD HER OLD FATHER'S FURNITURE

(Journal Special Service.)
Salem, Jan. 9.—In the circuit court yesterday afternoon the case of A. H. Damon vs. J. Shantz and wife was tried. Damon in October, 1902, was committed to the insane asylum, and within a few days his daughter, a girl 17 years old, who had received some notoriety here and had gone to Portland, came to Salem and sold all the household goods in her father's home to a second-hand furniture dealer named Shantz. The old man was recently discharged from the asylum and brought suit against Shantz for the value of the goods, placed at $1,038. The jury found for Mr. Damon in the sum of $250 and interest, a total of $268.88.

H. E. Allen, an ex-convict, who was early this week arraigned on the charge of issuing a forged check at Stayton, and who pleaded not guilty and undertook to fight the case, yesterday afternoon appeared in the circuit court, changed his plea to guilty and will be sentenced today. Allen came to the penitentiary less than five years ago from Jackson county for a term of 10 years, for forgery. He was at once put on double time, as he was a good carpenter, and the day before Governor Geer's term expired, Allen's sentence was commuted to expire in April. When discharged he went to Stayton, where he began carpentering. While engaged in building an addition to the Catholic church at Stayton, he one night came to Stayton, and presented a check signed by a prominent member of the Catholic church in Stayton, for $75. This was readily cashed, when Allen disappeared. The check was forged, and Allen was soon thereafter arrested and held to the circuit court.

Dora Wants Divorce.
Dora Zeiss, residing here, has brought a divorce suit against E. Zeiss. The couple were married in Corvallis in December, 1895. The woman alleges desertion and inhuman treatment, and asks for a divorce, a half interest in a tract of land in Linn county, $2,000 alimony and $200 lawyer's fees and her costs.

Nate Kinsey Resigned.
Nate Kinsey, a guard at the penitentiary, who was appointed early in December, has quit his position, having filed his resignation with the superintendent. Kinsey is a Marion county Democrat, and he came well recommended, but he was not as useful or as satisfactory as it was hoped he would be. Kinsey's resignation was accepted last evening, and his place filled by another appointee.

Officers of Order of Lions.
The local lodge of the Order of Lions has installed its officers for the new year. The lodge was visited by W. T. McPherson, deputy supreme president, and the occasion was made an important event, especially as it happened to be the first meeting of the lodge in its new quarters. The visit was followed by the serving of a bountiful repast. The officers installed are:

H. B. Morrison, president; N. J. Judah, vice-president; Mary Sheridan, chaplain; Celeste M. Linton, secretary; Elizabeth T. Adair, treasurer; Margaret Jacob, sergeant at arms; Margaret Munson, assistant; T. J. Arthur, doorkeeper; Martha Sheridan, sentinel; Jennie Hutchins, musician; Dr. W. S. Mott, medical examiner; J. J. Longcor, trustee.

YOUNG BOYS TURN BOLD HIGHWAYMEN

(Journal Special Service.)
Independence, Or., Jan. 9.—It was reported here today that two young boys living a few miles south of Independence took it upon themselves to become highwaymen and held up two of their neighbors' boys, who were driving along the county road. When they reached a place near the watering trough, the hidden boys shot off a gun and jumped from their hiding place and demanded of the young fellows their money. The horses of the boys were frightened and started to run, and the holdups started off across the fields to head them off, and did so and robbed the boys of their money, which, of course, was not much. The youngest bandit is only 14 years of age, and is named Ernest Porter, the other lad is about 19 years of age and is named Steele, but is very small for his age, and it has been a hard matter to manage him. Endeavors will be made to have both boys placed in the reform school, in order to give them time to mend their ways.

Council Matter Straightened.
The city council has organized. At a meeting called by the mayor, J. S. Cooper, all hands joined together and pulled the matter out of its troubles in such a manner that it is thought the storm will be successfully weathered until another charter can be passed. The conflicting sections of the charter refer principally to election of members, qualifications and such, and it is thought that by all forces joining hands and legalizing their acts as far as possible, that the business transacted will be adjudged legal if taken into court at any time, even if difficulty should arise over the qualification of members.
Another meeting was held last night, at which efforts were made to pay such bills as have been laying on the table. Meeting nights were decided on at the last meeting and Tuesdays were selected for the ensuing year.
The officers as seated and in their chairs at the meeting for the ensuing year are as follows: Mayor, J. S. Cooper; councilmen, holdovers, A. S. Locke, W. H. Craven, J. S. Bohannon and H. C. Finch, the new officer taking his seat being D. B. Taylor. One vacancy is yet to be filled, which is the place belonging to Mr. W. A. Messner, who was unavoidably absent in Vancouver on business, and who, it is understood, will take his office upon his return.

CAN DINE AT HOME.
Before Taking the "Spokane Flyer" for Eastern Washington Points.
By the new O. R. & N. time card, persons desiring to take the Spokane Flyer for Spokane, Coeur d'Alene and other Eastern Washington points can now dine at home (train leaves at 7:45 p. m.) before leaving for the Portland-Chicago Special, now leaves at 8:30 a. m.

DIME NOVELS LED TO A HOBO CAMP

(Journal Special Service.)
Albany, Or., Jan. 9.—Two 14-year-old boys, after loading their minds with wild and weird tales of the dime novel heroes and filling their pockets with a hoard of provisions, established a hobo camp in the brush a short distance east of town and proceeded to become followers of their idols. Tin cans served for cooking utensils and a campfire furnished light and heat for the youthful tramps. The parents of the boys are well to do and respected members of Albany society and were shocked at the course pursued by their offspring. They could not locate the tramps, but knew that they were in the vicinity of town. Chief of Police McClain was instructed to find them and to use strenuous measures to check their uncalculated career.

After the boys had remained two days in their camp the chief discovered them and a raid followed. One boy was cooking while the other was doing sentry duty, but the lookout did not cover the less than five years ago from Jackson county for a term of 10 years, for forgery. He was at once put on double time, as he was a good carpenter, and the day before Governor Geer's term expired, Allen's sentence was commuted to expire in April. When discharged he went to Stayton, where he began carpentering. While engaged in building an addition to the Catholic church at Stayton, he one night came to Stayton, and presented a check signed by a prominent member of the Catholic church in Stayton, for $75. This was readily cashed, when Allen disappeared. The check was forged, and Allen was soon thereafter arrested and held to the circuit court.

"Holy Roller" Creffield.
Instead of going to Corvallis, as was generally supposed, F. E. Creffield of Holy Roller notoriety, and his bride, took the Brownsville train from this city Tuesday afternoon and now at that place. The apostle evidently did not relish the thought of again facing the tar and feather brigade and the wrath of Mr. Hurt, his father-in-law, but concluded to hunt new fields. The Brownsville people will not tolerate any of their foolishness and Creffield will receive sharp treatment if he commences to practice what he preaches.

Rejects Final Proof.
The Lakeview land office continues to reject the final proofs of Linn county citizens. About 20 claimants received notice yesterday that they would not be allowed to prove up, because the filings had not been made in the district. The lands are located in Klamath and Lake counties and the applications to file were made before a United States commissioner at Bend, Crook county. The applications were accepted and the notices published, but after a period of nearly four months the entries have been rejected. The lands are covered with yellow and sugar pine timber and many people are of the opinion that the holders, representing various railroad and lumber companies, are instigating the trouble. The claimants have been to a large expense and will make a hard fight for what they believe is right and just.

Albany Notes.
Mr. and Mrs. H. F. McIlwain will leave tonight for the East, where the former will purchase a large stock of new goods for his store. They will be absent about four weeks.

Eugene Cusick, son of Hon. and Mrs. J. W. Cusick, who has been seriously ill with appendicitis, is recovering, but will not be able to resume his studies in the Hill Military academy during the term.

State Organizer C. C. Hogue of the A. O. U. W. left yesterday for Southern Oregon, where he will work in the interests of the order.
The Odd Fellows installed their new officers Wednesday night and had a fine spread after lodge. The officers are: N. G. N. M. Newport; V. G. J. W. Ellison; secretary, H. Barnes; treasurer, J. Gradwohl; F. S. T. Ralph McKechnie; R. S. N. G. J. M. Brandenburg; L. S. N. G. A. Robinson; S. S. A. A. Millard; chaplain, C. W. Bears; warden, A. R. Hill; O. G. Fred Hocksler; I. G. John Robson. The A. O. U. W. and Degree of Honor held a joint installation of officers Wednesday night and a social time followed the ceremonies.

Harry E. Davis and Miss Rosamond Carter, prominent young people of Halsey, were married at the St. Charles hotel in this city yesterday, Dr. M. C. Wire officiating.

John Couser, an old resident of Syracuse precinct, was injured by a horse falling on him and a physician was called. While seriously bruised, he was not injured internally.

RED LETTER DAY IN REVIVAL TRADE

(Journal Special Service.)
Vancouver, Wash., Jan. 9.—Last night was a red letter evening for the Methodist revival meeting that has been in progress for the last two weeks. During the invitations for people to come forward that wished to turn away from their sinful ways, three Salvation Army officers went up and expressed their sorrows for having deserted the cause of religion, and two of the three immediately enlisted in the old cause of Christianity. This event was one that the evangelists seldom meet with, namely, a Salvation Army officer having deserted the cause, and they feel they have a just reason to rejoice at the success met with. The ministers are the more encouraged by the unprecedented interest they have aroused in the public in general. It is claimed by the leaders in these revivals that it is the most successful revival ever held in Vancouver.
The services throughout the week, both in the afternoon and evening, are well attended, and it is decided to continue the revivals another week, and possibly longer.
The services for tomorrow will be as usual, Sunday school at 9:45 in the morning; Rev. Rimmonday will preach at 11, and hold a reception of members into the church. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon there will be children's meeting and evangelical services at 7:30 in the evening.
At St. Luke's Episcopal church tomorrow the usual services will be held at 8 and 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subject of the morning sermon will be "The Gospel of Humanity."
At the Baptist church services will be held by Pastor R. Yeatman at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The morning theme: "The Holy Spirit—God's Free Gift." Evening theme: "Thy Kingdom Come." Sunday school at 10 a. m. B. Y. B. U. meeting at 8:30.
At the Christian church the usual services will be held.
Chaplain Smith will continue his lectures tomorrow night at the usual hour at the post hall, on the "Life and Times of Christ."
Bible studies will be conducted at the post hall under the direction of the chaplain at 9 a. m.
A Pretty Musical.
At a gathering of a few friends at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Suhls last evening all were pleasantly entertained by several violin solos by Miss Elizabeth A. Wollenber. The selections were well rendered and the young lady was highly complimented on her progress in music. Miss Wollenber has only lately commenced the study of the violin and the progress she has made is quite surprising to her many friends.
Gay Wollenber, her brother, is also quite an accomplished musician, and the two young people accomplish rapid progress in their studies by utilizing their spare time practicing together.

Artisans Give Social.
Vancouver assembly No. 6, United Artisans, gave a social dance and banquet after meeting tonight at Eichenlaub's hall; and Evergreen assembly, 189, will also hold a social tonight at their hall at Orchards, Wash. Orchards is only five miles out, with a fine bicycle path all the way, and there are a large number of young folks contemplating attending the latter place.

REDWOOD GRANGE INSTALLS OFFICERS

Rockwood, Or., Jan. 9.—The local grange at this place held its regular meeting recently and at that time installation of the newly elected officers for the ensuing term took place as follows:

Master, F. H. Crane; overseer, George Cottrill; secretary, Mrs. V. A. Lovelace; treasurer, S. P. Osborn; lecturer, Mrs. Ida M. Thorpe; chaplain, Mrs. William Rowen; gate keeper, Wade H. Osborn; steward assistant, Frank Fisher; steward assistant, Mrs. Cora Robertson; Pomona, Ruth Douthett; Flora, Edna Powell; Ceres, Daisy Dickson.

After the installation a new patron was instructed in the arts and mysteries of husbandry and the membership now stands at the 150 mark.

Since the organization of the grange here a very marked interest has been taken by all and A. F. Miller of Sellwood is rarely absent from any of the business sessions, as he is a very earnest and energetic patron. It is he who looks after the insurance branch of the grange.
In the death of John Miller, Sr., recently, the organization lost a member who is greatly missed. The next regular day session of this grange will be held on January 15, it being the third Saturday in the month.

A New Teacher.
Rockwood school has a former teacher for a short time as the former teacher, Miss C. A. Love, is ill at her home in Portland. It is said she will soon be able to resume her duties and until such a time the school will be kept by the present incumbent.
The Rockwood assembly No. 205 of United Artisans will hold its installation of officers tonight at which time the newly elected officers are requested to be present. The secretary's report

HEALTHY WOMEN

Praise Pe-ru-na as a Cure and Preventative of Catarrhal Disorders.

Miss Elizabeth Uber, No. 67 Bassett street, Albany, N. Y., writes:

"I have always dreaded the fall and winter because of my extreme liability to catch cold, when catarrhal trouble would quickly develop through my entire system which it would take weeks to drive away. I am thankful to say that since I have taken Peruna, I do not have any reason to dread this any more. Last fall when I suffered with my old trouble I took Peruna and in nine days was completely cured and since that time, if I have been at all exposed to the damp, wet or cold weather, I take a dose or two of Peruna and it throws out any hint of sickness from my system. I gladly endorse it."—Miss Elizabeth Uber.

Mrs. Wm. Dewey, Saranac Lake, N. Y., is second cousin of Admiral Dewey. In a recent letter she says:

"Peruna is the most valuable of any remedy that I have ever used for coughs, colds, etc. I cheerfully recommend it as a certain cure, if used according to directions."—Mrs. Wm. Dewey.

Miss Rosa Gerbing, a popular society woman of Crown Point, Ind., writes:

"Last winter I took a long drive in the country, and being too thinly clad I caught a bad cold which settled on my lungs, and which I could not seem to shake off. I had heard a great deal of Peruna for colds and catarrh and I bought a bottle to try. I am pleased that I did for it brought speedy relief. It only took two bottles and I consider this money well spent."

"You have a firm friend in me, and I not only advise its use to my friends, but have purchased several bottles to give to those without the means to buy, and have noticed without exception that it has brought about a speedy cure wherever it has been used."—Miss Rosa Gerbing.

To neglect a cold is to invite chronic catarrh. As soon as anyone discovers the first symptoms of catching cold he should at once begin the use of Peruna according to directions on the bottle, and the cold is sure to pass away without leaving any bad effects.

Unless this is done the cold is almost sure to end in the second stage of catarrh which is making so many lives miserable. If Peruna was taken every time one has a cold or cough chronic catarrh would be practically an unknown disease.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.
