BROKERS' OPINIONS ON NEW YORK STOCKS

Logan & Bryan, New York: There is not much change in prices and none that we can see in the situation.

The investment buying of bonds is increasing and is good. The banks are still gaining money and low interest rates are forcing some to come.

There is nothing disturbing in the political news. The whole tone of the market is strong and the situation seems to justify prices. Buy stocks.

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Logan & Bryan say: The wheat market is 1 cent to 3/4 cents higher.

The principal strength is, of course, in the May option. The foreign markets still show only dullness and prices here at the close are about equal with Liverpool prices.

The outside markets only partially followed the advance here. The Southwest has good rains. Primary receipts are considerably in excess of a year ago.

There was nothing disturbing in the political situation. The congestion in wheat in this market is in the situation. So far as can be observed the Armour contingent is standing pat.

CHICAGO WHEAT CONSIDERABLY HIGHER

Chicago, Jan. 20.—Wheat prices were sensational, an advance of 1/2 cent since yesterday. May corn opened at 49 1/2 cents, touched 50 1/2 cents at the top and closed at 50 1/2 cents.

Wheat—Principal strength in May—much buying now of July—corn closed 1/2 cent higher—oats advanced.

There was nothing disturbing in the political situation. The congestion in wheat in this market is in the situation. So far as can be observed the Armour contingent is standing pat.

There is a large general speculative interest, and the bullish sentiment predominates. There are, we think, large lines of corn in strong hands, and the advance has been rather justified by the cash situation and outlook.

SENSATIONAL RISE IN CHICAGO PIT

MAY WHEAT CLOSED AT 50 1/2 CENTS, THE HIGHEST POINT OF THE DAY, AN ADVANCE OF 1/2 CENT SINCE YESTERDAY—JULY OPENED AT 53 1/2 CENTS.
