ANSWER No. 19

"No advertisement, which has been read by and has made any impression on a fair number of people, is a failure. Seed-time must be all the time; harvest time will not fail."

This morning several merchants received a mailing card asking a question, to which the above is the answer.

It Was Good to See

How the guests enjoyed the coffee served at a reception one night this week. It was Country Club Mocha and Java—thus the smiles.
