HANLON WAS KNOCKED OUT

EXPERTS AGREE TEAT CORRETT IS ENTITLED TO THE CREDIT OF HAVING PUT THE LITTLE CALL-FORMIAN OUT-OFINIONS OF THE TYPE TO

Very few followers of pugilism really know what constitutes a knockout in a prize fight. After many important con-tests, especially a battle for the cham-pionship, where a referee stops an en-counter because one man has scant chance of winning, the newspapers receive queries as to whether such and such a man has been knocked out. Of-such a man has been knocked out. Of-ten wagers hinge on the correct answer-ing of these queries, but often the decl-sions do not satisfy those who desire to see the questions decided. A number of excellent fistic judges contend that a man is knocked out when he fails to come to time in the prescribed 10 seconds after being floored, no matter if he is not unconscious; while others say that he is not knocked out unless he is "mut to sheep" or rendered unconis "put to sleep" or rendered uncon-scious for a brief space of time. In the recent contest between Eddie Hanlon and Young Corbett the fight was stopped by Referee Graney in the sixteenth round. Although Hanlon was not uncon-scious when he was prevented from con-tinuing the mill will go on record as a knockout for Curbett knockout for Corbett.

Opinions of Authorities. Jim Wakely, Billy Elmer and Brooklyn Jimmy Carroll, who are in a position to know, say that Hanton was knocked out and give plausible reasons for saying

"All bets made on Corbett winning on a knockout should be paid without de-lay," said Wakely. "That is the only way to look at it from a betting and fair way to look at it from a betting and fair standpoint. Graney interfered to prevent a knockout which would surely have happened. Ferhaps Hanlon would have been fatally hurt, too. Hanlon was prac-tically out, and when a man is in that condition he is knocked out. Of course, some folks insist that a man has to be sent dead to the world before he is knocked out. That is simply absurd. "One often hears the expression that a person is knocked out when he has ex-

a person is knocked out when he has ex-erted himself to any extent. He may erted himself to any extent. He may still be able to know what he is doing, but powerless to act in the same way as he would when in possession of all his faculties. It would be a crying shame for any referee to allow any game man to be beaten into insensibility. What's the good of that? If a man is beaten and hasn't any show to win he ought to be crateful to the referee when he in-

be grateful to the referee when he in-terferes. By stopping any mill the ref-eree does a humane act if the occasion warrants. He takes away all chances of a complete knockout, which does not alter the ultimate result. Still, just the same, it is a knockout without the brutal features that would have attended it had the referee allowed the mill to continue.'

What Carroll Says.

Carroll's opinion is that it is not nee essary for a man to lie on the floor and take the count to be knocked out. "I have known many fighters to be knocked out standing." continued Carroll. "About 15 years ago, in Indiana, a fellow named Brennan met another pugilist known as The scrap was even until the In the fifth, though, Brennan fourth. rushed and swung a hard right hander to his opponent's jaw. Suddenly, at the top of his voice, Flynn began to sing and season dance. He did not know where he was, and when the referes declared the fight against him and touched him on the shoulder, he said: "Take your partners for a waltz.' Yet Flynn was knocked out and standing up at that. A man who refuses to pay a wager on a knockout if the referee stops a battle is a welcher pure and simple. I've seen fighters deliberately quit in a ring by lying down and feigning a knockout. Yet it would be unjust to say so because when a man takes to the floor from a blow, whether the punch is a hard one or not, and refuses to get up he is knocked out.

WHEN WILL MAGNATES REACH AN AGREEMENT

Although the time is short, the local magnates have not yet taken any action in the baseball situation, and the managerial affair still hangs fire. Mr. Ely will continue to negotiate with players and endeavor to have a team when the magnates come to an agreement, which, from present indications, may be about next Christmas, If Portland is to be represented in the Coast league, the sooner this matter is settled
