GOAT SHOW TO BE BIG AFFAIR.

Dallas, Or., Jan. 11 .- The fifth annual angora goat show and sale for the state of Oregon, which is to be held in this city on Thursday and Friday of this week, promises to be a big affair. Blooded goats will be entered from every part of the state. The show is held under the auspices of the Polk County Mohair association and is growing larger and better each year. Diplomas will be given to all prizewinners, and no entrance fees will be charged, while feed is furnished to the charged, while feed is furnished to the stock free of charge. The show will open on the morning of the 14th and will be open to visitors on that evening and during the next day. A special train will run downs from Pertland on Thursday, bringing visitors from the livestock convention in that city.

Free space will also be given to all who desire to make exhibition of sheep and poultry. This latter is independent of the goat show and is made simply to give sheep growers and poultry raisers a chance to show their stock. The committee on arrangements, H. L. Fenton, Wilson Ayres and U. S. Grant, are leaving no stone unturned to make the affair a big success.

New College Gymnasium.

The Dallas college executive commit-tee has made arrangements whereby that institution has acquired the old deserted woolen mills building near the college campus and will convert the same into an up-to-date gymnasium. Baths will be put in, together with all other gymnasium facilities. On the main floor the basket ball court will be located and will be made the regulation Carpenters are now at work on size. the building remodeling it, and it will be in shape next Friday evening for the basket ball game between Dallas college team and a team from the O. N. G. team of Albany. The All-Stars from Portland are to play here in the near future as well as the U. of O. basket ball team, and efforts are also being made to bring the Seattle team here sometime in Feb runry.

News Notes.

Prof. E. L. House, a noted lecturer will deliver the first of the series of lectures of the star course in the col lege chapel this evening. of lectures has been given in Dallas during the past three years and have al ways been well attended and very successful.

The Dallas Juvenile band will give dance at the opera house Saturday evening for the purpose of raising money to defray expenses and to buy uniforms, music, etc. The boys have been practicing only a short time and are making rapid progress.

Notwithstanding the rainy weather during the past few days, the gang of men who are putting in the water works system have been steadily at work laying pipe and digging ditches. The most of this kind of work will be finished before spring.

SALEM SOCIALISTS MEET TO DISCUSS

(Journal Special Service.) Salem, Jan. 11.-The Salem Socialist club yesterday afternoon met for the discussion of the question, "Resolved that the Republican party is the friend of the laboring man." The discussion was participated in by a large number of the members of the club, and at the conclusion of the debate, honors were about even. It would not be surprising to see the Socialists of Marion count swallowed up by the G. O. P., for the saucy jade has been long courted and as far back as the opening of the 1902 campaign saw Socialists in some of the precincts led up to the polls in the Republican primaries and voted en masse. In one precinct it is reported that one leader delivered 42 Socialistic votes to a Republican candidate, and his failure to secure the coveted nomination certainly was not the fault of his Socialistic supporters.

Local Odd Pellows. The two local Odd Fellows' lodges held a joint installation of officers last Saturday night in the I. O. O. F. temple, and the occasion was marked by the greatest gathering of members of the order seen in this city for some years. Mr. Otto Shulz of Jefferson, deputy district grand master for this district, inducted officers into their respective stations, and the interesting ceremonies were followed by a banquet to all the members assem bled, including a number from near-by towns, and the social session lasted until a late hour, the gathering being in the nature of a reunion of Odd Fellows. The officers installed were: Chemetka lodge No. 1.—R. J. Spencer, noble grand; C. L. McNary, vice grand; W. H. Pettit, secretary; C. C.
