In-Royd will rescind his order suspending the chief of police. The talk of a grand jury has not helped the situation any. Chief of Police Woydt and the new chief, Captain Coverly, are both doing the Alphonse and Gaston act and are the patterns of politeness about the headquarters, but Chief Woydt refuses to give up the keys and books, and the new chief cannot get them. Mayor Boyd in an interview has modified his expressions about the old chief and said yesterday: "My emergency order will extend over a period of short duration. The officers may all be reinstated within the next few days. Chief Woydt has acted very fair and shown good horse sense. My idea has always been to have a man appointed to the position of chief of police from the ranks of the officers. of police from the ranks of the officers.

It was my intention when I came into office to appoint Captain Coverly if he would accept. At the same time I intended to try and have an ordinance passed which at the expiration of his term as chief would return him to his

The funeral of W. H. Hartless, formerly a resident of Corvallis, will take place in that city tomorrow. Mr. Hart-less met a tragic death at Seattle Thursday night by being run down by a streetcar. The unfortunate man died at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, his left leg having been amputated at the Scattle general hospital. Accompanied by his friend, C. W. Lockwood, while walking up First avenue near Battery street, Hartless started across the street. He

So long as the position of chief of police is used as a political football, just so long will the police force of Spokane be under an incompetent head."

MARVELOUS, INDEED.

PORTLAND, Or.; Dec. 2.—Dear Doctors: I had been sick 12 years with asthma, heart and stomach troubles; also had a large tumor in my side. Had been unusually bad all this summer. Was not able to go to your office for treatment at first. Was sick in bed for four weeks before beginning treatment at your parlors. During this time I was nursing myself under your direction. I finally was able to go to your office, and after seven weeks' treatment; I am entirely well.

Jeams to you on Monday morning walking with much difficulty, by using a cane. I really ought to have used crutches. I had suffered with sciatic rheumatism for about two years; was unable to sleep at night for weeks at a time. I slept well after I received your first treatment; laid aside my cane after the second treatment, and am entirely well after six treatments. I start for California tonight well and happy. I will send all the people I find sick or alling to you, feeling sure that you can cure them. Yours truly,

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 7, 1903.— To Whom It May Concern: I suffor whom it may Concern: I suf-fered two and one-half years from nervous disease, and my stomach was so badly afflicted that I was sick almost all the time. My diges-tion was so badly impaired that there appeared a half-dead condition of all internal action. I was so weak that all work was a burden to me, and I could scarcely sleep at all. I tried several physicians with-out beneficial results. I then heard of Dr. Fulton, and after taking a few treatments was able to sleep nights, and after five weeks' treatment I find myself cured and my strength gradually returning.

SHE SLEEPS NIGHTS NOW.

Scores of patients who have been cured will be glad to bear tastimony to Dr. Fulton's skill, but do not wish their names to appear in print. Many of them are willing, however, to have their addresses named to sick persons, and to tell them how the doctor eradientes disease, painlessly and speedily, without the administration of a drop of drugs or the use of the hulfo. Of course, the expense of medicines are thus avoided, and that is an item worthy of consideration.

Among Dr. Fulton's patients are numbered many of Portland's foremost business men and leading women. These have learned that there is wisdom outside the covers of the M. D.'s books.
